Sharp Debate Marks Nixon, Kozlov Chat

Soviet Visitor May Press Reds' Claim For World Peace

The schedule for the second and final day of his Washington visit included a round of sightseeing and an hour-long speech and press conference.

Kozlov talked Wednesday with President Eisenhower, Nixon, Secretary of State Christian A. Herter and leading senators. The outcome: a standoff.

Authoriative sources reported that in his 70-minute White House conference, and in an hour-long session with Herter, Kozlov only repeated the Soviets' familiar theme at the deadlocked Geneva talks on Germany.

Eisenhower and Herter countered with the American stand: that the Allies are going to stand firm against what they say is Moscow's threat to oust them from Communist-surrounded West Berlin.

The 50-year-old Soviet leader's unexpected joust with Nixon erupted at Nixon's reception for Kozlov Wednesday night at the President's guest house. The verbal battle could resume tonight, when Nixon will be Kozlov's guest at a Soviet Embassy reception.

Kozlov had complained to Eisenhower earlier about America's attitude toward the Soviet Union. For example, he said, the United States forced the Soviet Union to pay in gold for famine-relieving food sent the U.S.S.R. after the Bolsheviks seized power late in World War I.

Nixon shot back that only last Monday former President Herbert Hoover, U.S. relief administrator after World War I, had shown him a letter from the Soviet government expressing thanks for the outright gift which Congress had approved. Nixon said the record should be kept straight.

"The question is not one to be discussed, it is not disputed," Kozlov finally admitted through his interpreter. He seemed somewhat shaken, but he never lost his smile during the spirited discussion. Neither did Nixon or Herter.

As guests eavesdropped, Nixon told Kozlov he is "a hard man — you never answer a question." And the vice president advised the Kremlin against believing reports of widespread differences in the administration, saying he and Herter spoke as one on foreign policy.

Kozlov said, "We know that as Republicans and Democrats you are as one on foreign policy."

"The difference between you and us is that you never have any arguments among yourselves," Nixon told Kozlov.

"We certainly do," replied Kozlov. "There is never a day when we do not argue among ourselves."

"The difference is," Nixon said, "we publicize ours, and you don't."

Freeway Path To Be Aired At Meeting Here

The State Highway Department has scheduled a public hearing at City Hall Thursday, July 30, at 1:30 p. m. on the proposed route for a four-lane freeway link between California Hollow and W. 3rd and Monroe Sts., one of the last steps required by law before the plans are approved officially and a call is issued for contractor's bids.

Notice of the public hearing has been received by Mayor Fred P. Lawrence and Safety-Service Director Joseph F. Ross. It will be held in the Municipal Court room on the third floor of City Hall.

Highway Department officials are expected to attend from both the central office in Columbus and the Division 11 office at New Philadelphia, which is directly in charge of work in Columbiana County.

Such a hearing generally begins with a brief explanation of the project, then the reading of the legal description of the right-of-way. Then the discussion is opened to questions or protests from affected residents. The law requires such a public hearing before plans can be made final and the project can be entered on the journal of the State Highway Department director.

East Liverpool has known for months the general path the freeway will follow. Starting at the city limits in California Hollow, it will enter West End by generally following the path of Carpenters Run. Then it will cross over the four-lane "super-road" stretch of W. 8th St. with an overpass and an interchange, loop around the City Hospital site and connect with W. 3rd and Monroe Sts. Construction is set tentatively for 1960.

Eventually, the four-lane road is scheduled to be constructed to the Ohio-Pennsylvania line.

Kidnaped Girl, 6, Found Alive By Police

Sen. Ellender Seeks Hike In Size Of Army

New Effort Pledged For 900,000 Men; More Funds Sought

WASHINGTON (AP) — A new effort to increase the size of the Army to 900,000 men was promised today by Sen. Allen J. Ellender (D-La).

His proposal, for which he claimed strong support, would add another 100 million dollars to a defense appropriations bill already about 900 millions higher than the total voted by the House. The Senate Defense Appropriations subcommittee completed action on the bill Wednesday.

"I think we have the votes in the full Appropriations Committee to hold the Army to a minimum of 900,000," Ellender, a committee member, said in an interview.

The administration wants to hold the Army to 870,000 men, and the House held to that figure despite efforts to increase it.

Chairman Dennis Chavez (D-NM) said the subcommittee defeated Ellender's Army buildup move "by a narrow margin."

It did vote to add 43 million dollars to build the Marine Corps back to 200,000 instead of the 175,000 asked by the administration and approved by the House. It also added 400 millions for Army modernization.

Chavez said subcommittee appropriations would run 900 millions more than the House voted and about 500 millions more than the $39,248,200,000 asked by President Eisenhower.

Subcommittee increases would beef up the Navy with a new 380-million-dollar nuclear - powered aircraft carrier and step up the long-range ballistic missiles program as well as planned defenses against such missiles.

Legislature Session May End July 17

Accord Needed On Compensation Laws And School Measure

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's legislators may end their 1959 session July 17—but only if agreement is reached on three important bills.

That was the word percolating down through the membership of the 103rd General Assembly today as lawmakers prepared to end their 26th work week.

House leaders in the Democratic-dominated General Assembly are reported preparing to offer soon—perhaps today—a resolution calling for an end to the working sessions after another two legislative weeks.

But the kingpin in a situation like this is Senate Majority Leader Frank W. King (D-Lucas). No matter how overwhelmingly the House may adopt the session-ending resolution, King says:

"I intend to hold it back until we get firm agreements on three bills: To improve the unemployment compensation law, to liberalize the workmen's compensation law and to distribute the extra school foundation money."

The Legislature, he asserts, "cannot adjourn without action on these bills."

King, of course, was not including a couple of bills passed by the House Wednesday and now pending in the Senate—measures to appropriate more than 98 million dollars for capital improvements and slightly more than $1,100 000 for sundry claims against the state. No Legislature in memory has adjourned without passing those bills.

Wednesday's generally lacklustre sessions saw one offbeat move by two Cincinnati Republican senators, William H. Deddens and Fred L. Hoffman, to nullify the sales tax revision, already in effect. They insist a Senate quorum was not present when the 33-million-dollar measure was signed by Lt. Gov. John Donahey Tuesday night.

The Senate, however, beat down by a 25-5 vote their attempt to correct, as they put it, the Senate journal. They were forced to content themselves with individual protests which will be printed in the journal. They obviously were attempting to lay the groundwork for a possible taxpayer's suit to nullify the tax.

House Industry and Labor Committee members waited in vain until early today for Chairman Francis Reno (D-Lucas) to convene a meeting intended to consider the controversial bill to liberalize workmen's compensation. It finally started after 1 a.m.

But the House Education Committee plowed through a complex bill to distribute an extra 52 million dollars in school foundation funds and finally recommended its passage by a 14-1 vote at 12:30 a. m.

The bill calls for a state school subsidy of 416 million, three millions more than is included in the general appropriations bill already in effect.

But terms of the committee-approved bill would cut off 29 "super-rich" school districts from all state aid and reduce state assistance for 32 others. About 61,000 youngsters are enrolled in the schools of the 61 districts involved.

One of the prime aims of the bill is to increase teacher minimum salaries from $400 to $800 a year. The committee set the effective date of the bill at Jan. 1.

Even though the state's pressing financial problems were solved before the fiscal biennium began Wednesday, money continued to be a factor in the House session.

The House passed and sent to the Senate bills to:

Make appropriations for additions and betterments, but making the appropriation of the last 40 of the 98 millions conditional upon tax receipts beyond estimates.

Make appropriations for sundry claims against the state, including $8,600 for a back injury suffered early last year by Solly Hart of Cleveland, former Ohio Penitentiary inmate, when he was a passenger in a state car driven by Warden Ralph W. Alvis.

The House also sent to the Senate companion bills:

Find 153 Flood Victims

IBAGUE, Colombia (AP) — Searchers have found 153 bodies left by a flash flood that killed an estimated 250 persons in central Colombia last Tuesday night. The U.S. Relief Agency care sent in air shipments of food, and the Colombian government set aside $250,000 for flood relief.

Can Company Executives

All 10 Aboard Plane Lose Their Lives In Crash Near Marion

PLANE TRAGEDY AT MARION. Ten men were killed when this Martin B-26 crashed on the farm of H. F. Smith, east of Marion, O., Wednesday. Federal Aviation Administration investigators are surveying the wreckage. (UPI Telephoto)

Wheat Field Tragic Site Of Crackup

Top Officials Of Company Were On Way To New York

MARION, Ohio (AP)—An airliner owned by Continental Can Co. hurtled out of an overcast sky late Wednesday and disintegrated in a wheat field near here. All 10 aboard, including eight of the firm's top executives, apparently perished.

The plane literally dug the graves for most of them. Only parts of three bodies were found. The others evidently were buried under the earth.

Eight were top executives returning to New York, where the firm has its headquarters, after a meeting of company officials in Chicago, Continental Can said.

The plane, carrying a crew of two, was believed to be a twin-engine B26 Martin. It was demolished almost beyond recognition. The wreckage was spread over an area 150 yards in diameter, a sheriff's deputy reported.

The aircraft hit with such impact that only one engine was found, said the deputy, Robert Obenour. The other engine presumably was buried with the victims.

The plane crashed shortly before 6 p.m. on the farm of H.F. Smith, six miles east of this north central Ohio city.

Smith was in his barn when he heard the aircraft approaching from the north. He said he thought it was going to hit the barn, but it passed over and crunched into the wheat field 100 yards away.

It was raining lightly at the time, a midafternoon thunderstorm having blown itself out.

The pilot had reported by radio to Marion Municipal Airport a short while before that he was flying over Findlay, in northwest Ohio. He said he was trying to skirt a thunderstorm north of Marion, and that he would report again when he reached Mansfield, 74 miles to the southeast.

He traveled about half that distance when, unexplainedly, the craft lunged out of the cloud-covered sky and crashed.

Alvin DeVore, a service station operator, said he watched as the plane soared over his station at 700 to 1,000 feet altitude, then suddenly dipped down and nosed into the field half a mile away.

In Chicago, a B26 Martin took off from Midway Airport at 3:30 p.m. This undoubtedly was the doomed craft. The pilot, in making out his fight plan, gave his name as Dunham, and his destination as Baltimore, Md.

Storm Leaves Damage Trail But Ends Heat

Lightning, Winds Cause Interruptions In Power Service

Some 2,200 homes in the East Liverpool area were without electrical power for nearly 4 hours and an additional 115 homes in the Wellsville area were without service for varying periods of time as a vicious electrical storm lashed the tri-state area Wednesday night.

Power Will Be Cut For Calcutta Repairs

The Ohio Power Co. announced today it plans to interrupt service at 1 p. m. Friday to make permanent repairs at the Calcutta sub-station which received major damage in Wednesday night's storm.

The interruption will last from 1 to 1½ hours, a spokesman said, providing the weather is good. If weather interferes, the interruption will be postponed and customers notified through The Review.

The company had planned a service break from Calcutta to Fredericktown at 1 p. m. today but it was canceled to save one interruption. The work now is scheduled during the Friday break, the spokesman explained.

The storm brought welcome relief from the week-long heat wave but Ohio Valley communities and towns in the vicinity of East Liverpool paid a penalty in damage.

The storm, accompanied by high winds and heavy rain, caused major damage at the Ohio Power Co.'s Calcutta sub-station when lightning struck a 23,000-volt transformer, eventually affecting homes from Gardendale north to Fredericktown and from Gaston Pl. on Route 30 east to the Pennsylvania state line.

"It was a dilly," an Ohio Power Co. spokesman said, in discussing the storm, the most severe of the year.

Separate bolts of lightning also struck homes on the North Side and East End at virtually the same time, damaging the roof of one and virtually blowing up an

British Ship Rescues Flier After Crash

MADRID, Spain (AP)—A British freighter Wednesday night rescued one of the four crewmen of a U.S. Air Force bomber which crashed into the Atlantic off the Azores.

The 16th Air Force said the survivor, Capt. Stephen Carter of East Hartford, Conn., was reported in good condition. He was transferred from the British ship, the Loch Gowan, to a U.S. Navy ship to be taken to Lajes Air Force Base in the Azores.

An intensive hunt for the other three crewmen continued. The plane went down about a mile from Lajes, and Portuguese on Flores Island said they saw three persons jump by parachute.

Carter was the plane's navigator. Others aboard were Capt. Roy E. Fromm, 35, the aircraft commander, of Watertown, Wis.; 1st Lt. Gain Carithers, copilot, Oklahoma City; and S. Sgt. Hal B. Sanson, crew chief, Marathon, Tex.

All were stationed at MacDill Air Force Base, Tampa, Fla., where the wives and children of Fromm and Carter live. Sanson and Carithers are single.

Lisbon Strike Ends As Union Accepts Raise

18-Cent Increase Spread Over 3 Years In Thomas Contract

LISBON — Some employes of the Thomas Works, Delta-Star Division, of the H. K. Porter Co., returned to work this morning, following acceptance by striking union members of a three - year contract Wednesday afternoon.

The 27-day-old strike at the firm, which manufactures electric insulators, ended at a meeting of Local 797, United Brick & Clay Workers, yesterday afternoon when the union voted to accept the company offer.

The new contract calls for an 18-cent wage increase over the three-year period — 5 cents the first year, 6 the second and 7 the third.

A $5 annual increase in the sickness and accident insurance benefits is included in the first two years.

Maintenance workers returned this morning to the plant — Lisbon's largest industry — and production workers were to get back to their jobs Monday, a company

Violence Reported In Spots

Pressure Applied By USW To End Wildcat Strikes

NEW YORK (AP)—Top officers of the United Steelworkers put pressure on the members today to end scattered wildcat strikes that erupted in Pennsylvania and Ohio in the midst of contract negotiations here.

Up to 30,000 workers were off the job at several plants in strikes which spread Wednesday after starting Tuesday night.

About 3,700 seamen on Great Lakes vessels also were defying back-to-work orders from the steelworkers union.

Some plants were forced to close. Violence broke out in a few spots.

Many of those who walked out ended their revolt Wednesday night in obedience to back-to-work orders issued here by Union President David J. McDonald.

In other cities, however, there was no immediate sign of a return to work.

The walkouts spread in defiance of the back-to-work orders sent by telegram by McDonald and other top officers of the union. McDonald said "prompt and vigorous action" was being taken to get the men back to work.

The wildcat strikes broke out in defiance of a two-week contract extension agreement made after President Eisenhower intervened in the stalemated contract negotiations last Saturday.

The first walkouts came at the time of expiration of the three-year contract covering 500,000 union members employed in plants that produce 90 per cent of the nation's steel.

Officers Asked To Hunt 2nd Missing Teen-Ager

Disappearance of a second teenage girl was reported to police Wednesday and officers said she apparently accompanied a Walnut St. acquaintance, as both have been missing from their homes since Tuesday night.

Disappearance of Dorothy Mercer, 16, who resides on a houseboat at the Chester Bridge, was reported at 12:30 p. m. yesterday by her mother, Mrs. Mary Mercer. She said she has not seen her daughter since 6 p. m. Tuesday.

The Mercer girl is 5 feet tall and weighs 110, police said. She has light brown hair and gray eyes and was wearing red shorts and a striped T-shirt. Earlier, the disappearance of Wilma Lee Davis, 13, of 207 Walnut St. was reported by her mother, who said she vanished Tuesday night about 10:50.

Make appropriations for additions and betterments, but making the appropriation of the last 40 of the 98 millions conditional upon tax receipts beyond estimates.

Make appropriations for sundry claims against the state, including $8,600 for a back injury suffered early last year by Solly Hart of Cleveland, former Ohio Penitentiary inmate, when he was a passenger in a state car driven by Warden Ralph W. Alvis.

The House also sent to the Senate companion bills:

All 10 Aboard Plane Lose Their Lives In Crash Near Marion

PLANE TRAGEDY AT MARION. Ten men were killed when this Martin B-26 crashed on the farm of H. F. Smith, east of Marion, O., Wednesday. Federal Aviation Administration investigators are surveying the wreckage. (UPI Telephoto)

Wheat Field Tragic Site Of Crackup

Top Officials Of Company Were On Way To New York

MARION, Ohio (AP)—An airliner owned by Continental Can Co. hurtled out of an overcast sky late Wednesday and disintegrated in a wheat field near here. All 10 aboard, including eight of the firm's top executives, apparently perished.

The plane literally dug the graves for most of them. Only parts of three bodies were found. The others evidently were buried under the earth.

Eight were top executives returning to New York, where the firm has its headquarters, after a meeting of company officials in Chicago, Continental Can said.

The plane, carrying a crew of two, was believed to be a twin-engine B26 Martin. It was demolished almost beyond recognition. The wreckage was spread over an area 150 yards in diameter, a sheriff's deputy reported.

The aircraft hit with such inpact that only one engine was found, said the deputy, Robert Obenour. The other engine presumably was buried with the victims.

The plane crashed shortly before 6 p.m. on the farm of H.F. Smith, six miles east of this north central Ohio city.

Smith was in his barn when he heard the aircraft approaching from the north. He said he thought it was going to hit the barn, but it passed over and crunched into the wheat field 100 yards away.

It was raining lightly at the time, a midafternoon thunderstorm having blown itself out.

The pilot had reported by radio to Marion Municipal Airport a short while before that he was flying over Findlay, in northwest Ohio. He said he was trying to skirt a thunderstorm north of Marion, and that he would report again when he reached Mansfield, 74 miles to the southeast.

He traveled about half that distance when, unexplainedly, the craft lunged out of the cloud-covered sky and crashed.

Alvin DeVore, a service station operator, said he watched as the plane soared over his station at 700 to 1,000 feet altitude, then suddenly dipped down and nosed into the field half a mile away.

In Chicago, a B26 Martin took off from Midway Airport at 3:30 p.m. This undoubtedly was the doomed craft. The pilot, in making out his fight plan, gave his name as Dunham, and his destination as Baltimore, Md.

Officers Asked To Hunt 2nd Missing Teen-Ager

Disappearance of a second teenage girl was reported to police Wednesday and officers said she apparently accompanied a Walnut St. acquaintance, as both have been missing from their homes since Tuesday night.

Disappearance of Dorothy Mercer, 16, who resides on a houseboat at the Chester Bridge, was reported at 12:30 p. m. yesterday by her mother, Mrs. Mary Mercer. She said she has not seen her daughter since 6 p. m. Tuesday.

The Mercer girl is 5 feet tall and weighs 110, police said. She has light brown hair and gray eyes and was wearing red shorts and a striped T-shirt. Earlier, the disappearance of Wilma Lee Davis, 13, of 207 Walnut St. was reported by her mother, who said she vanished Tuesday night about 10:50.

Storm Leaves Damage Trail But Ends Heat

Lightning, Winds Cause Interruptions In Power Service

Some 2,200 homes in the East Liverpool area were without electrical power for nearly 4 hours and an additional 115 homes in the Wellsville area were without service for varying periods of time as a vicious electrical storm lashed the tri-state area Wednesday night.

Power Will Be Cut For Calcutta Repairs

The Ohio Power Co. announced today it plans to interrupt service at 1 p. m. Friday to make permanent repairs at the Calcutta sub-station which received major damage in Wednesday night's storm.

The interruption will last from 1 to 1½ hours, a spokesman said, providing the weather is good. If weather interferes, the interruption will be postponed and customers notified through The Review.

The company had planned a service break from Calcutta to Fredericktown at 1 p. m. today but it was canceled to save one interruption. The work now is scheduled during the Friday break, the spokesman explained.

The storm brought welcome relief from the week-long heat wave but Ohio Valley communities and towns in the vicinity of East Liverpool paid a penalty in damage.

The storm, accompanied by high winds and heavy rain, caused major damage at the Ohio Power Co.'s Calcutta sub-station when lightning struck a 23,000-volt transformer, eventually affecting homes from Gardendale north to Fredericktown and from Gaston Pl. on Route 30 east to the Pennsylvania state line.

"It was a dilly," an Ohio Power Co. spokesman said, in discussing the storm, the most severe of the year.

Separate bolts of lightning also struck homes on the North Side and East End at virtually the same time, damaging the roof of one and virtually blowing up an

British Ship Rescues Flier After Crash

MADRID, Spain (AP)—A British freighter Wednesday night rescued one of the four crewmen of a U.S. Air Force bomber which crashed into the Atlantic off the Azores.

The 16th Air Force said the survivor, Capt. Stephen Carter of East Hartford, Conn., was reported in good condition. He was transferred from the British ship, the Loch Gowan, to a U.S. Navy ship to be taken to Lajes Air Force Base in the Azores.

An intensive hunt for the other three crewmen continued. The plane went down about a mile from Lajes, and Portuguese on Flores Island said they saw three persons jump by parachute.

Carter was the plane's navigator. Others aboard were Capt. Roy E. Fromm, 35, the aircraft commander, of Watertown, Wis.; 1st Lt. Gain Carithers, copilot, Oklahoma City; and S. Sgt. Hal B. Sanson, crew chief, Marathon, Tex.

All were stationed at MacDill Air Force Base, Tampa, Fla., where the wives and children of Fromm and Carter live. Sanson and Carithers are single.

Lisbon Strike Ends As Union Accepts Raise

18-Cent Increase Spread Over 3 Years In Thomas Contract

LISBON — Some employes of the Thomas Works, Delta-Star Division, of the H. K. Porter Co., returned to work this morning, following acceptance by striking union members of a three - year contract Wednesday afternoon.

The 27-day-old strike at the firm, which manufactures electric insulators, ended at a meeting of Local 797, United Brick & Clay Workers, yesterday afternoon when the union voted to accept the company offer.

The new contract calls for an 18-cent wage increase over the three-year period — 5 cents the first year, 6 the second and 7 the third.

A $5 annual increase in the sickness and accident insurance benefits is included in the first two years.

Maintenance workers returned this morning to the plant — Lisbon's largest industry — and production workers were to get back to their jobs Monday, a company

Violence Reported In Spots

Pressure Applied By USW To End Wildcat Strikes

NEW YORK (AP)—Top officers of the United Steelworkers put pressure on the members today to end scattered wildcat strikes that erupted in Pennsylvania and Ohio in the midst of contract negotiations here.

Up to 30,000 workers were off the job at several plants in strikes which spread Wednesday after starting Tuesday night.

About 3,700 seamen on Great Lakes vessels also were defying back-to-work orders from the steelworkers union.

Some plants were forced to close. Violence broke out in a few spots.

Many of those who walked out ended their revolt Wednesday night in obedience to back-to-work orders issued here by Union President David J. McDonald.

In other cities, however, there was no immediate sign of a return to work.

The walkouts spread in defiance of the back-to-work orders sent by telegram by McDonald and other top officers of the union. McDonald said "prompt and vigorous action" was being taken to get the men back to work.

The wildcat strikes broke out in defiance of a two-week contract extension agreement made after President Eisenhower intervened in the stalemated contract negotiations last Saturday.

The first walkouts came at the time of expiration of the three-year contract covering 500,000 union members employed in plants that produce 90 per cent of the nation's steel.

Trio To Speak At Ceremony For New Flag

Speakers for the 49-star flag dedication Saturday in Midland will include Rep. Frank M. Clark of the 25th Congressional District, Judge Blair F. Gunther of the Pennsylvania Superior Court and George M. Burrier, manager of the Midland Works of the Crucible Steel Co.

The ceremony will be conducted in front of the new high school gymnasium at 9th St. and Midland Ave. at about noon following the parade.

Rep. Clark will speak on "Our Flag," Judge Gunther on "Americanism," and Burrier on behalf of Midland residents. Clark will present the new flag to Burgess Eli G. Corak who will accept on behalf of the borough.

Howard E. Thorne, post chaplain, will give the dedication prayer and participate in other parts of the ceremony. The post color guard will participate.

Rudy Zetz of Lincoln High School will be the bugler for "To the Colors" as the flag is raised. Jimmy Sebastian's cornet band of Monaca will play the national anthem to close the ceremony.

Judge Gunther of Pittsburgh, was appointed a judge in the Allegheny County Court in 1942 and became a state Superior Court judge in 1950.

He is chairman of the Board of Trustees of Alliance College at Cambridge Springs and is active in Americanism. He has received seven awards for his work and is an organizer and director of the Committee to Stop World Communism and the Americans Battling Communism, Inc.

He is president of the National Confederation of American Ethnic groups which embraces practically every fraternal organization in the country.

A reception for the judge will be given by Polish residents at 2 p. m. in the Polish Falcons Club, sponsored by the club and the ZNP Lodge.

Clark of Bessemer, whose district include Beaver, Butler and Lawrence Counties, was re-elected last fall for a third term. He has served as a delegate to NATO and its Parliamentry Conference in 1956 and visited Germany in 1957 as a guest of the German government.

Last year he served as the U.S. delegate to the International Christian Leadership Conference at the Hague.

Verdict Awaited

Klumpp Jury Will See Death Car For 3rd Time

CINCINNATI (AP)—The jury deciding whether Edythe Klumpp is guilty or innocent of the slaying of Louise Bergen today will see for a third time the automobile in which Mrs. Bergen, 32, met her death.

The case went to the jury of six men and six women at 4:02 p.m. Wednesday. The jury came back a little more than an hour later for a reading of the testimony by Mrs. Klumpp of her purchase of gasoline with which she said she burned Mrs. Bergen's body the day after the slaying.

It came back shortly before 10:30 p.m., and asked to see the automobile. Judge Frank M. Gusweiler told the jury it was physically impossible to do it at that hour but he would grant their request when they resume deliberations this morning.

At the time the jury was sent to a hotel for the night, it had had the case for approximately 6½ hours including time out for dinner and the two requests for information.

The blonde 41 - year - old Mrs. Klumpp is charged with the slaying of Mrs. Bergen, wife of William Bergen, 30, with whom Mrs. Klumpp had been living for several months. Bergen, now employed in Washington, D. C., testified early in the trial, admitting, as did Mrs. Klumpp, that they had lived together and been known in their neighborhood as man and wife.

Mrs. Klumpp also has admitted she burned the body the day after the slaying but claimed Mrs. Bergen was shot accidentally as they grappled for a .22 calibre target pistol. She said Mrs. Bergen was pointing the gun at her.

On the request for reading of testimony the jurors were asking for a key point in the state's claim of premeditated murder. The state says Mrs. Klumpp bought the gasoline on Oct. 29, the day before the slaying. She says she bought it Oct. 31.

When the case finally went to the jury, Mrs. Klumpp managed a wan smile as she said, "I feel like I have butterflies in my stomach."

spokesman said. The firm employes 120.

The strike was called June 5 when negotiations broke down over a new contract. The firm and workers deadlocked over issues related to employe discharges for absenteeism or failure to meet production quotas.

A meeting Tuesday paved the way for the company offer, and was the third session held since the strike began. Meetings between the two sides were urged by the Lisbon Industrial Development Council at separate sessions with the management and union.

17 Workers Still Idle In Treadwell Dispute

Although the Treadwell Construction Co. of Midland normally employes about 200, only 17 are on a "no contract-no work" strike which began Tuesday midnight, Alex Bowie, international representative of the United Steelworkers in Midland said today, clarifying details of the dispute.

Most of the company's union workers have been furloughed for about 13 or 14 months, Bowie said. Although the recent extension agreement in New York set a pattern for large steel companies, the locals must work out their own contracts with the smaller companies, he said.

Bowie is in charge of negotiating contracts with Treadwell, Guy Gengarella & Sons and the Mackintosh-Hemphill Division of the E. W. Bliss Co. at Midland and the Patterson Foundry & Machine Co. in East Liverpool.

Guy Gengarella & Sons and Local 4999 signed an extension agreement for two weeks ending July 14 at midnight, Bowie said. He planned to begin negotiations today in Pittsburgh with the home office of Mackintosh-Hemphill Division for Local 1269.

The contract between Patterson Foundry and Local 1322 expires July 31. A meeting of union officials and company representatives will probably be held next week, Bowie said.

In a meeting with Treadwell Monday, Bowie said the union insisted on better economic contract terms which the company turned down, and a proposed extension for two weeks of contract negotiations also was rejected, Bowie said.

As late as Tuesday, the union again proposed an extension and the company again refused, he said.

In a meeting June 18, Treadwell said it would study the union's wage policy demands, Bowie said. Then the company proposed to the union a 20 per cent reduction in wages.

Crucible, following the lead of other large companies, has also extended contract negotiations for the two - week period, a union spokesman said.

Production Resumes In Some J. & L. Plants

ALIQUIPPA — Production in some departments of the Aliquippa works of the Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp. resumed today after a one-day wildcat strike which affected some 14,000 workers.

Members of Steelworkers Local 1211 voted overwhelmingly at a mass meeting last night to return to work and abide by the two-week contract extension.

Employes are being called back to work, a company spokesman said, and full production will be resumed as soon as possible.

Curb Meters Rejected For Chester Use

A brief diseussion of parking facilities in Chester was held by Council at a meeting Wednesday night when the possibility of installing parking meters was informally turned down.

Councilmen were generally not in favor of meters, pointing to the difficulty of using meters when the present 2-hour limit is not strictly enforced.

Councilman John Olash said he believes Chester does not have parking problems like other communities.

Lewis Govey, water works superintendent, was requested to invite representatives of the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers to the next Council meeting July 15 to discuss plans for a retaining wall at the upper pump station.

Govey said he has conferred by phone with the engineers concerning the planned wall, to protect the pump station when the Ohio River level is raised 8.8 feet after completion of the Stratton Superdam.

Congress is to furnish funds for the project after the city provides plans drawn by a reputable engineer, Govey said he was told.

Olash reported a section of sidewalk along Neptune Ave. is in bad condition where the Taylor, Smith & Taylor Co. has made a driveway for a parking lot. He said he would confer with pottery officials this week concerning repairs.

Council approved second reading of an ordinance providing halffee for city driver's licenses obtained after Jan. 1 by new residents or new drivers.

Roy Cashdollar, city clerk, reported the Public Service Commission has acknowledged receipt of a petition protesting a proposed gas rate increase of the Manufacturers Light & Heat Co., and it has been filed with other protests to the PSC.

Councilman James Waggle reported a broken sewer on Adolphus St. has been repaired.

Mayor Burton Ward reported $1,137 in fines collected in the quarter ending June 30.

After adjournment, Joseph Snyder and Curtis Cope of the River Asphalt Co. of Newell conferred with councilmen on supplying material for the planned summer street improvement program. The firm would furnish hotmix for $9.90 a ton.

The two will survey streets and alleys in the program and submit a bid later.

Car Damage May Alter Driver's Vacation Plans

Cusick's auto was parked on W. 6th 20 feet east of Jackson when it was hit at 9:10 a. m. by the bed of a 1953 truck owned by Sayre Electric Retailing, Inc., and operated by James Francis Fletcher, 17, of 519 E. 6th St., police said.

Fletcher told police he was making a right turn from Jackson east onto W. 6th, but a third unidentified vehicle encroached on his traffic lane. Turning sharply to avoid the other auto, the bed of the truck hit the left rear of the parked auto, damaging the trunk and a fender fin, officers said.

Paul Mosher Elected New Head Of Legion At Newell

Paul Mosher, 514 Grant St., a Marine veteran of the Korean conflict, was elected new commander of Newell American Legion Post 114 Wednesday.

A draftsman at the Economy Manufacturing Co., Mosher succeeds Dewayne Staley. Members also elected eight other new officers and returned five.

Re-elected were Donald Delong, second vice commander; Edward Hupp, third vice commander; Tony LaNeve, adjutant; Harry Lytton, finance officer, and Walter Franczek, service officer.

New officers include James T. Burch, first vice commander; Allen DeBee, sergeant - at - arms; Herbert Eddy, chaplain; George LaNeve, historian; Staley, three-year trustee; Arthur DeLong, child welfare; Allen Coen, Americanism chairman, and George LaNeve, death benefits Board of Directors for a three-year term.

Named delegates to the department convention in Parkersburg July 24-26 were Mosher, Tony LaNeve and Eddy. Alternates are George LaNeve, Franczek and Staley.

Officers will be installed July 15 by Harwin J. S. Worls of Wheeling, department third vice commander of West Virginia.

Dinner will be prepared and served by the auxiliary. In other business, the Voiture 1459 of the Hancock County 40 & 8 Society was granted use of the post home in July for installation of officers.

Trio To Speak At Ceremony For New Flag

Speakers for the 49-star flag dedication Saturday in Midland will include Rep. Frank M. Clark of the 25th Congressional District, Judge Blair F. Gunther of the Pennsylvania Superior Court and George M. Burrier, manager of the Midland Works of the Crucible Steel Co.

The ceremony will be conducted in front of the new high school gymnasium at 9th St. and Midland Ave. at about noon following the parade.

Rep. Clark will speak on "Our Flag," Judge Gunther on "Americanism," and Burrier on behalf of Midland residents. Clark will present the new flag to Burgess Eli G. Corak who will accept on behalf of the borough.

Howard E. Thorne, post chaplain, will give the dedication prayer and participate in other parts of the ceremony. The post color guard will participate.

Rudy Zetz of Lincoln High School will be the bugler for "To the Colors" as the flag is raised. Jimmy Sebastian's cornet band of Monaca will play the national anthem to close the ceremony.

Judge Gunther of Pittsburgh, was appointed a judge in the Allegheny County Court in 1942 and became a state Superior Court judge in 1950.

He is chairman of the Board of Trustees of Alliance College at Cambridge Springs and is active in Americanism. He has received seven awards for his work and is an organizer and director of the Committee to Stop World Communism and the Americans Battling Communism, Inc.

He is president of the National Confederation of American Ethnic groups which embraces practically every fraternal organization in the country.

A reception for the judge will be given by Polish residents at 2 p. m. in the Polish Falcons Club, sponsored by the club and the ZNP Lodge.

Clark of Bessemer, whose district include Beaver, Butler and Lawrence Counties, was re-elected last fall for a third term. He has served as a delegate to NATO and its Parliamentry Conference in 1956 and visited Germany in 1957 as a guest of the German government.

Last year he served as the U.S. delegate to the International Christian Leadership Conference at the Hague.

Given Bear Fine

STAUNTON, Va. (AP) — Frank Dritto brought home one of three bear cubs his children found in a tree. A game warden ordered the bear returned. Dritto couldn't find the spot where he found the cub and returned it to his home. He was fined $100 for illegal possession of wildlife.

Klumpp Jury Will See Death Car For 3rd Time

CINCINNATI (AP)—The jury deciding whether Edythe Klumpp is guilty or innocent of the slaying of Louise Bergen today will see for a third time the automobile in which Mrs. Bergen, 32, met her death.

The case went to the jury of six men and six women at 4:02 p.m. Wednesday. The jury came back a little more than an hour later for a reading of the testimony by Mrs. Klumpp of her purchase of gasoline with which she said she burned Mrs. Bergen's body the day after the slaying.

It came back shortly before 10:30 p.m., and asked to see the automobile. Judge Frank M. Gusweiler told the jury it was physically impossible to do it at that hour but he would grant their request when they resume deliberations this morning.

At the time the jury was sent to a hotel for the night, it had had the case for approximately 6½ hours including time out for dinner and the two requests for information.

The blonde 41 - year - old Mrs. Klumpp is charged with the slaying of Mrs. Bergen, wife of William Bergen, 30, with whom Mrs. Klumpp had been living for several months. Bergen, now employed in Washington, D. C., testified early in the trial, admitting, as did Mrs. Klumpp, that they had lived together and been known in their neighborhood as man and wife.

Mrs. Klumpp also has admitted she burned the body the day after the slaying but claimed Mrs. Bergen was shot accidentally as they grappled for a .22 calibre target pistol. She said Mrs. Bergen was pointing the gun at her.

On the request for reading of testimony the jurors were asking for a key point in the state's claim of premeditated murder. The state says Mrs. Klumpp bought the gasoline on Oct. 29, the day before the slaying. She says she bought it Oct. 31.

When the case finally went to the jury, Mrs. Klumpp managed a wan smile as she said, "I feel like I have butterflies in my stomach."

spokesman said. The firm employes 120.

The strike was called June 5 when negotiations broke down over a new contract. The firm and workers deadlocked over issues related to employe discharges for absenteeism or failure to meet production quotas.

A meeting Tuesday paved the way for the company offer, and was the third session held since the strike began. Meetings between the two sides were urged by the Lisbon Industrial Development Council at separate sessions with the management and union.

17 Workers Still Idle In Treadwell Dispute

Although the Treadwell Construction Co. of Midland normally employes about 200, only 17 are on a "no contract-no work" strike which began Tuesday midnight, Alex Bowie, international representative of the United Steelworkers in Midland said today, clarifying details of the dispute.

Most of the company's union workers have been furloughed for about 13 or 14 months, Bowie said. Although the recent extension agreement in New York set a pattern for large steel companies, the locals must work out their own contracts with the smaller companies, he said.

Bowie is in charge of negotiating contracts with Treadwell, Guy Gengarella & Sons and the Mackintosh-Hemphill Division of the E. W. Bliss Co. at Midland and the Patterson Foundry & Machine Co. in East Liverpool.

Guy Gengarella & Sons and Local 4999 signed an extension agreement for two weeks ending July 14 at midnight, Bowie said. He planned to begin negotiations today in Pittsburgh with the home office of Mackintosh-Hemphill Division for Local 1269.

The contract between Patterson Foundry and Local 1322 expires July 31. A meeting of union officials and company representatives will probably be held next week, Bowie said.

In a meeting with Treadwell Monday, Bowie said the union insisted on better economic contract terms which the company turned down, and a proposed extension for two weeks of contract negotiations also was rejected, Bowie said.

As late as Tuesday, the union again proposed an extension and the company again refused, he said.

In a meeting June 18, Treadwell said it would study the union's wage policy demands, Bowie said. Then the company proposed to the union a 20 per cent reduction in wages.

Crucible, following the lead of other large companies, has also extended contract negotiations for the two - week period, a union spokesman said.

Production Resumes In Some J. & L. Plants

ALIQUIPPA — Production in some departments of the Aliquippa works of the Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp. resumed today after a one-day wildcat strike which affected some 14,000 workers.

Members of Steelworkers Local 1211 voted overwhelmingly at a mass meeting last night to return to work and abide by the two-week contract extension.

Employes are being called back to work, a company spokesman said, and full production will be resumed as soon as possible.

state employes effective Jan. 1. Cost of reclassification was estimated at 8½ million dollars a year with about 30,000 employes getting pay increases.

Create a State Personnel Department and abolish the present two-member Civil Service Commission. The Department would have a $14,000-a-year director and a three-member, full-time board of review at $10,000 a year each.

After an hour's debate on a bill to create a State Board of Psychologists, Senate Finance Committee Chairman Fred Harter (D-Summit) discovered it provided for a new rotary fund. Since the administration of Gov. Michael V. DiSalle is attempting to abolish most rotary funds, Harter asked and got a one-day delay to prepare amendments to strike the new rotary fund out of the bill.

Authorize counties to enter the slum clearance business in rural areas—a measure which would be of special help to Montgomery and Allen counties, according to the measure's backers.

Raise pay for police and firemen who retired before Sept. 25, 1947, to $125 a month.

Remove restrictions on the marriage of epileptics.

Permit Ohio building code amendments to be effective 10 days after their filing with the secretary of state, instead of 90 days under present law.

Give permanent effect to regulations of the Board of Building Standards.

Curb Meters Rejected For Chester Use

A brief diseussion of parking facilities in Chester was held by Council at a meeting Wednesday night when the possibility of installing parking meters was informally turned down.

Councilmen were generally not in favor of meters, pointing to the difficulty of using meters when the present 2-hour limit is not strictly enforced.

Councilman John Olash said he believes Chester does not have parking problems like other communities.

Lewis Govey, water works superintendent, was requested to invite representatives of the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers to the next Council meeting July 15 to discuss plans for a retaining wall at the upper pump station.

Govey said he has conferred by phone with the engineers concerning the planned wall, to protect the pump station when the Ohio River level is raised 8.8 feet after completion of the Stratton Superdam.

Congress is to furnish funds for the project after the city provides plans drawn by a reputable engineer, Govey said he was told.

Olash reported a section of sidewalk along Neptune Ave. is in bad condition where the Taylor, Smith & Taylor Co. has made a driveway for a parking lot. He said he would confer with pottery officials this week concerning repairs.

Council approved second reading of an ordinance providing halffee for city driver's licenses obtained after Jan. 1 by new residents or new drivers.

Roy Cashdollar, city clerk, reported the Public Service Commission has acknowledged receipt of a petition protesting a proposed gas rate increase of the Manufacturers Light & Heat Co., and it has been filed with other protests to the PSC.

Councilman James Waggle reported a broken sewer on Adolphus St. has been repaired.

Mayor Burton Ward reported $1,137 in fines collected in the quarter ending June 30.

After adjournment, Joseph Snyder and Curtis Cope of the River Asphalt Co. of Newell conferred with councilmen on supplying material for the planned summer street improvement program. The firm would furnish hotmix for $9.90 a ton.

The two will survey streets and alleys in the program and submit a bid later.

Car Damage May Alter Driver's Vacation Plans

Cusick's auto was parked on W. 6th 20 feet east of Jackson when it was hit at 9:10 a. m. by the bed of a 1953 truck owned by Sayre Electric Retailing, Inc., and operated by James Francis Fletcher, 17, of 519 E. 6th St., police said.

Fletcher told police he was making a right turn from Jackson east onto W. 6th, but a third unidentified vehicle encroached on his traffic lane. Turning sharply to avoid the other auto, the bed of the truck hit the left rear of the parked auto, damaging the trunk and a fender fin, officers said.

Something Constructive About Taxes

Ohioans now have all the bad news about taxes. Suffice it to say it is almost as bad as they thought it was going to be when a new state administration set out to balance an increasing budget with decreasing revenue.

At the moment, there is grumbling. The DiSalle administration is catching it from all sides, but this is of no special consequence because it has enough income in sight to carry it through to 1962, with a little luck and a little cooperation from Ohio taxpayers. By 1962, everybody will be in a position to boast about the state's solvency.

There is something constructive Ohioans can do about the higher taxes they now are paying. Specifically, they can do something about the retail sales tax, which is the big revenue producer.

They can make sure that every penny collected from them by a retail merchant who makes sales tax collections goes to the state, where it belongs.

THE ONLY WAY to do this is to make certain the merchant hands over the receipt which is the customer's only way of knowing he has prepaid to the state what he now is collecting from the customer.

When no receipt is issued, provided there is no spot check and no special attention given to the merchant's account with the state, the customer is putting his sales tax payment into the merchant's pocket, in effect, and relying on the merchant to turn it over.

The prepaid sales tax system is one of the most ingenious ideas ever developed for keeping taxation on the level. It provides a discount to cover the retailers' cost of handling the state's revenue problem. It gets rid of a large, hungry pack of tax collectors. Aside from the patronage it makes possible through appointment of agents, the system is almost corruption-proof.

Almost . . . but not quite. It depends on the people who pay the tax to retail merchants to know enough about their rights to demand receipts.

IF, AS AN OHIOAN, you are in a mood at the moment to show those people in Columbus a thing or two, the best possible way to start would be to see that every penny you pay in taxes gets into the state's tax coffers—that not a bit of it sticks to the hands that collect it.

If every Ohioan worked at this for the next fiscal year, the pressure would be on the General Assembly in 1961 to reduce taxes, not hike them. The sales tax would be yielding so much revenue no one would dare to suggest that all of it should be spent.

Some Of Toughest Wildcats Alive

No special vision was needed to see that the weak point in the supposition of uninterrupted steel production beyond the June 30 deadline was the so-called "wildcat strike."

Whether or not these "wildcats" would be in fact tame was not important. If they occurred and the responsible officials of the Steelworkers Union did not stop them, they would be as damaging as authorized strikes in a limited way.

That is to say they would represent the power of unionism to tie up production as a lever to bring management to terms. John L. Lewis, it is recalled, used to shrug and disavow responsibility for such strikes among his United Mine Workers when he was bargaining with the government over coal production. He merely explained that members of his union did not believe in working without a contract; therefore, "no contract, no work."

The potentialities of this sort of thing among Steelworkers are dramatized by the strike of Great Lakes seamen working on ore carriers under Steelworkers jurisdiction.

There would be no immediate effect of a tieup of the ore fleet. But if the strike were long and the 1959 shipping season turned out to be short, an ore shortage during the first quarter of 1960 could have more far-reaching consequences than a general steel strike of medium length during the current quarter of 1959.

It would amount to delayed sabotage of the steel industry's prospects for high production in 1960. The fact it also would amount to cutting off a nose to spite a face does not seem to be one of the things unions take into consideration. Their strategists are consistently more interested in proving what they can do to hurt management than in proving what they can do to help the industry that provides a livelihood for union workers as well as management.

This is what is meant when critics of unionism point to the absence of long-range planning and statesmanship. If as much effort were put into security for the source of jobs as is put into pay-rate juggling with inflated money, union bargainers and management bargainers could concentrate on what is good for both, instead of on what might be hurtful to one.

Summer In All Its Beauty

Allowances can be made for variations in taste, but for most of us the height of summer beauty is now — at the end of June, with August still a safe distance away.

The very heat that can give July a bloodshot eye also gives it the distinction of being the time when all growing things are doing their best to arrive at maturity.

The leaves on the trees will never be larger or the foliage thicker. The cornfields will never look thriftier or the grain fields more cornucopian. The climbing roses will never be higher than they are now, or the forage fields wider and lusher.

As is freely admitted in the case of the most beautiful women in the world, there always is one camera angle better than any of the others — and July is that angle when the idea is to photograph summer in the mind's eye.

The things to remember are dark green horizons shrouded in mist, roses encrusted in crystal dew, shimmering fields of ripening wheat, tree-tunneled streets in cities, broad lawns and their ever - present, ever - busy mechanized attendants — "thinking men," for the most part, who are not really gardeners at all but truck drivers, dentists, bookkeepers and factory workers.

When winter comes again, there should be a mind's eye picture of a swallow pursuing an air-borne snack against a backdrop of sky-blue — a cardinal framed in a setting of green — a dairy herd on a hillside — a child splashing in a wading pool — a picnic group in a shady grove.

This is the time to take another year's supply of pictures — to focus the memory camera on summer as it appeared in the month of July 1959.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Recollection of an old-fashioned Fourth of July: Awakened at dawn by fire bells. Found fire was in our own house. Mice had played with matches near red-powder supply. Found dog sick. Had swallowed two sticks of punk. Explosion in kitchen. Mom had started to cook without knowing brother had put firecrackers in oven. Dad phoned the doctor. Doctor's wife explained he couldn't come as he had been wounded by Junior's revolver.

Breakfast busted up by loud scream from the bathroom. Sister had held skyrocket wrong way while lighting it in tub. Father warned us all to be careful when handling fireworks. We found him in bad shape 10 minutes later as the result of looking into a tin can to see why giant cracker hadn't gone off. Mother smelled smoke and found baby had set fire to lace curtains.

FIRST OF THREE big Glorious Fourth parades heard approaching the house. A neighborhood boy arrested for tossing string of firecrackers into the bass horn. A check showed five fireworks stores within block of the house had burned during night but that seven new ones had opened up with special sale of high explosives for children.

The baby in a tantrum. Mother appeased it by letting it play with a Winchester rifle. Little Willie, 5 and Jennie, 7 missing. Found on roof dropping bombs down the chimney.

Aunt Minnie set a new high jump record as a result of a four-foot string of firecrackers being attached to her apron strings and touched off by Uncle Egbert.

The second and third parades passed the house. Dad followed them but was run over by runaway horse frightened by gunfire. Mother left at noon with nervous breakdown. The celebration ended around midnight because of the injuries and exhaustion. But everybody had caught the true spirit of the holiday, thrilled to the message of first Independence Day and had a wonderful time.

THE WIFE in a recent society divorce proceeding declared after reconciliation, "I hope my husband and I can remain friends the rest of our lives." It's done now and then. . . .

Justice William Douglas has been refused a China passport on the ground he is not a legitimate newspaperman. Maybe the State Department did it in a 5-4 verdict.

Recent Johansson-Patterson fight was a triumph for the family circle, love, romance, togetherness, dancing enthusiasm and engaged couples everywhere. Cupid, for the first time, was shown as being more effective than sparring partners in a training camp.

It indicated that Romeo-Juliet famous line "But, soft! what light through yonder window breaks? It is the East and Juliet is the sun" can be more helpful than "Sock him again" and "Now for your five-mile road work."

In a way it was a triumph too for international travel, Scandinavian rights, courtship, Sweden, NATO, Mother and Father's Day, moonlight and roses, fun at work and top-secret weapons. It also raised the morale of real estate agents trying to rent the more expensive properties, since the new champ busted traditions by showing the way to power lies through spacious comforts instead of grim shanties.

IN A PERIOD when the news is full of kids bumping off their poppers and crying, "Get lost," to mommer, it was cheering to see a youth win hero classification by putting the company of the old folks ahead of business opportunity, percentages and orthodox training routines.

Patterson, of course, is highly considérate of home and family but, like most fighters, he stuck to the form of requiring grim, rugged contempt for home cooking and dance-hall pastimes.

The effect on prize fighting may be terrific. We look for switch to de luxe camp conditions, close family associations, Arthur Murray influences and the girl-of-my dreams mood amid the punching bags and the push-over targets. (What these can do for a good right hand punch is terrific.)

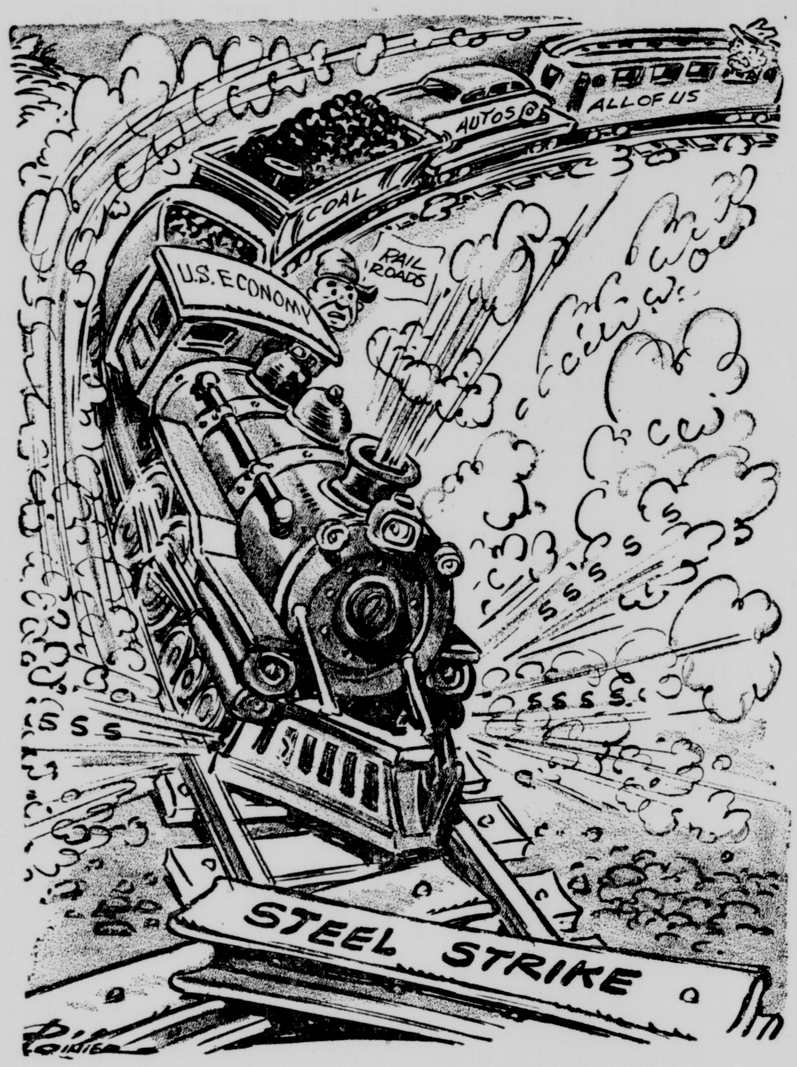
We're All Riding The Same Train



Waterfront Strike Appears In Offing

By Victor Riesel

That not-so-ancient mariner Alfred Bryant Renton Bridges (Harry, to you) has some plans for the morning of Oct. 1, 1959, — the deadline for his moves to have the nation's waterfront come up in the murky dawn as idle as a painted ship upon a painted ocean.

Victor Riesel

Bridges' stratagem calls for shutting down every port from Maine to Texas, every harbor from western Canada to South of the Border. Not a ship would move. Not an American vessel. Not a foreign one. Not a bag would be loaded.

The docks would clog. Goods would bulge out the walls of warehouses. Freight would back up. Railroads would embargo their loadings at inland depots.

Harry Bridges would hang an albatross around the neck of American commerce.

HARRY B. and his boys in the International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union have been planning this for months. After one skull session, Bridges and his braintruster and comrade, Louis Goldblatt, flew out of San Francisco on June 21.

That was a Sunday but they knew just where to reach an old friend, James Riddle Hoffa. They were expected. The next day Bridges and Goldblatt went straight to Brother Hoffa's office, where the electronic weather conditioning unit and sliding panels devised by American capitalist ingenuity didn't dampen Bridges' class conscious soul.

There he spoke softly, almost crooned, what has been described by a witnessing wit as a "September song."

Bridges turned to leaders of the East Coast waterfront union, the International Longshoremen's Assn. They had been called in by Brother Hoffa. Bridges said there really wasn't much time. Between them they could shut down every American port on the night of Sept. 30.

At that time the contracts covering some 350,000 dockwallopers on piers from Portland, Maine, to Brownsville, Tex., expire. There will be a strike. Everybody on the inside of the famed waterfront expects one. Everybody is preparing for it. Shippers and importers are stocking up.

THIS ILA STOPPAGE is expected to be fought over automation. On the docks this means automatic loading, speedier movement into the hulls and the packaging of loose cargo in huge containers. Note the word "containerization." Instead of hundreds of crates or bags being loaded individually, they'll first be packed in big metal "boxes."

New big loading gear will then scoop up the containers instead of slings waiting for broad-shouldered men to tote every bale. The ILA's experts say that this "containerization" will cut the number of jobs in New York harbor from some 24,000 to less than 10,000. And the hurly burly waterfront of old will become merely a memory and an old motion picture.

So the ILA's national headquarters is preparing to strike. There will be much talk of this come July 13 when the ILA's convention meets in Miami Beach.

Harry Bridges said to the ILA leaders there under the beaming Jim Hoffa that he could strike the West Coast too. And right at the same time. The contracts of Bridges' Pacific-Hawaiian-Alaskan Longshoremen's Union expired June 15. Negotiations have been sluggishly quiet so far.

Bridges explained he could let these negotiations just roll along until September. Then the cargo heavers on both coasts could hit the docks together. Hoffa pledged the usual pledges. The Teamsters would support the strikes.

ILA PRESIDENT, Bill Bradley, came out to report that he told Bridges never to darken the Eastern docks again. But September is a few crises away and portly Bill Bradley may not be the ILA chief then.

However, Brother Hoffa did not tell Brother Bridges not to darken his marble portals again. Yet Hoffa knows that Harry Bridges recently returned from Tokyo. There Bridges set up a permanent world maritime federation. Most of the affiliated unions are Communist controlled. Most are on the record as spewing hatred at the United States.

WASHINGTON

Once again, as in 1956, President Eisenhower refuses to say whether he wants Vice President Richard M. Nixon chosen for high office. It was rough on Nixon once. It may be again.

Nixon, a man with many friends and many enemies, is both liked and despised.

In 1956, although he had some opposition within the party, he was front-runner all the way for the Republican vice-presidential renomination, yet the latest book on him indicates he must have had grave doubts about his chances.

Newspaperman Earl Mazo — in "Richard Nixon, a Political and Personal Portrait" — says Nixon three years, ago, because of Eisenhower's reluctance or delay in endorsing him, seriously considered getting out of politics.

Now once again Nixon looks like a front-runner, this time for the Republican presidential nomination in 1960.

But Nixon never had in 1956—as he does now—anyone of the stature or popularity of New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller throwing a shadow across his path. Rockefeller isn't officially in the race—yet.

Wednesday, Eisenhower — in what sounded like an echo of 1956—told a news conference he will keep hands off the choice of the 1960 Republican presidential candidate.

Both early and repeatedly in 1956, Eisenhower refused to say yes or no to wanting Nixon as his running mate again. At the same time he denied reports his advisers had urged him to "dump" Nixon.

Eisenhower said he would be "happy" to have Nixon on the ticket with him. But he said it only after Nixon had received a large number of write-in votes in the New Hampshire primary.

Now comes some inside light on those days in Mazo's book which, the author acknowledges, was written with considerable help from Nixon.

Although Eisenhower denied the dump-Nixon report, Mazo says the President asked Nixon whether it wouldn't be wiser for him—if he wanted to run for president in 1960—to step aside and take a Cabinet job.

And Eisenhower, Mazo says, pointed out to Nixon that while Herbert Hoover moved into the presidency from a Cabinet job, no vice president in 100 years had been directly elected to the presidency.

Mazo says one of Nixon's friends told him Eisenhower's "reluctance to come out flatly and ask Nixon to be his running mate was one of the greatest hurts of his (Nixon's) whole career."

Even if Nixon is Eisenhower's personal choice for president in 1961, Eisenhower would be sticking his neck out if he said so now. The reason is simple enough.

A lot of things can happen—some of them to Nixon's dismay—between now and the Republican convention next summer. Besides, Eisenhower has no way of telling now how the convention delegates will feel by that time.

By next summer Rockefeller may be in the race up to his neck. And, while professional Republican politicians may be indebted to Nixon for many favors of one kind or another, they are still professionals.

If by convention time they think they can win with Rockefeller and would lose with Nixon, they're apt to forget the Nixon favors. But at least Nixon, working on the inside, will have a year to try to nail down the nomination.

Shocking Decision

By David Lawrence

Supreme Court Defends An 'Idea'

The same Supreme Court of the United States which recently ruled that it's all right to teach or advocate the overthrow of our government — because this is just an "idea" —now says, in effect, that it is lawful to teach adultery and the breaking of the marriage vows. The court says this also is just an "idea" which the majority of the people of America may not like but that it all comes under the head of "free speech" and is protected by the First and 14th Amendments to the Constitution.

David Lawrence

This latest decision will come as a shock to church going folks everywhere who do not believe that it is lawful to advocate sin, any more than it is right to advocate crime of any kind, especially in motion pictures that reach the young as well as adults.

The Supreme Court's own words are startling. The opinion of the court, delivered by Justice Stewart, reversed a decision of the highest court of the State of New York, which upheld the law of that state forbidding the exhibition of motion pictures "which are immoral in that they portray 'acts of sexual immorality . . . as desirable, acceptable or proper patterns of behavior.'"

The New York court had interpreted that language of the statute to require denial of a license to a motion picture where "its subject matter is adultery presented as being right and desirable for certain people under certain circumstances."

THE SUPREME Court's opinion accepted the contention "that the motion picture in question can be so characterized," but went on to hold that New York State has no right to pass such a law, because it is unconstitutional on its face. Justice Stewart says:

"What New York has done, therefore, is to prevent the exhibition of a motion picture because that picture advocates an idea — that adultery under certain circumstances may be proper behavior. Yet the First Amendment's basic guarantee is of freedom to advocate ideas. The state, quite simply, has thus struck at the very heart of constitutionally protected liberty."

This is a sweeping interpretation of the First Amendment. Time was when the Supreme Court of the United States considered the interests of the citizens as a whole superseded those of any individual citizen and held that "to cry 'fire!' in a crowded theater" might be regarded as coming under "free speech" but didn't protect the people who would be killed in the ensuing panic.

In the instant case, the court quibbles that "incitement" has not been proved. It similarly has previously argued, in effect, that, until acts are undertaken to overthrow the government, there is no incitement to revolution on the part of speakers who teach the forceful overthrow of government.

Justice Harlan, in behalf of himself and Justices Frankfurter and Whittaker, wrote an opinion concurring in the result in the motion picture case but said the court had "moved too swiftly" in striking down the New York State law. He said that, while the motion picture in question shouldn't be banned, the right of the state to retain such a law should not be forfeited.

JUSTICE FRANKFURTER, in a separate opinion, concurred in the decision as to the picture involved but stated his belief that the court shouldhave limited itself to "deciding whether a particular picture is entitled to the protection of expression under the 14th Amendment."

Holding that "there is an evil against which a state may constitutionally protect itself, whatever we may think about the questions of policy involved," he added:

"The real problem is the formulation of constitutionally allowable safeguards which society may take against evil without impinging upon the necessary dependence of a free society upon the fullest scope of free expression."

Justice Douglas, in behalf of himself and Justice Black, wrote a separate opinion concurring in the result but insisting that no state can constitutionally enact any law requiring censorship in advance. He holds that the exhibition of a controversial motion picture — as in the case of publication of a libelous article — should not be subjected to "previous restraint" but should suffer legal consequences if any law violation is involved. Justice Douglas says: "If a particular movie violates a valid law, the exhibitor can be prosecuted in the usual way."

SO, ALL IN ALL, six justices voted to take away the right of the states to decide for themselves what motion pictures involving "sexual immorality" are objectionable, while three others said they would rather see the Supreme Court, acting presumably as a "supreme board of censors," decide each case on its merits.

Justice Black objected to that role, declaring that then "every member of the court must exercise his own judgment as to how bad a picture is, a judgment which is ultimately based at least in large part on his own standard of what is immoral . . . such an individualized determination cannot be guided by reasonably fixed and certain standards."

The impression left by the justices is that the Supreme Court of the United States today is not disturbed by the teaching of the "idea" of sexual immorality or adultery. This is proclaimed now as protected by "free speech," and evidently the scope of the First Amendment cannot be limited in that respect to let the states of the Union regulate morals as they see fit.

The new doctrine seems to be that it is necessary to prove that each picture may "incite" its observers to subsequent acts of immorality. In other words, sin can be taught and the states must silently accept such teachings as within the protection of the Constitution. Either the Supreme Court justices or the Constitution now will have to be changed to get a different result.

Something Constructive About Taxes

Ohioans now have all the bad news about taxes. Suffice it to say it is almost as bad as they thought it was going to be when a new state administration set out to balance an increasing budget with decreasing revenue.

At the moment, there is grumbling. The DiSalle administration is catching it from all sides, but this is of no special consequence because it has enough income in sight to carry it through to 1962, with a little luck and a little cooperation from Ohio taxpayers. By 1962, everybody will be in a position to boast about the state's solvency.

There is something constructive Ohioans can do about the higher taxes they now are paying. Specifically, they can do something about the retail sales tax, which is the big revenue producer.

They can make sure that every penny collected from them by a retail merchant who makes sales tax collections goes to the state, where it belongs.

THE ONLY WAY to do this is to make certain the merchant hands over the receipt which is the customer's only way of knowing he has prepaid to the state what he now is collecting from the customer.

When no receipt is issued, provided there is no spot check and no special attention given to the merchant's account with the state, the customer is putting his sales tax payment into the merchant's pocket, in effect, and relying on the merchant to turn it over.

The prepaid sales tax system is one of the most ingenious ideas ever developed for keeping taxation on the level. It provides a discount to cover the retailers' cost of handling the state's revenue problem. It gets rid of a large, hungry pack of tax collectors. Aside from the patronage it makes possible through appointment of agents, the system is almost corruption-proof.

Almost . . . but not quite. It depends on the people who pay the tax to retail merchants to know enough about their rights to demand receipts.

IF, AS AN OHIOAN, you are in a mood at the moment to show those people in Columbus a thing or two, the best possible way to start would be to see that every penny you pay in taxes gets into the state's tax coffers—that not a bit of it sticks to the hands that collect it.

If every Ohioan worked at this for the next fiscal year, the pressure would be on the General Assembly in 1961 to reduce taxes, not hike them. The sales tax would be yielding so much revenue no one would dare to suggest that all of it should be spent.

Some Of Toughest Wildcats Alive

No special vision was needed to see that the weak point in the supposition of uninterrupted steel production beyond the June 30 deadline was the so-called "wildcat strike."

Whether or not these "wildcats" would be in fact tame was not important. If they occurred and the responsible officials of the Steelworkers Union did not stop them, they would be as damaging as authorized strikes in a limited way.

That is to say they would represent the power of unionism to tie up production as a lever to bring management to terms. John L. Lewis, it is recalled, used to shrug and disavow responsibility for such strikes among his United Mine Workers when he was bargaining with the government over coal production. He merely explained that members of his union did not believe in working without a contract; therefore, "no contract, no work."

The potentialities of this sort of thing among Steelworkers are dramatized by the strike of Great Lakes seamen working on ore carriers under Steelworkers jurisdiction.

There would be no immediate effect of a tieup of the ore fleet. But if the strike were long and the 1959 shipping season turned out to be short, an ore shortage during the first quarter of 1960 could have more far-reaching consequences than a general steel strike of medium length during the current quarter of 1959.

It would amount to delayed sabotage of the steel industry's prospects for high production in 1960. The fact it also would amount to cutting off a nose to spite a face does not seem to be one of the things unions take into consideration. Their strategists are consistently more interested in proving what they can do to hurt management than in proving what they can do to help the industry that provides a livelihood for union workers as well as management.

This is what is meant when critics of unionism point to the absence of long-range planning and statesmanship. If as much effort were put into security for the source of jobs as is put into pay-rate juggling with inflated money, union bargainers and management bargainers could concentrate on what is good for both, instead of on what might be hurtful to one.

Summer In All Its Beauty

Allowances can be made for variations in taste, but for most of us the height of summer beauty is now — at the end of June, with August still a safe distance away.

The very heat that can give July a bloodshot eye also gives it the distinction of being the time when all growing things are doing their best to arrive at maturity.

The leaves on the trees will never be larger or the foliage thicker. The cornfields will never look thriftier or the grain fields more cornucopian. The climbing roses will never be higher than they are now, or the forage fields wider and lusher.

As is freely admitted in the case of the most beautiful women in the world, there always is one camera angle better than any of the others — and July is that angle when the idea is to photograph summer in the mind's eye.

The things to remember are dark green horizons shrouded in mist, roses encrusted in crystal dew, shimmering fields of ripening wheat, tree-tunneled streets in cities, broad lawns and their ever - present, ever - busy mechanized attendants — "thinking men," for the most part, who are not really gardeners at all but truck drivers, dentists, bookkeepers and factory workers.

When winter comes again, there should be a mind's eye picture of a swallow pursuing an air-borne snack against a backdrop of sky-blue — a cardinal framed in a setting of green — a dairy herd on a hillside — a child splashing in a wading pool — a picnic group in a shady grove.

This is the time to take another year's supply of pictures — to focus the memory camera on summer as it appeared in the month of July 1959.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Recollection of an old-fashioned Fourth of July: Awakened at dawn by fire bells. Found fire was in our own house. Mice had played with matches near red-powder supply. Found dog sick. Had swallowed two sticks of punk. Explosion in kitchen. Mom had started to cook without knowing brother had put firecrackers in oven. Dad phoned the doctor. Doctor's wife explained he couldn't come as he had been wounded by Junior's revolver.

Breakfast busted up by loud scream from the bathroom. Sister had held skyrocket wrong way while lighting it in tub. Father warned us all to be careful when handling fireworks. We found him in bad shape 10 minutes later as the result of looking into a tin can to see why giant cracker hadn't gone off. Mother smelled smoke and found baby had set fire to lace curtains.

FIRST OF THREE big Glorious Fourth parades heard approaching the house. A neighborhood boy arrested for tossing string of firecrackers into the bass horn. A check showed five fireworks stores within block of the house had burned during night but that seven new ones had opened up with special sale of high explosives for children.

The baby in a tantrum. Mother appeased it by letting it play with a Winchester rifle. Little Willie, 5 and Jennie, 7 missing. Found on roof dropping bombs down the chimney.

Aunt Minnie set a new high jump record as a result of a four-foot string of firecrackers being attached to her apron strings and touched off by Uncle Egbert.

The second and third parades passed the house. Dad followed them but was run over by runaway horse frightened by gunfire. Mother left at noon with nervous breakdown. The celebration ended around midnight because of the injuries and exhaustion. But everybody had caught the true spirit of the holiday, thrilled to the message of first Independence Day and had a wonderful time.

THE WIFE in a recent society divorce proceeding declared after reconciliation, "I hope my husband and I can remain friends the rest of our lives." It's done now and then. . . .

By appearing in a water show Olsen & Johnson are "pooling" their efforts. . . .

Justice William Douglas has been refused a China passport on the ground he is not a legitimate newspaperman. Maybe the State Department did it in a 5-4 verdict.

Recent Johansson-Patterson fight was a triumph for the family circle, love, romance, togetherness, dancing enthusiasm and engaged couples everywhere. Cupid, for the first time, was shown as being more effective than sparring partners in a training camp.

It indicated that Romeo-Juliet famous line "But, soft! what light through yonder window breaks? It is the East and Juliet is the sun" can be more helpful than "Sock him again" and "Now for your five-mile road work."

In a way it was a triumph too for international travel, Scandinavian rights, courtship, Sweden, NATO, Mother and Father's Day, moonlight and roses, fun at work and top-secret weapons. It also raised the morale of real estate agents trying to rent the more expensive properties, since the new champ busted traditions by showing the way to power lies through spacious comforts instead of grim shanties.

IN A PERIOD when the news is full of kids bumping off their poppers and crying, "Get lost," to mommer, it was cheering to see a youth win hero classification by putting the company of the old folks ahead of business opportunity, percentages and orthodox training routines.

Patterson, of course, is highly considerate of home and family but, like most fighters, he stuck to the form of requiring grim, rugged contempt for home cooking and dance-hall pastimes.

The effect on prize fighting may be terrific. We look for switch to de luxe camp conditions, close family associations, Arthur Murray influences and the girl-of-my dreams mood amid the punching bags and the push-over targets. (What these can do for a good right hand punch is terrific.)

We're All Riding The Same Train

Waterfront Strike Appears In Offing

By Victor Riesel

That not-so-ancient mariner Alfred Bryant Renton Bridges (Harry, to you) has some plans for the morning of Oct. 1, 1959, — the deadline for his moves to have the nation's waterfront come up in the murky dawn as idle as a painted ship upon a painted ocean.

Victor Riesel

Bridges' stratagem calls for shutting down every port from Maine to Texas, every harbor from western Canada to South of the Border. Not a ship would move. Not an American vessel. Not a foreign one. Not a bag would be loaded.

The docks would clog. Goods would bulge out the walls of warehouses. Freight would back up. Railroads would embargo their loadings at inland depots.

Harry Bridges would hang an albatross around the neck of American commerce.

HARRY B. and his boys in the International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union have been planning this for months. After one skull session, Bridges and his braintruster and comrade, Louis Goldblatt, flew out of San Francisco on June 21.

That was a Sunday but they knew just where to reach an old friend, James Riddle Hoffa. They were expected. The next day Bridges and Goldblatt went straight to Brother Hoffa's office, where the electronic weather conditioning unit and sliding panels devised by American capitalist ingenuity didn't dampen Bridges' class conscious soul.

There he spoke softly, almost crooned, what has been described by a witnessing wit as a "September song."

Bridges turned to leaders of the East Coast waterfront union, the International Longshoremen's Assn. They had been called in by Brother Hoffa. Bridges said there really wasn't much time. Between them they could shut down every American port on the night of Sept. 30.

At that time the contracts covering some 350,000 dockwallopers on piers from Portland, Maine, to Brownsville, Tex., expire. There will be a strike. Everybody on the inside of the famed waterfront expects one. Everybody is preparing for it. Shippers and importers are stocking up.

THIS ILA STOPPAGE is expected to be fought over automation. On the docks this means automatic loading, speedier movement into the hulls and the packaging of loose cargo in huge containers. Note the word "containerization." Instead of hundreds of crates or bags being loaded individually, they'll first be packed in big metal "boxes."

New big loading gear will then scoop up the containers instead of slings waiting for broad-shouldered men to tote every bale. The ILA's experts say that this "containerization" will cut the number of jobs in New York harbor from some 24,000 to less than 10,000. And the hurly burly waterfront of old will become merely a memory and an old motion picture.

So the ILA's national headquarters is preparing to strike. There will be much talk of this come July 13 when the ILA's convention meets in Miami Beach.

Harry Bridges said to the ILA leaders there under the beaming Jim Hoffa that he could strike the West Coast too. And right at the same time. The contracts of Bridges' Pacific-Hawaiian-Alaskan Longshoremen's Union expired June 15. Negotiations have been sluggishly quiet so far.

Bridges explained he could let these negotiations just roll along until September. Then the cargo heavers on both coasts could hit the docks together. Hoffa pledged the usual pledges. The Teamsters would support the strikes.

ILA PRESIDENT, Bill Bradley, came out to report that he told Bridges never to darken the Eastern docks again. But September is a few crises away and portly Bill Bradley may not be the ILA chief then.

However, Brother Hoffa did not tell Brother Bridges not to darken his marble portals again. Yet Hoffa knows that Harry Bridges recently returned from Tokyo. There Bridges set up a permanent world maritime federation. Most of the affiliated unions are Communist controlled. Most are on the record as spewing hatred at the United States.

They have a global headquarters there. In charge is Tomitaro Kaneda, president of the All-Japan Dockworkers Union, devotees of Peiping and Moscow. They—the maritime affiliates—have promised not to unload U.S. ships diverted from any of the struck U.S. ports.

Justice Harlan, in behalf of himself and Justices Frankfurter and Whittaker, wrote an opinion concurring in the result in the motion picture case but said the court had "moved too swiftly" in striking down the New York State law. He said that, while the motion picture in question shouldn't be banned, the right of the state to retain such a law should not be forfeited.

JUSTICE FRANKFURTER, in a separate opinion, concurred in the decision as to the picture involved but stated his belief that the court shouldhave limited itself to "deciding whether a particular picture is entitled to the protection of expression under the 14th Amendment."

Holding that "there is an evil against which a state may constitutionally protect itself, whatever we may think about the questions of policy involved," he added:

"The real problem is the formulation of constitutionally allowable safeguards which society may take against evil without impinging upon the necessary dependence of a free society upon the fullest scope of free expression."

Justice Douglas, in behalf of himself and Justice Black, wrote a separate opinion concurring in the result but insisting that no state can constitutionally enact any law requiring censorship in advance. He holds that the exhibition of a controversial motion picture — as in the case of publication of a libelous article — should not be subjected to "previous restraint" but should suffer legal consequences if any law violation is involved. Justice Douglas says: "If a particular movie violates a valid law, the exhibitor can be prosecuted in the usual way."

SO, ALL IN ALL, six justices voted to take away the right of the states to decide for themselves what motion pictures involving "sexual immorality" are objectionable, while three others said they would rather see the Supreme Court, acting presumably as a "supreme board of censors," decide each case on its merits.

Justice Black objected to that role, declaring that then "every member of the court must exercise his own judgment as to how bad a picture is, a judgment which is ultimately based at least in large part on his own standard of what is immoral . . . such an individualized determination cannot be guided by reasonably fixed and certain standards."

The impression left by the justices is that the Supreme Court of the United States today is not disturbed by the teaching of the "idea" of sexual immorality or adultery. This is proclaimed now as protected by "free speech," and evidently the scope of the First Amendment cannot be limited in that respect to let the states of the Union regulate morals as they see fit.

The new doctrine seems to be that it is necessary to prove that each picture may "incite" its observers to subsequent acts of immorality. In other words, sin can be taught and the states must silently accept such teachings as within the protection of the Constitution. Either the Supreme Court justices or the Constitution now will have to be changed to get a different result.

Purely Personal

By Truman Twill

It occurs to me toward the close of all legislative sessions that representative democracy should put a top limit on the number of proposals each year for changing the rules, a function now performed indifferently by the committee system.

It is with more puzzlement than regret that I confess the French actress Bardot leaves me indifferent, though I continued to be an active member in the fan clubs of many actresses currently popular.

Floyd Patterson impresses me as a proud man in his line of work and strikes me as a good bet to surprise Johansson as much in a return match as the personable Swede surprised him in their first encounter.

Whenever the Russians put their technical skill on display, as they have done with their sensationally large and fast turbo-prop plane, the TU-114, I remember that as recently as 20 years ago Western observers doubted that Russia could muster the skill to build an airplane, or even a workable car.

Pound for pound, the little autos that have been getting so much attention are not as reasonably priced as prospective buyers think they are going to be, compared with standard models, which makes it clearer than ever that their primary appeal to a mass market is operating economy, not design or convenience.

Margaret Chase Smith, the lady Republican senator from Maine, lost much of the prestige she had accumulated when it was reported that her vote against Lewis L. Strauss was based — like that of many other senators — on pique instead of on principle. Her admirers expected something better from her.

If it were possible to remember in midwinter how pestiferous gnats, mosquitoes and sweat flies are in the good old summertime, the bad old wintertime might not seem so bad.

I wonder about the motivation of more than 7,000 Hawaiians who voted No on the proposition to become the 50th state. Then I find myself wondering how a similar proposition would fare in some mainland states whose politicos murmur about secession whenever their feathers are ruffled.

The incredible thing about the question of Louisiana Gov. Earl K. Long's mental competency is that the answer no longer seems to be important. "Ole Earl" is governor either way, and it now appears to be about as broad as it is long whether he is as mentally competent as he says he is or as incompetent as the people who tried to shut him away thought he was.

I despair of ever attaining a state of composure that will make it possible to go through a first-class thunderstorm without developing acute anxiety.

In a photograph of the Soviet Union's first deputy premier, Frol R. Kozlov, being greeted by a New York dignitary — not Mayor Wagner — the Russian is wearing the latest in male fashions while the New Yorker is dressed in a coat suggesting fuddy - duddy Russian styles up until recently.

Much as I like to read about sports, I get tired of teapot tempests blown up by quotations that sound like insults when taken out of context and circumstance. I think sports figures should not be taken seriously when they are shooting off their mouths.

Was Choice Of Adenauer

Luebke Elected As New West Germany President

BERLIN (AP) — Heinrich Luebke, the handpicked candidate of Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, Wednesday was elected president of West Germany.

The election by the 1,038-member electoral college went off without incident despite the threats and protests of the Communists. The Reds had warned that holding the convention in West Berlin, 110 miles behind the Iron Curtain, was a dangerous affront to East Germany.

The voting demonstrated that the 83-year-old chancellor, despite recent grumbling over his whip-cracking tactics, was still very much in command of his ruling Christian Democrat Party.

The 64-year-old Luebke, a short wiry man little known except for his record as agriculture minister for the past six years, was elevated to the ceremonial presidential job on the second ballot. He ran up 526 votes, six more than needed.

Carlo Schmid, the scholarly 62-year-old Socialist candidate, was second with 386. Max Becker of the Free Democrats received 99.

The first ballot followed party lines, with Mr. Luebke polling 517 votes, one vote more than there were Christian Democrats in the electoral body. Mr. Schmid got 385 and Mr. Becker 104.

More than a score abstained on each ballot.

The Socialists and Free Democrats had hoped to slip one of their candidates in if any substantial number of Christian Democrats bolted on the secret ballot.

A winning candidate needed 520 votes, an absolute majority, on the first or second ballots. Had a third ballot been necessary, the candidate with the most votes would have won.

The Christian Democrats seemed to have closed ranks, however, after the duel between Mr. Adenauer and Economics Minister Ludwig Erhard.

Mr. Luebke, who was jailed by the Nazis for 20 months, takes the oath for a five-year term on September 5, succeeding Theodor Heuss who is completing a second term and was ineligible for a third term.

The white-haired Luebke told the applauding electors — 519 members of the Lower House of Parliament and 519 delegates from the ten German states and West Berlin—that his chief goal will be peaceful reunification of Germany.

She Breaks Down With Giggles

Prince Albert Of Belgium Marries Italian Princess

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP) — Prince Albert of Liege, heir presumptive to the Belgian throne, today married a beautiful blonde Italian princess who broke down with giggles midway through the glittering church wedding.

The radiant 21-year-old bride, Dona Paola Ruffo di Calabria, was asked by Joseph Cardinal Van Roey, the officiating clergyman, "Have you come here of your own free will to engage in marriage?"

"Yes," she replied in French—and then suddenly halted, giggled and couldn't go on.

With only an occasional faint trembling smile she completed the long ceremony performed amid medieval pageantry and splendor in the Roman Catholic church of Sts. Michael and Gudule.

When she took communion, she broke down and cried, her long hands once more flying to her face.

The bridegroom, younger brother of bachelor King Baudoin, was grim and nervous through the long ceremonies that began with a civil marriage service in the royal palace.

Riding in an open car along the procession route from the palace to the church for the religious ceremony, the bride waved gaily. The crowds loved it with excited cries of "Paola!"

Albert looked nervous and glum, giving only an occasional salute. Just before reaching the church, his pretty bride moved closer to her handsome husband in the back seat and squeezed his arm.

She wore a gorgeous high-necked ivory satin gown with a long-trained veil of snow-white Brussels lace. Albert wore a Belgian naval commander's dark blue uniform.

Cardinal Van Roey, during the church ceremony, called her a "lovely princess" and said Italy "sends you to Belgium as a ray of its beautiful sun and a reflection of its ardent soul."

Threatening skies failed to curb the enthusiasm of the crowds for the show of medieval splendor—trumpets blending with booming cannon and pealing church bells. Ancient Brussels was festively decorated.

Fr. Nist Presented Purse By Kaycees For Duty As Friar

Honoring Fr. Arthur M. Nist for his work as its faithful friar, Cardinal Mercier General Assembly, Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus, presented him with a purse Wednesday night at a testimonial dinner at the Travelers Hotel.

The presentation to the pastor of St. Ann Catholic Church was made by Frank R. O'Hanlon, faithful navigator of the assembly, who presided. Brief remarks also were made by Fr. Homer G. Oliver of St. Patrick's Church of Salineville, who was appointed chaplain of the assembly yesterday by Bishop Emmet M. Walsh of the Youngstown Diocese.

The invocation was by Fr. Carl Nicolay of St. Aloysius Church and the benediction was by Fr. William J. Lawler of Immaculate Conception church at Wellsville. Other guests included Fr. Thomas G. Mulhearn and Fr. Anthony Esposito, both assistants at St. Aloysius, John E. Johnston, Eastern Ohio master of the order, and James McGowan, district deputy.

About 40 attended the informal stag affair.

Study Made On Population

A study on population was presented to the Midland Planning Commission Wednesday evening for discussion prior to a detailed report to be given July 22 to Borough Council.

Jack Wilson, a representative of Morris Knowles, Inc., of Pittsburgh, engineers making the plan, briefed members. He said that in making the study, births, deaths, migration in and out and economic trends were considered.

The comprehensive plan is being drawn up by the borough to learn of needs and possible improvements. During informal discussion, Wilson remarked that Midland's "opportunities are limitless."

His report included two projections concerning population — one with and one without improvements. The study covers past years and possible conditions for the next 15.

Wilson told the commission that plans are always changing and it must continually watch trends and report them to Council. He said it is the commission's job to recommend to Council which will act on wishes of the public.

Crum Dimeff, new member approved by Council at its June 16 meeting to replace A. L. Susie who resigned, was present. Dr. Zanvel Sigal, chairman, presided. Next regular meeting will be July 27 in the Borough Building.

Was Choice Of Adenauer

Luebke Elected As New West Germany President

BERLIN (AP) — Heinrich Luebke, the handpicked candidate of Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, Wednesday was elected president of West Germany.

The election by the 1,038-member electoral college went off without incident despite the threats and protests of the Communists. The Reds had warned that holding the convention in West Berlin, 110 miles behind the Iron Curtain, was a dangerous affront to East Germany.

The voting demonstrated that the 83-year-old chancellor, despite recent grumbling over his whip-cracking tactics, was still very much in command of his ruling Christian Democrat Party.

The 64-year-old Luebke, a short wiry man little known except for his record as agriculture minister for the past six years, was elevated to the ceremonial presidential job on the second ballot. He ran up 526 votes, six more than needed.

Carlo Schmid, the scholarly 62-year-old Socialist candidate, was second with 386. Max Becker of the Free Democrats received 99.

The first ballot followed party lines, with Mr. Luebke polling 517 votes, one vote more than there were Christian Democrats in the electoral body. Mr. Schmid got 385 and Mr. Becker 104.

More than a score abstained on each ballot.

The Socialists and Free Democrats had hoped to slip one of their candidates in if any substantial number of Christian Democrats bolted on the secret ballot.

A winning candidate needed 520 votes, an absolute majority, on the first or second ballots. Had a third ballot been necessary, the candidate with the most votes would have won.

The Christian Democrats seemed to have closed ranks, however, after the duel between Mr. Adenauer and Economics Minister Ludwig Erhard.

Mr. Luebke, who was jailed by the Nazis for 20 months, takes the oath for a five-year term on September 5, succeeding Theodor Heuss who is completing a second term and was ineligible for a third term.

The white-haired Luebke told the applauding electors — 519 members of the Lower House of Parliament and 519 delegates from the ten German states and West Berlin—that his chief goal will be peaceful reunification of Germany.

She Breaks Down With Giggles

Prince Albert Of Belgium Marries Italian Princess

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP) — Prince Albert of Liege, heir presumptive to the Belgian throne, today married a beautiful blonde Italian princess who broke down with giggles midway through the glittering church wedding.

The radiant 21-year-old bride, Dona Paola Ruffo di Calabria, was asked by Joseph Cardinal Van Roey, the officiating clergyman, "Have you come here of your own free will to engage in marriage?"

"Yes," she replied in French—and then suddenly halted, giggled and couldn't go on.

With only an occasional faint trembling smile she completed the long ceremony performed amid medieval pageantry and splendor in the Roman Catholic church of Sts. Michael and Gudule.

When she took communion, she broke down and cried, her long hands once more flying to her face.

The bridegroom, younger brother of bachelor King Baudoin, was grim and nervous through the long ceremonies that began with a civil marriage service in the royal palace.

Riding in an open car along the procession route from the palace to the church for the religious ceremony, the bride waved gaily. The crowds loved it with excited cries of "Paola!"

Albert looked nervous and glum, giving only an occasional salute. Just before reaching the church, his pretty bride moved closer to her handsome husband in the back seat and squeezed his arm.

She wore a gorgeous high-necked ivory satin gown with a long-trained veil of snow-white Brussels lace. Albert wore a Belgian naval commander's dark blue uniform.

Cardinal Van Roey, during the church ceremony, called her a "lovely princess" and said Italy "sends you to Belgium as a ray of its beautiful sun and a reflection of its ardent soul."

Threatening skies failed to curb the enthusiasm of the crowds for the show of medieval splendor—trumpets blending with booming cannon and pealing church bells. Ancient Brussels was festively decorated.

Fr. Nist Presented Purse By Kaycees For Duty As Friar

Honoring Fr. Arthur M. Nist for his work as its faithful friar, Cardinal Mercier General Assembly, Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus, presented him with a purse Wednesday night at a testimonial dinner at the Travelers Hotel.

The presentation to the pastor of St. Ann Catholic Church was made by Frank R. O'Hanlon, faithful navigator of the assembly, who presided. Brief remarks also were made by Fr. Homer G. Oliver of St. Patrick's Church of Salineville, who was appointed chaplain of the assembly yesterday by Bishop Emmet M. Walsh of the Youngstown Diocese.

The invocation was by Fr. Carl Nicolay of St. Aloysius Church and the benediction was by Fr. William J. Lawler of Immaculate Conception church at Wellsville. Other guests included Fr. Thomas G. Mulhearn and Fr. Anthony Esposito, both assistants at St. Aloysius, John E. Johnston, Eastern Ohio master of the order, and James McGowan, district deputy.

About 40 attended the informal stag affair.

Explosion Kills 11

Study Made On Population

A study on population was presented to the Midland Planning Commission Wednesday evening for discussion prior to a detailed report to be given July 22 to Borough Council.

Jack Wilson, a representative of Morris Knowles, Inc., of Pittsburgh, engineers making the plan, briefed members. He said that in making the study, births, deaths, migration in and out and economic trends were considered.

The comprehensive plan is being drawn up by the borough to learn of needs and possible improvements. During informal discussion, Wilson remarked that Midland's "opportunities are limitless."

His report included two projections concerning population — one with and one without improvements. The study covers past years and possible conditions for the next 15.

Wilson told the commission that plans are always changing and it must continually watch trends and report them to Council. He said it is the commission's job to recommend to Council which will act on wishes of the public.

Crum Dimeff, new member approved by Council at its June 10 meeting to replace A. L. Susie who resigned, was present. Dr. Zanvel Sigal, chairman, presided. Next regular meeting will be July 27 in the Borough Building.

Also Appeals For Christians To Unite

New Plea For Peace Made By Pope

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope John XXIII appealed today to the leaders of rival nations to "try every approach" for peace because a war with nuclear weapons would destroy victor and vanquished alike.

The Pope also appealed for Christians to unite. He urged the press, movies and television to counteract what he called a spreading tendency toward falsehood and immorality.

"Truth, unity and peace" were the subjects of his first encyclical letter to the bishops since his coronation eight months ago.

The encyclical began with the words "Ad Petri cathedram"—"Near Peter's chair." It was dated June 29, feast day of St. Peter, and was released for publication today.

The pontiff warned that if nations do not aim at "fraternal unity which must rest on the precepts of justice and be nourished by charity, conditions of gravest crisis remain.

"As a result, all prudent men complain and grieve that it seems to be uncertain whether the same events are moving toward the establishing of a solid, true and genuine pace, or are slipping in complete blindness toward a new and frightful warlike conflagration.

"We say in complete blindness: For if — which God prevent — a new war breaks out, nothing else will await or confront all peoples, (such are the dreadful armaments which our age brings into play) but appalling destruction and ruin; and this, whether they are victor or vanquished.

"We therefore ask all, and statesmen in particular, that they ponder the matter prudently and earnestly before God the Judge; and, as a result, with genuine good will, be ready to try every approach which may lead to the essential unity. This harmony and unity, by which alone, we say, the joint prosperity of nations will undoubtedly be increased, will be able to be restored only when minds are at peace and the rights of all recognized, and due freedom shine forth for the church, for peoples, and for the individual citizen."

The Pope urged the leaders of nations to remember that "God created men not as enemies but as brothers."

He warned repeatedly and in plain language of the ruin which will result "if the fires of discord are set ablaze" again in a world which he said already has seen too much of war.

"Why prepare death dealing weapons against our brother?" he asked. "Already there has been enough strife among men. Already too many cemeteries of those fallen in war cover the earth's surface and solemnly warn that all should be, at long last, brought back to harmony, unity and a just peace."

In the first section the pontiff wrote of the search for truth. He referred specifically to the responsibilities of the press, the movies, and television.

In the third section he mentioned the Ecumenical (universal) Council of the Roman Catholic Church which he has called. He said this council would contribute to the unity of the church.

The Pope said the Roman Catholic Church is "the father house of all Christianity" and that its doors are open for all to re-enter.

Storm

The major electrical trouble started at 6:52 p. m. when a bolt hit the transformer at Calcutta, knocking out a portion of it.

However, the unit remained in service until 8:08 p. m. when crews had to break the service because of the high voltage to make temporary repairs, a company spokesman said.

Using portable lights, a repair crew worked until 11:45 p. m. to install an emergency transformer. Meanwhile, a new transformer was brought from Toronto and delivered to the site at 7:30 a. m.

Around - the - clock operations will be necessary to install the new unit with another interruption planned at 1 p. m. Friday and continuing for 1 to 1½ hours to complete the repairs, a spokesman said. The damaged $25,000 transformer probably will have to be rebuilt, he added.

Crews worked until about 3 a.m. throughout the district to make repairs and clean up storm damage.

Some 40 homes in the 18th St. area in downtown Wellsville also were without service for about four hours when a distributing transformer apparently was struck by lightning.

Service to an additional 50-75 homes on the Route 39-18th St. Heights-Old Irondale Rd. area was interrupted for approximately two hours when lightning damaged a protective piece of equipment.

There were no major service interruptions in the Salineville area, the spokesman continued, but many tree limbs were blown across power lines and had to be removed.

Firemen received two calls at the same time — 6:59 p. m. — to check on damage after bolts struck at the two homes.

Miss Tennie Neff, 1163 Pennsylvania Ave., commented, "It seemed like a heat wave settled over me," after a bolt apparently followed an antenna wire into the home.

The lightning blew up regulating device for the TV antenna and damaged the baseboard. It also blew out three of four fuses, she said.

A neighbor, sitting outside, told Miss Neff "a ball of fire" seemed to hit the garage when the bolt struck but no evidence of damage could be found.

Miss Neff had disconnected her TV set when the storm started, which apparently saved it from damage. East End firemen answered the call, returning at 7:18 p. m.

A bolt also struck the home of Miss Kathleen Potter, 1031 Ephraim St., knocking a hole in the roof and shorting out the wires and burning the insulation.

The force of the bolt scattered the slate on the roof with some pieces striking the home of a neighbor, J. Edward Keysor, 1037 Ephraim St., located about 60 feet from the Potter residence.

The Ohio Bell Telephone Co. said it had no concentrated trouble. "It was not abnormal for a storm," a spokesman said, explaining there were 20-30 cases of service interruption but all were isolated instances.

Mayor William J. Shoub of Wellsville said he has received reports of water in some cellars and some washouts on dirt streets. No extensive damage had been reported, he said.

The heavy gusts of wind blew some slate off the roof of Wellsville City Hall on the 5th St. side. It fell harmlessly to the sidewalk.

Most of the storm damage in Hancock County centered on the Weirton area although several trees were uprooted or blown over on Ridge Ave., New Cumberland, County sheriff's deputies reported. Lock 10 at Steubenville reported 1.4 inches of rain Wdenesday.

The storm whipped across Weirton with the heavy rains washing mud and debris onto streets and pavement. The northern section of the city was without electricity for a time after circuits were knocked out by lightning.

High water blocked the Weirton underpass on West Virginia State Route 2 and littered the street with debris. Traffic was restricted to one-way on Cove Rd., one of the sectors hardest hit by the storm.

Parts of Midland and surrounding area were without electricity for over two hours. The Duquesne Light Co. reported scattered areas in the county without electricity due to fuses going out in transformers. There was no major rain damage.

Midland police reported the situation to the company at 7:10 p. m. following calls from residents. Lights were out in Midland Heights, Midcrest, the west end of Midland, and from Stop 9 to Smiths Ferry.

The storm knocked over 30 degrees from the thermometer — from a high of 94 yesterday afternoon to a low of 63 this morning.

Dam 8 at Newell reported 0.79 inch of precipitation, most of it in the major storm between 6:30 and 10:15.

Temperatures will range between 65 and 70 today with a low tonight of 48 to 55. Friday will be sunny and a little warmer.

Storm Felled Tree Cuts Palestine Lines

EAST PALESTINE — Electric power was disrupted for some 45 minutes in the northeast section Wednesday night after a storm blown tree fell onto a line on Lemley Rd. about 7:30.

A television antenna broke a smaller service line in the western part of the city during the storm, knocking power out for a short while, and other power failures were reported at sites where lines snapped in the brief but heavy storm.

Rural areas between Columbiana and East Palestine were without electricity for a while when lightning struck a tree on Route 14, causing the tree to burn and melt off insulation on nearby wires, resulting in a power failure.

Salineville Feels Fury Of High Winds

SALINEVILLE — Heavy winds in Wednesday night's rainstorm felled some trees and branches, breaking some individual home service lines.

Hancock Draft Office Will Curtail Next Week

Due to the vacation of the clerk, Mrs. Ruth E. Fetty of near Newell, Selective Service Board 34 at Weirton has announced a change of office hours for next week.

The draft board office, located in the Longo Building, will open only on Tuesday, July 7, and Thursday, July 9, from 8:30 a. m. to 5 p. m.

The office also will close tomorrow for the Independence Day holiday weekend.

Mrs. Fetty said that Mrs. Helen Bowers of Wellsburg will be in the office on Tuesday and Thursday of next week to act as clerk in her absence. Regular office hours will resume July 13.

Old Log Cabin Shipped To Texas By Railroad

The cabin, still sound after a cross-country trip by rail, serves as a rustic home for Clayburne and his family.

Clayburne learned about the old homestead during visits with friends in the Shenandoah Valley. Later, hearing it was about to be razed, he made a hurried trip East.

She Collects Pictures Of Top Military Men

KEARNY, N. J. (AP) — Mrs. Joseph Bersey collects autographed photos of famous men without ever having to deal with press agents or packaged pictures. And replies are prompt.

Starting with the now President Eisenhower in 1945, she has been collecting signed protraits of Army and Navy brass. Her stack includes every top general and admiral of the present day.

He Likes It Here

GREENVILLE, Ohio (AP) — When it comes to earthmen exploring space, Park McGriff says: "They're nuts. They've got no business on the moon. The earth's a good enough place to live." McGriff ought to know. He's lived on it 106 years and is looking ahead to his 80th wedding anniversary next October.

Also Appeals For Christians To Unite

New Plea For Peace Made By Pope

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope John XXIII appealed today to the leaders of rival nations to "try every approach" for peace because a war with nuclear weapons would destroy victor and vanquished alike.

The Pope also appealed for Christians to unite. He urged the press, movies and television to counteract what he called a spreading tendency toward falsehood and immorality.

"Truth, unity and peace" were the subjects of his first encyclical letter to the bishops since his coronation eight months ago.

The encyclical began with the words "Ad Petri cathedram"—"Near Peter's chair." It was dated June 29, feast day of St. Peter, and was released for publication today.

The pontiff warned that if nations do not aim at "fraternal unity which must rest on the precepts of justice and be nourished by charity, conditions of gravest crisis remain.

"As a result, all prudent men complain and grieve that it seems to be uncertain whether the same events are moving toward the establishing of a solid, true and genuine pace, or are slipping in complete blindness toward a new and frightful warlike conflagration.

"We say in complete blindness: For if — which God prevent — a new war breaks out, nothing else will await or confront all peoples, (such are the dreadful armaments which our age brings into play) but appalling destruction and ruin; and this, whether they are victor or vanquished.

"We therefore ask all, and statesmen in particular, that they ponder the matter prudently and earnestly before God the Judge; and, as a result, with genuine good will, be ready to try every approach which may lead to the essential unity. This harmony and unity, by which alone, we say, the joint prosperity of nations will undoubtedly be increased, will be able to be restored only when minds are at peace and the rights of all recognized, and due freedom shine forth for the church, for peoples, and for the individual citizen."

The Pope urged the leaders of nations to remember that "God created men not as enemies but as brothers."

He warned repeatedly and in plain language of the ruin which will result "if the fires of discord are set ablaze" again in a world which he said already has seen too much of war.

"Why prepare death dealing weapons against our brother?" he asked. "Already there has been enough strife among men. Already too many cemeteries of those fallen in war cover the earth's surface and solemnly warn that all should be, at long last, brought back to harmony, unity and a just peace."

In the first section the pontiff wrote of the search for truth. He referred specifically to the responsibilities of the press, the movies, and television.

In the third section he mentioned the Ecumenical (universal) Council of the Roman Catholic Church which he has called. He said this council would contribute to the unity of the church.

The Pope said the Roman Catholic Church is "the father house of all Christianity" and that its doors are open for all to re-enter.

Storm

antenna regulating device at another.

The major electrical trouble started at 6:52 p. m. when a bolt hit the transformer at Calcutta, knocking out a portion of it.

However, the unit remained in service until 8:08 p. m. when crews had to break the service because of the high voltage to make temporary repairs, a company spokesman said.

Using portable lights, a repair crew worked until 11:45 p. m. to install an emergency transformer. Meanwhile, a new transformer was brought from Toronto and delivered to the site at 7:30 a. m.

Around - the - clock operations will be necessary to install the new unit with another interruption planned at 1 p. m. Friday and continuing for 1 to 1½ hours to complete the repairs, a spokesman said. The damaged $25,000 transformer probably will have to be rebuilt, he added.

Crews worked until about 3 a.m. throughout the district to make repairs and clean up storm damage.

Some 40 homes in the 18th St. area in downtown Wellsville also were without service for about four hours when a distributing transformer apparently was struck by lightning.

Service to an additional 50-75 homes on the Route 39-18th St. Heights-Old Irondale Rd. area was interrupted for approximately two hours when lightning damaged a protective piece of equipment.

There were no major service interruptions in the Salineville area, the spokesman continued, but many tree limbs were blown across power lines and had to be removed.

Firemen received two calls at the same time — 6:59 p. m. — to check on damage after bolts struck at the two homes.

Miss Tennie Neff, 1163 Pennsylvania Ave., commented, "It seemed like a heat wave settled over me," after a bolt apparently followed an antenna wire into the home.

The lightning blew up regulating device for the TV antenna and damaged the baseboard. It also blew out three of four fuses, she said.

A neighbor, sitting outside, told Miss Neff "a ball of fire" seemed to hit the garage when the bolt struck but no evidence of damage could be found.

Miss Neff had disconnected her TV set when the storm started, which apparently saved it from damage. East End firemen answered the call, returning at 7:18 p. m.

A bolt also struck the home of Miss Kathleen Potter, 1031 Ephraim St., knocking a hole in the roof and shorting out the wires and burning the insulation.

The force of the bolt scattered the slate on the roof with some pieces striking the home of a neighbor, J. Edward Keysor, 1037 Ephraim St., located about 60 feet from the Potter residence.

The Ohio Bell Telephone Co. said it had no concentrated trouble. "It was not abnormal for a storm," a spokesman said, explaining there were 20-30 cases of service interruption but all were isolated instances.

Mayor William J. Shoub of Wellsville said he has received reports of water in some cellars and some washouts on dirt streets. No extensive damage had been reported, he said.

The heavy gusts of wind blew some slate off the roof of Wellsville City Hall on the 5th St. side. It fell harmlessly to the sidewalk.

Most of the storm damage in Hancock County centered on the Weirton area although several trees were uprooted or blown over on Ridge Ave., New Cumberland, County sheriff's deputies reported. Lock 10 at Steubenville reported 1.4 inches of rain Wdenesday.

New Cumberland had no power failure and Dam 9 there recorded only 0.51 inch of rain.

The storm whipped across Weirton with the heavy rains washing mud and debris onto streets and pavement. The northern section of the city was without electricity for a time after circuits were knocked out by lightning.

High water blocked the Weirton underpass on West Virginia State Route 2 and tittered the street with debris. Traffic was restricted to one-way on Cove Rd., one of the sectors hardest hit by the storm.

Parts of Midland and surrounding area were without electricity for over two hours. The Duquesne Light Co. reported scattered areas in the county without electricity due to fuses going out in transformers. There was no major rain damage.

Midland police reported the situation to the company at 7:10 p. m. following calls from residents. Lights were out in Midland Heights, Midcrest, the west end of Midland, and from Stop 9 to Smiths Ferry.

The storm knocked over 30 degrees from the thermometer — from a high of 94 yesterday afternoon to a low of 63 this morning.

Dam 8 at Newell reported 0.79 inch of precipitation, most of it in the major storm between 6:30 and 10:15.

Temperatures will range between 65 and 70 today with a low tonight of 48 to 55. Friday will be sunny and a little warmer.

Storm Felled Tree Cuts Palestine Lines

EAST PALESTINE — Electric power was disrupted for some 45 minutes in the northeast section Wednesday night after a storm blown tree fell onto a line on Lemley Rd. about 7:30.

A television antenna broke a smaller service line in the western part of the city during the storm, knocking power out for a short while, and other power failures were reported at sites where lines snapped in the brief but heavy storm.

Rural areas between Columbiana and East Palestine were without electricity for a while when lightning struck a tree on Route 14, causing the tree to burn and melt off insulation on nearby wires, resulting in a power failure.

Salineville Feels Fury Of High Winds

SALINEVILLE — Heavy winds in Wednesday night's rainstorm felled some trees and branches, breaking some individual home service lines.

Old Log Cabin Shipped To Texas By Railroad

The cabin, still sound after a cross-country trip by rail, serves as a rustic home for Clayburne and his family.

Clayburne learned about the old homestead during visits with friends in the Shenandoah Valley. Later, hearing it was about to be razed, he made a hurried trip East.

In Discussing Berlin Crisis

Soviet Boss Seen Tough In Talks With Harriman

NEW YORK (AP) — Two New York newspapers report that Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev, in his interview with former New York Gov. Averell Harriman, adopted a very tough line in discussing the Berlin crisis.

The New York Times, in a Washington dispatch by Harry Schwartz, quotes an "informed source" as saying: "Khrushchev was very rough in his talks with Harriman.

"Khrushchev indicated he is determined to get us out of Berlin and apparently thinks he can do so because he judges that the world balance of power has shifted in his favor."

The New York Herald Tribune, in a copyrighted Washington story by Joseph Alsop, said of the interviews, held a week ago Tuesday at Khrushchev's office and country villa: "The crude threats that the Soviet leader indulged in, the brutal tone and unprintable language that he employed are considered to mark a new phase in the world situation...

"...The fact that Khrushchev was really speaking, not to former Gov. Harriman, but through him to President Eisenhower, was made abundantly clear.

"At one point, when the Soviet leader was emphasizing his readiness to use military force to get his way at Berlin, he told Harriman: 'You must tell your President what I have said.' "

"Harriman replied that he was traveling as a private person, with no right to receive messages for the President."

" 'Well then' " said Khrushchev, " 'I will tell him.' "

The Herald Tribune said Harriman did send an account of the interviews through the Moscow embassy to Washington, but requested that "this account be held closely for the time being, apparently because he (Harriman) is under contract to publish his own story of his trip to Russia."

Eagles At Wellsville Given Liquor Penalty

The Ohio Department of Liquor Control at Columbus has issued a 14-day suspension of the permit of Wellsville Eagles Lodge 772 for sale of intoxicating liquor to a non-member.

The suspension will begin July 15 and end at midnight July 28. The lodge, at 334 Main St., was cited about a month ago.

The steward also was fined in Mayor William J. Shoub's court on the charge. A liquor agent from Canton made the purchase at the bar. The club holds a D-4 permit, which allows sale by private clubs to their own members for on-premises consumption.

Band-Orchestra Alumni Holds Officer Election

Election of officers was held at the initial meeting of the Band and Orchestra Alumni Organization of the 1958-1959 High School classes Tuesday night at the lower pavilion of Thompson Park.

Bob Smith will be president; Dick Mautz, vice president; Miss Mary Lou Hoppel, secretary; Miss Ruth Cline, treasurer, and Miss Janet Wilson, corresponding secretary.

A wiener roast was enjoyed.

The group will meet at 7 p. m. July 27 at the lower pavilion.

American Revolution Subject Of Book Available At Library

"The American Revolutionary War is unique in that it was won decisively on the field but it has stayed won — America still is a free and independent country.

"And yet the same war still is being fought all over the world, wherever the ideas embodied in the American declaration of human rights and beliefs are being challenged and suppressed."

The book, now available at the Carnegie Public Library, represents an excellent history of the American Revolution, and surprisingly enough is straight history, since the author has most often employed fiction as her medium. Miss Thane, who in private life is Mrs. William Beebe, is best known for her seven Williamsburg novels, including "Dawn's Early Light" and "Homing."

The source of her material for "The Family Quarrel" is Lossing's "Pictorial Field Book of the Revolution." The museum is fortunate to have a set of Lossing's histories of this period, but it does not have the "Field Book."

Local residents might well search through some attics and bookcases to turn this up for Miss Thane will have made Lossing's books more valuable. He was the first historian of the Revolution who illustrated his research. He did not start his journeys until 1848 — 67 years after Cornwallis surrendered at Yorktown.

A covey of political books is also on display on this week's new book shelf: "Times of Trial," by Allan Nevins, articles on crises in the American past taken from American Heritage; "Douglas of the Supreme Court," a selection of his opinions, "To Be a Politican," by Stimson Bullitt, "The Southern Temper," a fresh look at segregation by William Peters, and "The Great Decision," secret history of the atomic bomb by Michael Amrine.

In two widely contrasting books the problems of childhood are related. June Havoc, sister of Gypsy Rose Lee, relates her adventures as a child star of the vaudeville stage of the 20's and the trials of her adjustment when vaudeville collapsed.

This portion of her autobiography is interrupted with her participation in the notorious dance marathons of the 30's. The lack of parental care and understanding on the part of her mother makes "Early Havoc" basically sad but the resiliency of the stage child also wins the reader's admiration.

Cal Farley's wonderful boys' ranch for orphaned and neglected children shows what an adult can do to make a dream come true. The story is written by Beth Day and is entitled, "A Shirttail to Hang to."

Two novels for adults dealing with early American history are Ruth Bowlein's "Course of Empire" and "Chant of the Hawk" by John and Margaret Harris. The latter is an epic of the mountain men and the Oregon trail.

Suggested for the teen-age girl are Elizabeth Ogilvie's account of an art student in modern Boston — "How Wide the Heart." Rachel Baker, who has made a career of writing about doctors and social workers, has a new biography, "America's First Trained Nurse, Linda Richards."

Son Succeeds Father As Caretaker Of Park

Herman Kessel of Ridge Ave., Wellsville, has assumed his duties as caretaker of the Roadside Park on Wells Ave.

He succeeded his father, O. B. Kessel who was retired June 16 by the State Highway Department after 15 years and 2 months of service and was given a two-week vacation, which ended Tuesday.

The new caretaker was employed by the McKesson-Robbin Wholesale Drug Co. at San Antonio, Tex., until December a year ago, when he came to reside with his father.

NEW PHILADELPHIA, Ohio (AP)—Wilford R. Miller resigned as Tuscarawas County prosecutor Wednesday to enter private law practice. The Dover Democrat was in the third year of his first term.

Synod Delegates Adopt Plans For Biennial Meeting

OBERLIN, Ohio (AP) — Delegates to the 11th general synod of the Evangelical and Reformed Church Wednesday night adopted a constitutional amendment providing for sessions of the synod every two years instead of each three years.

The delegates raised the number of members on the general council, governing body of the synod, from 14 to 16, adding the names of Louis Goebel, a Chicago attorney, and Dr. Donald Helffrich, president of Ursinus College at Collegeville, Pa.

A major item of business coming up at the synod session will be consideration of the budget. Delegates will be presented a proposal which would increase the present budget by nearly nine per cent.

22 Hear Judge Sharp At Meeting Of Officers

Common Pleas Judge Joel H. Sharp spoke to 22 Wednesday night when the Police Chiefs' and Sheriff's Association of Columbiana County met at Tice's Restaurant.

The judge discussed procedures of the court and the constitutional rights of individuals. A question-and-answer period followed.

Chief William McGuckin of Columbiana, vice president, presided in the absence of Sheriff Russell J. VanFossan, president. The next meeting will be Wednesday, Aug. 5, at the County Jail in Lisbon.

Gets Three Months

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio ((AP) Allen H. Knupp, 21, one of four men who had been charged in the kidnap and rape of a Struthers girl last Nov. 1, was sentenced to three months in county jail Wednesday on a charge of assault. Rape indictment against the Hubbard man was dismissed and a kidnap charge was reduced to assault. He pleaded guilty. The other three men are serving sentences in Mansfield Reformatory for their part in the kidnap and rape.

Help For Farmers

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld. (AP) — Agriculture Minister W. J. Keough says the Newfoundland government spent $250,000 on various services for farmers during 1958. No other occupational group in Newfoundland receives as much assistance, he said.

Escaped Mental Patient Held In Probe Of Murder

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—An escaped mental patient from an Air Force base, described by authorities as having homicidal tendencies, is being held by police here today for investigation of murder.

Officers said the victim was wearing the clothes of the mental patient, and vice versa.

The AWOL airman, Tom Clark Wilson, 30, of Irvington, Ala., told police he had slept under the Patterson-Riverside bridge here Tuesday night with Howard Earl Basham, 45. When he awoke Wednesday morning, he said, he found Basham dead.

Basham, formerly of Toledo and Portsmouth, was strangled with a wire or rope, slashed across the chest with a hatchet or ax, and beaten, possibly with a rock, said Deputy Coroner Harry Bloomer.

Bloomer said he learned from officials at Eglin Air Force Base, Florida, that Wilson had a schizophrenic personality with both homicidal and homosexual tendencies. Wilson escaped from the base two months ago, police said.

Basham had no known address, although his mother lives in East Portsmouth (3917 Harding Rd.). Wilson told police that he met Basham Tuesday night in Marion and that they hitchhiked to Dayton.

In Discussing Berlin Crisis

Soviet Boss Seen Tough In Talks With Harriman

NEW YORK (AP) — Two New York newspapers report that Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev, in his interview with former New York Gov. Averell Harriman, adopted a very tough line in discussing the Berlin crisis.

The New York Times, in a Washington dispatch by Harry Schwartz, quotes an "informed source" as saying: "Khrushchev was very rough in his talks with Harriman.

"Khrushchev indicated he is determined to get us out of Berlin and apparently thinks he can do so because he judges that the world balance of power has shifted in his favor."

The New York Herald Tribune, in a copyrighted Washington story by Joseph Alsop, said of the interviews, held a week ago Tuesday at Khrushchev's office and country villa: "The crude threats that the Soviet leader indulged in, the brutal tone and unprintable language that he employed are considered to mark a new phase in the world situation...

"...The fact that Khrushchev was really speaking, not to former Gov. Harriman, but through him to President Eisenhower, was made abundantly clear.

"At one point, when the Soviet leader was emphasizing his readiness to use military force to get his way at Berlin, he told Harriman: 'You must tell your President what I have said.' "

"Harriman replied that he was traveling as a private person, with no right to receive messages for the President."

" 'Well then' " said Khrushchev, " 'I will tell him.' "

The Herald Tribune said Harriman did send an account of the interviews through the Moscow embassy to Washington, but requested that "this account be held closely for the time being, apparently because he (Harriman) is under contract to publish his own story of his trip to Russia."

Eagles At Wellsville Given Liquor Penalty

The Ohio Department of Liquor Control at Columbus has issued a 14-day suspension of the permit of Wellsville Eagles Lodge 772 for sale of intoxicating liquor to a non-member.

The suspension will begin July 15 and end at midnight July 28. The lodge, at 334 Main St., was cited about a month ago.

The steward also was fined in Mayor William J. Shoub's court on the charge. A liquor agent from Canton made the purchase at the bar. The club holds a D-4 permit, which allows sale by private clubs to their own members for on-premises consumption.

Band-Orchestra Alumni Holds Officer Election

Election of officers was held at the initial meeting of the Band and Orchestra Alumni Organization of the 1958-1959 High School classes Tuesday night at the lower pavilion of Thompson Park.

Bob Smith will be president; Dick Mautz, vice president; Miss Mary Lou Hoppel, secretary; Miss Ruth Cline, treasurer, and Miss Janet Wilson, corresponding secretary.

A wiener roast was enjoyed.

The group will meet at 7 p. m. July 27 at the lower pavilion.

PRESIDENT AND MRS. EISENHOWER posed for their picture at the White House on their 43rd wedding anniversary Wednesday. In answers to a reporter's inquiry earlier, the President said a successful marriage gets happier as the years go by. (UPI Telephoto)

American Revolution Subject Of Book Available At Library

"The American Revolutionary War is unique in that it was won decisively on the field but it has stayed won — America still is a free and independent country.

"And yet the same war still is being fought all over the world, wherever the ideas embodied in the American declaration of human rights and beliefs are being challenged and suppressed."

The book, now available at the Carnegie Public Library, represents an excellent history of the American Revolution, and surprisingly enough is straight history, since the author has most often employed fiction as her medium. Miss Thane, who in private life is Mrs. William Beebe, is best known for her seven Williamsburg novels, including "Dawn's Early Light" and "Homing."

The source of her material for "The Family Quarrel" is Lossing's "Pictorial Field Book of the Revolution." The museum is fortunate to have a set of Lossing's histories of this period, but it does not have the "Field Book."

Local residents might well search through some attics and bookcases to turn this up for Miss Thane will have made Lossing's books more valuable. He was the first historian of the Revolution who illustrated his research. He did not start his journeys until 1848 — 67 years after Cornwallis surrendered at Yorktown.

A covey of political books is also on display on this week's new book shelf: "Times of Trial," by Allan Nevins, articles on crises in the American past taken from American Heritage; "Douglas of the Supreme Court," a selection of his opinions, "To Be a Politican," by Stimson Bullitt, "The Southern Temper," a fresh look at segregation by William Peters, and "The Great Decision," secret history of the atomic bomb by Michael Amrine.

In two widely contrasting books the problems of childhood are related. June Havoc, sister of Gypsy Rose Lee, relates her adventures as a child star of the vaudeville stage of the 20's and the trials of her adjustment when vaudeville collapsed.

This portion of her autobiography is interrupted with her participation in the notorious dance marathons of the 30's. The lack of parental care and understanding on the part of her mother makes "Early Havoc" basically sad but the resiliency of the stage child also wins the reader's admiration.

Cal Farley's wonderful boys' ranch for orphaned and neglected children shows what an adult can do to make a dream come true. The story is written by Beth Day and is entitled, "A Shirttail to Hang to."

Two novels for adults dealing with early American history are Ruth Bowlein's "Course of Empire" and "Chant of the Hawk" by John and Margaret Harris. The latter is an epic of the mountain men and the Oregon trail.

Suggested for the teen-age girl are Elizabeth Ogilvie's account of an art student in modern Boston — "How Wide the Heart." Rachel Baker, who has made a career of writing about doctors and social workers, has a new biography, "America's First Trained Nurse, Linda Richards."

New Plea Due In Bid To Save Slayer's Life

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Attorneys for Walter J. Byomin are appealing to the U. S. Supreme Court once more in an 11th-hour attempt to save the convicted slayer's life.

Byomin, a 43 - year - old Clevelander, is scheduled to die in Ohio Penitentiary's electric chair Friday night for the May 4, 1957, slaying of Edmund G. Smith, a Wellington deputy. Smith was shot to death during a police cruiser chase following a complaint over Byomin's attentions to Mrs. Helen Bristow.

Wednesday, the Ohio Supreme Court turned down Byomin's petition for a writ of habeas corpus in his effort to obtain a new trial. His attorney, State Rep. Joseph J. Murphy, a Piqua attorney, said he applied to the U. S. Supreme Court for a stay of execution.

Murphy said he is appealing on the basis of new evidence. He did not disclose the nature of the evidence.

Murphy also said he has filed a motion in Lorain County Common Pleas Court at Elyria for a new trial. That motion, too, is on the basis of new evidence, he said.

Both the Ohio and the U. S. Supreme Courts had previously refused to consider Byomin's appeal.

In another case, the Ohio Supreme Court refused to consider an appeal from an order for a new trial for Dallas E. Milam, serving a life sentence for his part in the fatal shooting of Cleveland Police Lt. Edward Lentz on Dec. 9, 1957.

Milan was convicted for the shooting along with James Davis and Robert Lee Lyons Jr. Davis is also serving a life term, but Lyons, the purported triggerman, was given the death penalty. He has been given an indefinite stay pending an appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court.

Lentz was shot near a gambling place in Cleveland.

In other actions, the court:

Refused to review decisions of Stark County courts upsetting the will of Samuel C. Glutting who died May 2, 1958, in Massillon Hospital. Mrs. Zita Skelly, Glutting's sister, and other relatives contested his will leaving $1,000 to a nephew, Clarence Green, and the rest to the Fairmount Childrens Home of Stark County. H. Clifton Graybill, executor of the estate estimated at $50,000 filed the appeal.

Let stand refusal of Stark County courts to award damages against Theodore C. Henry to the son of Virgil S. Harper for injuries received when the boy's bicycle struck a power mower in front of the Henry residence at 122 Saratoga Ave. N.W., Canton. The boy was eight years old at the time of the accident.

Denied review of Fairfield County decisions holding for Joseph T. Alten and Mrs. Mary J. Russell, brother and sister of the late Paul W. Alten, Lancaster, a partner in Quality Auto Parts Co., in a dispute over his estate. Alten died Nov. 10, 1957, and his widow, Edna, the following Nov. 30. Her will named as beneficiaries these brothers and sisters: Richard E. Barnecut, Paul Barnecut, Gertrude Colley and Mary Jane Craig. Lower courts ruled out Mrs. Alten's relatives because she died less than 30 days after her husband.

Dismissed the appeal of Benjamin C. Lightfritz, applying as a pauper, from refusal of Washington County courts to give him a transcript of proceedings leading to his first-degree murder conviction and life sentence in 1957. The Supreme Court held unanimously that his notice of appeal was not filed within the statutory time limit.

Akron Teamsters Local Snubs New 3-Year Pact Bid

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—A proposal for a three-year contract calling for 38 cents an hour in wage hikes was turned down Wednesday by members of Teamsters Union Local 348. The vote was 85-40.

Millions of dollars worth of construction projects in Summit, Medina and Portage counties have been tied up by a 35-day strike, though not all construction has been affected.

Carl F. Shoaff, chief negotiator for the 13 firms in the building Material Institute, expressed surprise at rejection of the contract offer. He said a deal had been made early Wednesday and signed in front of a mediator.

Joe Stauffer, union business agent, said he had agreed to take the proposal back to the membership but that he did not recommend it. He said he wanted a few more pennies."

Timken, USW Pact Talks Are Recessed

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—Negotiations between Timken Roller Bearing Co. and the United Steelworkers on a contract covering about 8,000 workers here and in Columbus and Wooster have recessed until July 16.

The union in Wednesday afternoon's opening bargaining session presented its proposals for improvements in a three-year contract and one-year pension agreement, both of which expire on Aug. 24.

Timken also has plants at New Philadelphia and Bucyrus and in Colorado Springs, Colo., but employes in these cities are not represented by the USW. A plant formerly operated at Mount Vernon has been discontinued, and another plant in Zanesville is in the proces of closing down.

Senate Approves Three In Ohio For Postmaster

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate has confirmed President Eisenhower's nomination of three men to be Ohio postmasters.

They are Richard E. Hasenflue, Birmingham (Erie County); Raymond V. Korby, Burton (Geauga County) and Loyal Lee Andrews, Greentown (Stark County).

Doctors Hint Gov. Long Has Failing Heart

COVINGTON, La. (AP) — Doctors say Gov. Earl K. Long, working restlessly day and night on fourth-term campaign plans, may now have a slightly failing heart.

Dr. Victory Lief, one of four doctors attending the 63-year-old governor, said Long had a slight heart failure Wednesday.

There was no indication the Louisiana governor suffered a coronary attack, he said but doctors are concerned about the condition. They stayed through the night at his motel headquarters here.

The governor suffered a heart attack in 1950.

Earlier, Long announced plans to adopt a 14-year-old youth he met while they were both patients at John Sealy Hospital in Galveston, Tex. The boy's parents said they had not consented.

The youth is David Rankin, son of Mr. and Mrs. F.H. Rankin of Texas City, who was hospitalized with a high blood pressure condition.

Long, in the midst of a separation suit from his 58-year-old childless wife Blanche, said simply: "He got to likin' me and I got to likin' him...I've always wanted to have a son. Well, I've wanted a daughter too, but I can't chaperon one under the present circumstances."

David's parents said their boy and Gov. Long got to be good friends but they said it was untrue they agreed to adoption. They said Gov. Long phoned David last Friday. The governor invited David to visit him in Louisiana and the boy will make his own decision on whether to accept.

Rankin, a chemical plant power department foreman, has another son, Bobby, 27, and a daughter, Betty Ann, 15.

Long had a busy day Wednesday.

He announced plans for a whirlwind vacation trip west to the Pacific Coast and up to Canada, then down through the Midwest possibly to Mexico. He said he would leave next Thursday.

Hancock Board Sets Assessments Review

Hancock County commissioners will sit as a Board of Review beginning Monday in New Cumberland for the purpose of reviewing and equalizing assessments of taxes made by Assessor Edward Suplee.

Commissioners William C. Graham, Lyle Virden and Dave N. Thomas will hear complaints, objections or corrections by residents of the county while sitting as County Court in the Courthouse.

Grant District residents, including those from Chester, Newell and Lawrenceville areas, are to meet with commissioners on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday if they wish to air tax complaints.

Clay District residents, from New Cumberland and Pughtown, will be heard Thursday, Friday and July 13. Butler District residents will be heard July 14-16.

On July 20, hearings will be held for any or all county residents irrespective of their district. This will be the final day to air complaints, Donald Stewart, clerk, said.

Kerala's Red Regime Jails Indian Pickets

MADRAS, India (AP) — Kerala state's Communist government has jailed 5,280 Indians picketing schools and government offices in an attempt to oust the red regime.

Another 19,141 arrests were reported since the campaign began June 12, but these were released. The anti-Communist groups are trying to get Prime Minister Nehru's government to unseat the Kerala government and call new elections on the ground that the Communists have lost the support of the state's people.

Drowns In Harbor

Snark Missile Round-Trip 'Successful'

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —A Snark intercontinental guided missile shot 1,000 miles over the Atlantic today, then turned around and came back to the cape, the Air Force said, terming the round-trip flight highly successful.

The sleek, 69-foot rocket dropped smoothly onto the cape landing strip 4½ hours after it was launched. Special skids and a parachute that popped from the tail eased the missile's landing.

This particular missile successfully made the trip on two previous launchings this year. On each recovery, crewmen prepared it for a repeat performance.

Earlier rockets dropped dummy warheads on target near Ascension Island, 5,000 miles away. These rockets were not designed for recovery as is the Snark.

The Snark, which cruises at a comparatively slow 600 miles an hour, can zig-zag and dodge in flight to elude enemy defenders. The missile has an inertial guidance system which steers it and checks its accuracy by the stars.

Practical Nurse Class To Graduate

SALEM — Twelve area women will be graduated Friday afternoon at 4 from the Hannah E. Mullins School of Practical Nursing — the second class to complete the curriculum at the school opposite Salem City Hospital.

The class includes Linda L. Neil and Judith Curtis of East Palestine, Virginia Mancuso of Leetonia, Meredith Purviance and Judith Hookey of Salem, Alice Stuck and Irene Scott of Alliance, Margaret Ann Bair of North Lima, Barbara Lacusky and Alma Jones of Warren, Ernestine Owens of Youngstown and Lucille Wilson of Berlin Center.

Dr. Cornell Monda, Lisbon school psychologist, will speak on "Hurdles of Life" at the ceremony at the First Christian Church. Diplomas will be presented by C. J. Mosher, City Hospital administrator.

Lebanon Man Killed In Gas Storage Cavern

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP) — Edward Bowman, 58, of Lebanon, Ohio, was killed early today in a natural gas storage cavern 350 feet below the ground when a large rock slab fell on him, police reported.

The cavern, about four miles south of Middletown, is being built by the Texas Eastern Gas Co. The Cincinnati Gas & Electric Co. will store surplus gas supplies in the cavern.

Butler County sheriff's deputies investigated the accident. It was the second fatal accident on the job in the last several months.

Tax Stamp Extension Applies On New Cars

LISBON — Clerk of Courts Carl Stacey today said sales tax stamps from the sale of cars prior to Tuesday will be accepted Friday —the final day—for issuance of a car title.

Use of tax stamps on car sales has been removed by the state in an effort to cut redemptions, although the tax remains. Stacey said on all car sales made after June 30 and applied for after Friday, dealers must bring cash for the tax before a title can be issued.

150 Attend Funeral Of TV's Superman

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — About 150 persons attended funeral services Wednesday for television's "Superman," actor George Reeves.

Reeves died June 16 from a bullet police said was self-inflicted. His mother, Helen Bessolo, has questioned the suicide ruling and has retained an attorney to investigate the death.

Visitor Suffers Cut From Pane

A Lorain man, injured on window glass while visiting a friend, was admitted Wednesday night to City Hospital where seven adults and youngsters were treated yesterday.

Dale Pritchett, 22, is in "good" condition today with a severe laceration of the left arm received on a broken pane. He was admitted at 7 p. m.

Vickie Lynn McKenzie, 2, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard McKenzie, 333 W. 7th St., was treated for bruises of the right leg received when caught in the spokes of bicycle wheel.

Carl Farnsworth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Farnsworth of Peterson Rd., Wellsville, received scalds of the arm, chest, back and neck when hot water was spilled.

While at a neighbor's home, Carolne Bigelow, 6, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Bigelow, 1246 Oakwood Ave, suffered a cut of the upper arm and forehead when glass fell on her.

60 Children Take Part In Playground Contests

Some 60 boys and girls took part in badminton and table tennis contests this week at Midland's 1st and 7th St. playgrounds, John Wilson, supervisor, said.

Contests this week will include horseshoes for boys with winners taking part in the County Playground Day July 16 in Midland. Wilson reminded boys and girls up to 16 that races will be held in Lincoln Park as a part of the July 4th celebration. Alex Della Valle, Miss Eugenia O'Hara and Wilson wil lbe in charge.

In the arts and craft work, Wilson said, children have been making copper plaques, yarn pot-holders and doing some pottery painting and woodwork.

Basketball league games were rained out, Wilson said, and scores of games played will be announced later.

City Building To Close But Payday's Planned

Although City Hall will be closed Friday, following a three-day holiday weekend set up for many governmental agencies, Auditor H. J. Gallimore will keep his doors open until noon tomorrow to issue early paychecks to all municipal employes and officials for the last half of June.

Gallimore explained that the regular date for the payday falls on Sunday, so his office will issue the checks early to assure that the workers will have money for their holiday plans. The closing schedule includes Municipal Court.

Deadline Is Extended For Water Application

Daniel C. Baker of the Ohio Township Municipal Authority announced that the deadline for applications for a new water distribution system has again been extended, this time until Aug. 1.

The number of applications received so far was not announced. Previously only a few more applications were needed and residents were urged to contact members of the authority or those of the Fairview Grange. The previous deadline had been extended to July 1.

Roach Powder Fatal

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — Miss Dorothy Baker, 21, died of swallowing roach powder Wednesday night, less than 24 hours after her fiance drowned in a midnight swim. They were to have been married Saturday.

Garage Foundations Set Ablaze By Trash

No damage resulted from a blaze in the foundation of an old garage at the home of Richard Parsons, 172 Pennsylvania Ave., Chester, Wednesday night about 6:50, firemen reported.

A trash and rubbish fire, kindled earlier by Parsons with the permission of firemen, was spread by wind to the flooring of the nearby foundation of the garage which he had dismantled previously. Fifteen firemen and a truck responded to the alarm, which was reported by Councilman James Waggle.

New Plea Due In Bid To Save Slayer's Life

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Attorneys for Walter J. Byomin are appealing to the U. S. Supreme Court once more in an 11th-hour attempt to save the convicted slayer's life.

Byomin, a 43 - year - old Clevelander, is scheduled to die in Ohio Penitentiary's electric chair Friday night for the May 4, 1957, slaying of Edmund G. Smith, a Wellington deputy. Smith was shot to death during a police cruiser chase following a complaint over Byomin's attentions to Mrs. Helen Bristow.

Wednesday, the Ohio Supreme Court turned down Byomin's petition for a writ of habeas corpus in his effort to obtain a new trial. His attorney, State Rep. Joseph J. Murphy, a Piqua attorney, said he applied to the U. S. Supreme Court for a stay of execution.

Murphy said he is appealing on the basis of new evidence. He did not disclose the nature of the evidence.

Murphy also said he has filed a motion in Lorain County Common Pleas Court at Elyria for a new trial. That motion, too, is on the basis of new evidence, he said.

Both the Ohio and the U. S. Supreme Courts had previously refused to consider Byomin's appeal.

In another case, the Ohio Supreme Court refused to consider an appeal from an order for a new trial for Dallas E. Milam, serving a life sentence for his part in the fatal shooting of Cleveland Police Lt. Edward Lentz on Dec. 9, 1957.

Milan was convicted for the shooting along with James Davis and Robert Lee Lyons Jr. Davis is also serving a life term, but Lyons, the purported triggerman, was given the death penalty. He has been given an indefinite stay pending an appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court.

Lentz was shot near a gambling place in Cleveland.

In other actions, the court:

Refused to review decisions of Stark County courts upsetting the will of Samuel C. Glutting who died May 2, 1958, in Massillon Hospital. Mrs. Zita Skelly, Glutting's sister, and other relatives contested his will leaving $1,000 to a nephew, Clarence Green, and the rest to the Fairmount Childrens Home of Stark County. H. Clifton Graybill, executor of the estate estimated at $50,000 filed the appeal.

Let stand refusal of Stark County courts to award damages against Theodore C. Henry to the son of Virgil S. Harper for injuries received when the boy's bicycle struck a power mower in front of the Henry residence at 122 Saratoga Ave. N.W., Canton. The boy was eight years old at the time of the accident.

Denied review of Fairfield County decisions holding for Joseph T. Alten and Mrs. Mary J. Russell, brother and sister of the late Paul W. Alten, Lancaster, a partner in Quality Auto Parts Co., in a dispute over his estate. Alten died Nov. 10, 1957, and his widow, Edna, the following Nov. 30. Her will named as beneficiaries these brothers and sisters: Richard E. Barnecut, Paul Barnecut, Gertrude Colley and Mary Jane Craig. Lower courts ruled out Mrs. Alten's relatives because she died less than 30 days after her husband.

Dismissed the appeal of Benjamin C. Lightfritz, applying as a pauper, from refusal of Washington County courts to give him a transcript of proceedings leading to his first-degree murder conviction and life sentence in 1957. The Supreme Court held unanimously that his notice of appeal was not filed within the statutory time limit.

Akron Teamsters Local Snubs New 3-Year Pact Bid

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—A proposal for a three-year contract calling for 38 cents an hour in wage hikes was turned down Wednesday by members of Teamsters Union Local 348. The vote was 85-40.

Millions of dollars worth of construction projects in Summit, Medina and Portage counties have been tied up by a 35-day strike, though not all construction has been affected.

Carl F. Shoaff, chief negotiator for the 13 firms in the building Material Institute, expressed surprise at rejection of the contract offer. He said a deal had been made early Wednesday and signed in front of a mediator.

Joe Stauffer, union business agent, said he had agreed to take the proposal back to the membership but that he did not recommend it. He said he wanted a few more pennies."

Timken, USW Pact Talks Are Recessed

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—Negotiations between Timken Roller Bearing Co. and the United Steelworkers on a contract covering about 8,000 workers here and in Columbus and Wooster have recessed until July 16.

The union in Wednesday afternoon's opening bargaining session presented its proposals for improvements in a three-year contract and one-year pension agreement, both of which expire on Aug. 24.

Timken also has plants at New Philadelphia and Bucyrus and in Colorado Springs, Colo., but employes in these cities are not represented by the USW. A plant formerly operated at Mount Vernon has been discontinued, and another plant in Zanesville is in the proces of closing down.

Senate Approves Three In Ohio For Postmaster

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate has confirmed President Eisenhower's nomination of three men to be Ohio postmasters.

They are Richard E. Hasenflue, Birmingham (Erie County); Raymond V. Korby, Burton (Geauga County) and Loyal Lee Andrews, Greentown (Stark County).

Doctors Hint Gov. Long Has Failing Heart

COVINGTON, La. (AP) — Doctors say Gov. Earl K. Long, working restlessly day and night on fourth-term campaign plans, may now have a slightly failing heart.

Dr. Victory Lief, one of four doctors attending the 63-year-old governor, said Long had a slight heart failure Wednesday.

There was no indication the Louisiana governor suffered a coronary attack, he said but doctors are concerned about the condition. They stayed through the night at his motel headquarters here.

The governor suffered a heart attack in 1950.

Earlier, Long announced plans to adopt a 14-year-old youth he met while they were both patients at John Sealy Hospital in Galveston, Tex. The boy's parents said they had not consented.

The youth is David Rankin, son of Mr. and Mrs. F.H. Rankin of Texas City, who was hospitalized with a high blood pressure condition.

Long, in the midst of a separation suit from his 58-year-old childless wife Blanche, said simply: "He got to likin' me and I got to likin' him...I've always wanted to have a son. Well, I've wanted a daughter too, but I can't chaperon one under the present circumstances."

David's parents said their boy and Gov. Long got to be good friends but they said it was untrue they agreed to adoption. They said Gov. Long phoned David last Friday. The governor invited David to visit him in Louisiana and the boy will make his own decision on whether to accept.

Rankin, a chemical plant power department foreman, has another son, Bobby, 27, and a daughter, Betty Ann, 15.

Long had a busy day Wednesday.

He announced plans for a whirlwind vacation trip west to the Pacific Coast and up to Canada, then down through the Midwest possibly to Mexico. He said he would leave next Thursday.

Hancock Board Sets Assessments Review

Hancock County commissioners will sit as a Board of Review beginning Monday in New Cumberland for the purpose of reviewing and equalizing assessments of taxes made by Assessor Edward Suplee.

Commissioners William C. Graham, Lyle Virden and Dave N. Thomas will hear complaints, objections or corrections by residents of the county while sitting as County Court in the Courthouse.

Grant District residents, including those from Chester, Newell and Lawrenceville areas, are to meet with commissioners on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday if they wish to air tax complaints.

Clay District residents, from New Cumberland and Pughtown, will be heard Thursday, Friday and July 13. Butler District residents will be heard July 14-16.

On July 20, hearings will be held for any or all county residents irrespective of their district. This will be the final day to air complaints, Donald Stewart, clerk, said.

Kerala's Red Regime Jails Indian Pickets

MADRAS, India (AP) — Kerala state's Communist government has jailed 5,280 Indians picketing schools and government offices in an attempt to oust the red regime.

Another 19,141 arrests were reported since the campaign began June 12, but these were released. The anti-Communist groups are trying to get Prime Minister Nehru's government to unseat the Kerala government and call new elections on the ground that the Communists have lost the support of the state's people.

Snark Missile Round-Trip 'Successful'

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —A Snark intercontinental guided missile shot 1,000 miles over the Atlantic today, then turned around and came back to the cape, the Air Force said, terming the round-trip flight highly successful.

The sleek, 69-foot rocket dropped smoothly onto the cape landing strip 4½ hours after it was launched. Special skids and a parachute that popped from the tail eased the missile's landing.

This particular missile successfully made the trip on two previous launchings this year. On each recovery, crewmen prepared it for a repeat performance.

Earlier rockets dropped dummy warheads on target near Ascension Island, 5,000 miles away. These rockets were not designed for recovery as is the Snark.

The Snark, which cruises at a comparatively slow 600 miles an hour, can zig-zag and dodge in flight to elude enemy defenders. The missile has an inertial guidance system which steers it and checks its accuracy by the stars.

Practical Nurse Class To Graduate

SALEM — Twelve area women will be graduated Friday afternoon at 4 from the Hannah E. Mullins School of Practical Nursing — the second class to complete the curriculum at the school opposite Salem City Hospital.

The class includes Linda L. Neil and Judith Curtis of East Palestine, Virginia Mancuso of Leetonia, Meredith Purviance and Judith Hookey of Salem, Alice Stuck and Irene Scott of Alliance, Margaret Ann Bair of North Lima, Barbara Lacusky and Alma Jones of Warren, Ernestine Owens of Youngstown and Lucille Wilson of Berlin Center.

Dr. Cornell Monda, Lisbon school psychologist, will speak on "Hurdles of Life" at the ceremony at the First Christian Church. Diplomas will be presented by C. J. Mosher, City Hospital administrator.

Lebanon Man Killed In Gas Storage Cavern

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP) — Edward Bowman, 58, of Lebanon, Ohio, was killed early today in a natural gas storage cavern 350 feet below the ground when a large rock slab fell on him, police reported.

The cavern, about four miles south of Middletown, is being built by the Texas Eastern Gas Co. The Cincinnati Gas & Electric Co. will store surplus gas supplies in the cavern.

Butler County sheriff's deputies investigated the accident. It was the second fatal accident on the job in the last several months.

Tax Stamp Extension Applies On New Cars

LISBON — Clerk of Courts Carl Stacey today said sales tax stamps from the sale of cars prior to Tuesday will be accepted Friday —the final day—for issuance of a car title.

Use of tax stamps on car sales has been removed by the state in an effort to cut redemptions, although the tax remains. Stacey said on all car sales made after June 30 and applied for after Friday, dealers must bring cash for the tax before a title can be issued.

Indians' Lead Trimmed To One Game By White Sox, 6-5

Conley Backs Up Selection To All-Stars By Blanking Bucs

Chisox Stave Off Tribe's Late Bid

CLEVELAND (AP) — If the tradition that the team in first place on the Fourth of July wins the pennant holds true, this may be the year for the Cleveland Indians to win the American League flag.

The Indians hold first place as they start a road trip in which they play five games before the break in the schedule for the all-star game. They have a good chance of being on top when Independence Day rolls around Saturday.

The Indians' lead was cut to one game by a 6-5 loss to the second-place Chicago White Sox Wednesday night.

They start their road trip tonight in Kansas City against the seventh-place Athletics. Gary Bell (6-7) will pitch for the Indians. He will be opposed by Ray Herbert (4-7).

Herb Score will pitch the finale in Kansas City Friday and then the Indians will go to Detroit for three games with the Tigers, including a doubleheader Saturday.

A walk, a stolen base, a bunt and a sacrifice fly proved the margin of difference Wednesday night. Luis Aparicio made the trek around the bases in that fashion in the ninth inning, scoring the deciding run.

The White Sox held off a Cleveland rally in the bottom of the ninth, when Woodie Held hit his 15th home run of the season with a man on base.

Chicago reliefer Turk Lown then retired Vic Power, Tito Francona and Rocky Colavito to put down the uprising. Francona had hit a home run in the sixth inning, his eighth of the season.

George Strickland gave the Indians a 2-0 lead in the first inning when he hit a single with the bases loaded. The White Sox bounced back with three runs in the second and never were headed.

The victory went to starter Barry Latman, his second against two losses. The loser was Jim Grant, now 5 and 4.

Terry Pitches Four-Hitter To Blank Orioles

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

If somebody's going to grab the American League pennant from those New York Yankees, the rest of the clubs better stop squabbling over who is to do it.

Take Cleveland and Chicago, the two most likely to succeed. The White Sox dropped the Yankees to fifth last Sunday with a three-game punch. But while they scuffled through two games with the Indians, the Yankees jumped back to third.

The second-place White Sox split the series at Cleveland with a 6-5 victory Wednesday night, cutting the Indians' first-place edge to one game. More important, it also trimmed the Indians' lead to three games over the Yankees, who beat Baltimore 4-0 behind the four-hit pitching of Ralph Terry.

In the National League, the Chicago Cubs defeated St. Louis 6-5, and Philadelphia beat Pittsburgh 1-0 on the five-hit pitching of Gene Conley.

The White Sox won on Jim Landis' ninth-inning sacrifice fly and a clutch relief job from Turk Lown. Woody Held's two-run homer, his 15th, chased Gerry Staley, second Sox pitcher, in the ninth, but Lown then retired the side. That saved it for starter Barry Latman (2-2).

Terry (3-5), reacquired by the Yankees from the A's May 26, walked only one and struck out six for his first victory and complete game since May 3. Billy Gardner doubled and singled for half of Baltimore's hits. Hec Brown lost it.

The Tigers beat Ned Garver (6-7) with a four-run seventh. Eddie Yost's single broke a 1-1 tie, and a double by Harvey Kuenn and singles by Charlie Maxwell and Gus Zernial put it away with two out against reliever Johnny Kucks. Paul Foytack was the winner for a 7-7 record.

Right-hander Camilo Pascual had Boston blanked on two hits with two out in the ninth. Then singles by Vic Wertz and Frank Malzone sandwiched an error for an unearned run, leaving him with a four-hitter and a 7-7 record.

Norm Siebern and Gil McDougald homered for the Yankees, who had eight hits. Siebern's 10th came in the second inning, but Brown (5-3) then blanked the champs on one hit until successive singles by Yogi Berra, Bill Skowron and Hector Lopez made it 2-0 in the seventh. McDougald homered in the ninth against reliever Billy Loes.

Mickey Mantle returned to the New York lineup after a day's absence and played 7⅓ innings. He had two hits.

Little League Games Are Postponed By Rain

Rain postponed three games in the Little League Wednesday night. All Wednesday's games will be played next Tuesday at the same fields. The Millirons-Travelers contest postponed earlier this week will be played Friday at Myler Field.

Tonight the Millirons-Laughlins game set for Columbian Park has been moved to Thompson Park and will follow the Golden-Star Travelers game. The Golden Star-Travelers contest will get underway at 5:30. In one other game today Medics plays Burbicks at Myler Park.

Picks Up 1-0 Win With Five-Hitter

No doubt about it, long Gene Conley is the No. 1 contender for comeback of the year honors in the National League. And he's doing it the hard way—as a winning pitcher for Philadelphia's last-place Phillies.

The 6-foot-8 right-hander, who couldn't win a game last season for pennant-winning Milwaukee, underscored his selection to the All-Star staff by pitching his second shutout Wednesday night, beating Pittsburgh 1-0 with a five-hitter.

It was the sixth victory in 10 decisions for Conley.

In the only other NL game, the Chicago Cubs defeated St. Louis 6-5. Milwaukee's game at Cincinnati was rained out, leaving the first-place Braves with a half-game edge over the San Francisco Giants.

In the American League, second-place Chicago trimmed Cleveland's lead to one game by beating the Indians 6-5. New York took third from Baltimore with a 4-0 victory over the Orioles. Fourth-place Detroit defeated Kansas City 5-4. Washington rapped Boston 4-1.

Conley walked but one and struck out eight while gaining his sixth complete game and lowering his earned run average to 2.80. Dick Groat had two of the Pirates' hits, all singles.

The Phils had six hits, using just one to score in the third inning against loser Ron Kline (6-6). Joe Koppe walked, stole second and came home on Richie Ashburn's single.

The Cubs overhauled a 5-1 Cardinal lead with four runs in the eighth, then won it in the ninth when Ernie Banks singled, moved up on an infield out and scored on Bobby Thomson's single. Don Elston (5-1) was the winner after a perfect relief job in the ninth. Lindy McDaniel (6-9) lost it in relief after giving up a two-run single by Al Dark that capped the Cubs' comeback in the eighth inning.

Big 10 Favors Cagers On TV

VIRGINIA BEACH, Va. (AP)—The National Assn. of Collegiate Commissioners has been told that experiences with live telecasting of afternoon basketball games varied considerably.

"In the Big Ten our afternoon telecasts in basketball proved successful," Big Ten Commissioner Tug Wilson told the group's opening meeting Wednesday. Wilson, president of the organization added:

"We had a 13-game TV program under good sponsorship. The program was so successful that several of the schools are going to play all of their home basketball schedule in the afternoon next season."

On the other hand, Jim Weaver, Coast Conference, reported a drop in attendance at most basketball games that were televised in the ACC last season.

The ACC has dropped regional basketball telecasts next season, but Weaver indicated several of the member schools may try it on their own.

The meeting runs through July 7.

Clinton Track Sets Features For Weekend

The Greater Pittsburgh Speedway at Clinton, Pa., will be busy this weekend with racing programs set Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Friday night's card will have two 24-lap super modified feature events and a special 20-lap feature for the hard top division.

On Saturday night, midget racers will take the track highlighted by a 50-lap championship race.

A fire works display will also be presented.

Time trials for Friday and Saturday's program will start at 7:30 with the first race at 8:30.

Waterford Awaits Holiday

$5,000 Handicap Heads 14-Race Card Saturday

The $5,000 Independence Day Handicap will feature a 14-race program Saturday, July 4, at Waterford Park.

The top thoroughbreds at Waterford Park will be seen in the richest race of the summer meeting. Ournav, owned by Ken McLaughlin from the Middlewest, has arrived at Waterford to take part in Saturday's race.

The Independence Day 'Cap also will draw Snoozie, Black Eye, Miss Nubbin and others.

Gates at Waterford Park will open at 9 in the morning and post time for the first race will be 10:30. There will be a daily double on the first and second races and five events in all throughout the morning.

After an hour and half intermission for luncheon, racing will be resumed at 2 p. m., with a nine-race card on tap.

On Monday, Waterford Park will present "Own-A-Horse-Day" when the 6-year-old mare Galla Ator will be given away free.

Tuesday, post time for the first race will be at 4:15 for the only afternoon of twilight racing. The races are being run later because of the All-Star baseball game in Pittsburgh.

American League Squad Complete With Williams

BOSTON, Mass. (AP) — The American League announced its All-Star squad today and the name of Ted Williams was on the roster—for the 15th time.

Williams was not selected by his fellow players on the basis of performance.

But Casey Stengel, who will manage the AL Stars, said through Joe Cronin, league president: "If you hadta look down the bench for someone to hit forya, who'd ya like t'have?"

Stengel's decision to select Williams came two days after Fred Haney selected Stan Musial, veteran star of the St. Louis Cardinals, who, like Williams, is having a rough year.

Haney, Milwaukee manager, will pilot the NL Stars in the interleague match of baseball's best July 7 at Pittsburgh.

Williams, although hitless in the 1957 and 1958 All-Star games, has compiled a .317 average in the 14 years he played on the American League team. He has hit four homers and driven in a dozen runs.

Williams will replace Jim Lemon of Washington in the second-line outfield, which also includes Mickey Mantle of New York and Harvey Kuenn of Detroit.

Stengel made one other change. He named Gil McDougald of the Yankees as an infielder in place of Rocky Bridges, runner-up for shortstop.

Stengel explained through Cronin: "McDougald gives me three players, you could say. I can use use him at any of three positions."

As pitchers, the manager's prerogative, Stengel selected Jim Bunning of the Detroit Tigers, Bud Daley of the Kansas City Athletics, Ryne Duren and Whitey Ford of the Yankees, Billy Pierce and Early Wynn of the Chicago White Sox, and Hoyt Wilheim of the Baltimore Orioles.

The team selected by the players has Bill Skowron of the Yankees at first, Nelson Fox and Luis Aparicio of the White Sox at second and short, Washington's Harmon Killibrew at third, and Rocky Colavito and Minnie Minoso of the Cleveland Indians, and Al Kaline of the Tigers in the outfield and Gus Triandos of the Orioles catching.

Stengel added Yogi Berra, Yankees, and Sherm Lollar, White Sox, as catchers. Lollar was runner-up in the player poll to Triandos.

Stengel Hints Wilhelm For Starting Job

BALTIMORE (AP)—Casey Stengel hasn't named the starting pitcher for the American League in the All-Star game next week at Pittsburgh but he hinted broadly Wednesday night that it would be Hoyt Wilhelm.

After the Yankees beat the Orioles 4-0, Stengel was asked the topic of his long pre-game conversation with Oriole catcher Gus Triandos at home plate.

"I told him that I was happy to have him on my All-Star team again," the Yankee manager replied.

"And I told him he was going to get a chance to catch a fella he was very close to. . ."

Still there was no mention of Wilhelm, Baltimore's master of the knuckleball. But Stengel indicated that in selecting a starting pitcher he must take into consideration the feelings of Yogi Berra, Yankee catcher named to the All-Star squad by his manager.

Berra it seems, is not anxious for the assignment of batting down Wilhelm's elusive knuckler.

"Mr. Berra wants him (Wilhelm) to pitch first," Stengel said.

Toronto Leaves Loop Cellar With Double Victory

By The Associated Press

The Toronto Maple Leafs refuse to look behind today as they continue a battle upward in the International League.

The Leafs delighted a Dominion Day Crowd of 6,525 at Toronto with 5-1 and 4-3 victories over the Vees, who fell from second to third place.

Conley Backs Up Selection To All-Stars By Blanking Bucs

Chisox Stave Off Tribe's Late Bid

CLEVELAND (AP) — If the tradition that the team in first place on the Fourth of July wins the pennant holds true, this may be the year for the Cleveland Indians to win the American League flag.

The Indians hold first place as they start a road trip in which they play five games before the break in the schedule for the all-star game. They have a good chance of being on top when Independence Day rolls around Saturday.

The Indians' lead was cut to one game by a 6-5 loss to the second-place Chicago White Sox Wednesday night.

They start their road trip tonight in Kansas City against the seventh-place Athletics. Gary Bell (6-7) will pitch for the Indians. He will be opposed by Ray Herbert (4-7).

Herb Score will pitch the finale in Kansas City Friday and then the Indians will go to Detroit for three games with the Tigers, including a doubleheader Saturday.

A walk, a stolen base, a bunt and a sacrifice fly proved the margin of difference Wednesday night. Luis Aparicio made the trek around the bases in that fashion in the ninth inning, scoring the deciding run.

The White Sox held off a Cleveland rally in the bottom of the ninth, when Woodie Held hit his 15th home run of the season with a man on base.

Chicago reliefer Turk Lown then retired Vic Power, Tito Francona and Rocky Colavito to put down the uprising. Francona had hit a home run in the sixth inning, his eighth of the season.

George Strickland gave the Indians a 2-0 lead in the first inning when he hit a single with the bases loaded. The White Sox bounced back with three runs in the second and never were headed.

The victory went to starter Barry Latman, his second against two losses. The loser was Jim Grant, now 5 and 4.

Terry Pitches Four-Hitter To Blank Orioles

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

If somebody's going to grab the American League pennant from those New York Yankees, the rest of the clubs better stop squabbling over who is to do it.

Take Cleveland and Chicago, the two most likely to succeed. The White Sox dropped the Yankees to fifth last Sunday with a three-game punch. But while they scuffled through two games with the Indians, the Yankees jumped back to third.

The second-place White Sox split the series at Cleveland with a 6-5 victory Wednesday night, cutting the Indians' first-place edge to one game. More important, it also trimmed the Indians' lead to three games over the Yankees, who beat Baltimore 4-0 behind the four-hit pitching of Ralph Terry.

In the National League, the Chicago Cubs defeated St. Louis 6-5, and Philadelphia beat Pittsburgh 1-0 on the five-hit pitching of Gene Conley.

The White Sox won on Jim Landis' ninth-inning sacrifice fly and a clutch relief job from Turk Lown. Woody Held's two-run homer, his 15th, chased Gerry Staley, second Sox pitcher, in the ninth, but Lown then retired the side. That saved it for starter Barry Latman (2-2).

Terry (3-5), reacquired by the Yankees from the A's May 26, walked only one and struck out six for his first victory and complete game since May 3. Billy Gardner doubled and singled for half of Baltimore's hits. Hec Brown lost it.

The Tigers beat Ned Garver (6-7) with a four-run seventh. Eddie Yost's single broke a 1-1 tie, and a double by Harvey Kuenn and singles by Charlie Maxwell and Gus Zernial put it away with two out against reliever Johnny Kucks. Paul Foytack was the winner for a 7-7 record.

Right-hander Camilo Pascual had Boston blanked on two hits with two out in the ninth. Then singles by Vic Wertz and Frank Malzone sandwiched an error for an unearned run, leaving him with a four-hitter and a 7-7 record.

Norm Siebern and Gil McDougald homered for the Yankees, who had eight hits. Siebern's 10th came in the second inning, but Brown (5-3) then blanked the champs on one hit until successive singles by Yogi Berra, Bill Skowron and Hector Lopez made it 2-0 in the seventh. McDougald homered in the ninth against reliever Billy Loes.

Mickey Mantle returned to the New York lineup after a day's absence and played 7⅓ innings. He had two hits.

"In the Big Ten our afternoon telecasts in basketball proved successful," Big Ten Commissioner Tug Wilson told the group's opening meeting Wednesday. Wilson, president of the organization added:

"We had a 13-game TV program under good sponsorship. The program was so successful that several of the schools are going to play all of their home basketball schedule in the afternoon next season."

On the other hand, Jim Weaver, Coast Conference, reported a drop in attendance at most basketball games that were televised in the ACC last season.

The ACC has dropped regional basketball telecasts next season, but Weaver indicated several of the member schools may try it on their own.

The meeting runs through July 7.

Clinton Track Sets Features For Weekend

The Greater Pittsburgh Speedway at Clinton, Pa., will be busy this weekend with racing programs set Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Friday night's card will have two 24-lap super modified feature events and a special 20-lap feature for the hard top division.

On Saturday night, midget racers will take the track highlighted by a 50-lap championship race.

A fire works display will also be presented.

Time trials for Friday and Saturday's program will start at 7:30 with the first race at 8:30.

American League Squad Complete With Williams

BOSTON, Mass. (AP) — The American League announced its All-Star squad today and the name of Ted Williams was on the roster—for the 15th time.

Williams was not selected by his fellow players on the basis of performance.

But Casey Stengel, who will manage the AL Stars, said through Joe Cronin, league president: "If you hadta look down the bench for someone to hit forya, who'd ya like t'have?"

Stengel's decision to select Williams came two days after Fred Haney selected Stan Musial, veteran star of the St. Louis Cardinals, who, like Williams, is having a rough year.

Haney, Milwaukee manager, will pilot the NL Stars in the interleague match of baseball's best July 7 at Pittsburgh.

Williams, although hitless in the 1957 and 1958 All-Star games, has compiled a .317 average in the 14 years he played on the American League team. He has hit four homers and driven in a dozen runs.

Williams will replace Jim Lemon of Washington in the second-line outfield, which also includes Mickey Mantle of New York and Harvey Kuenn of Detroit.

Stengel made one other change. He named Gil McDougald of the Yankees as an infielder in place of Rocky Bridges, runner-up for shortstop.

Stengel explained through Cronin: "McDougald gives me three players, you could say. I can use use him at any of three positions."

As pitchers, the manager's prerogative, Stengel selected Jim Bunning of the Detroit Tigers, Bud Daley of the Kansas City Athletics, Ryne Duren and Whitey Ford of the Yankees, Billy Pierce and Early Wynn of the Chicago White Sox, and Hoyt Wilheim of the Baltimore Orioles.

The team selected by the players has Bill Skowron of the Yankees at first, Nelson Fox and Luis Aparicio of the White Sox at second and short, Washington's Harmon Killibrew at third, and Rocky Colavito and Minnie Minoso of the Cleveland Indians, and Al Kaline of the Tigers in the outfield and Gus Triandos of the Orioles catching.

Stengel added Yogi Berra, Yankees, and Sherm Lollar, White Sox, as catchers. Lollar was runner-up in the player poll to Triandos.

Waterford Awaits Holiday

$5,000 Handicap Heads 14-Race Card Saturday

The $5,000 Independence Day Handicap will feature a 14-race program Saturday, July 4, at Waterford Park.

The top thoroughbreds at Waterford Park will be seen in the richest race of the summer meeting. Ournav, owned by Ken McLaughlin from the Middlewest, has arrived at Waterford to take part in Saturday's race.

The Independence Day 'Cap also will draw Snoozie, Black Eye, Miss Nubbin and others.

Gates at Waterford Park will open at 9 in the morning and post time for the first race will be 10:30. There will be a daily double on the first and second races and five events in all throughout the morning.

After an hour and half intermission for luncheon, racing will be resumed at 2 p. m., with a nine-race card on tap.

On Monday, Waterford Park will present "Own-A-Horse-Day" when the 6-year-old mare Galla Ator will be given away free.

Tuesday, post time for the first race will be at 4:15 for the only afternoon of twilight racing. The races are being run later because of the All-Star baseball game in Pittsburgh.

Stengel Hints Wilhelm For Starting Job

BALTIMORE (AP)—Casey Stengel hasn't named the starting pitcher for the American League in the All-Star game next week at Pittsburgh but he hinted broadly Wednesday night that it would be Hoyt Wilhelm.

After the Yankees beat the Orioles 4-0, Stengel was asked the topic of his long pre-game conversation with Oriole catcher Gus Triandos at home plate.

"I told him that I was happy to have him on my All-Star team again," the Yankee manager replied.

"And I told him he was going to get a chance to catch a fella he was very close to. . ."

Still there was no mention of Wilhelm, Baltimore's master of the knuckleball. But Stengel indicated that in selecting a starting pitcher he must take into consideration the feelings of Yogi Berra, Yankee catcher named to the All-Star squad by his manager.

Berra it seems, is not anxious for the assignment of batting down Wilhelm's elusive knuckler.

"Mr. Berra wants him (Wilhelm) to pitch first," Stengel said. "So I have assured Mr. Berra that his good friend, Gus, is going to get that dirty job."

Toronto Leaves Loop Cellar With Double Victory

By The Associated Press

The Toronto Maple Leafs refuse to look behind today as they continue a battle upward in the International League.

The Leafs delighted a Dominion Day Crowd of 6,525 at Toronto with 5-1 and 4-3 victories over the Vees, who fell from second to third place.

Stitch Pads Rating With TKO In First

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Rudell Stitch has strengthened his No. 2 welterweight contender ranking with a first-round technical knockout of unranked Rudy Sawyer.

Stitch, a Presbyterian church elder here, floored his New York opponent three times in the 2 minutes and 15 seconds of the nationally televised fight Wednesday night.

FIELD AND STREAM

By R. L. LIDE

Now comes the time of the year we have looked forward to since the first sign of spring—vacation time.

Some have left already, doing the things they want to do before hot weather sets in. Many have been waiting until the first of July when muskie fishing opens up in Canada.

I think the majority of fishermen in this section plan to land in Canada shortly when any kind of fish can be taken.

It is only about 12 hours drive from here to where the muskie fishing begins if you want to stop in the vicinity of Buckhorn or Rice Lakes.

THE PLACE I prefer is above Capreol, which is as far as you can drive a car. Then take the "mix", which is a combination freight and passenger train, load up the equipment and have it dumped off at Laforest. There is nothing there but a water tower and a station agent.

Actually they are a nuisance in these waters. Only other fish we go after are walleyes called pickerel in Canada. Then comes the smallmouth bass and lake trout.

Primarily we eat lake trout and you have to fish 100 to 200 feet deep to catch them this time of the year.

One fish is sufficient to feed three big eaters per day and we roast them on an open fire. Absolutely no good fried, too oily.

THE REST OF the day we put in catching and releasing fish or just lie around in camp taking it easy. All fishing and trolling is done by canoe and a single horsepower motor.

There are moose in this vicinity and some bears that are not too afraid of people. As a result, we have an established camp on a little island about a half-mile off shore.

Our camp is a lean-to. We take along a couple of blankets and make our beds out of fern tops which grow in abundance up there.

The first thing I do on arrival is prepare my bed. This takes about two hours in gathering fern tops. I pile them up about 4 feet high and then they pack down to about 10 inches of comfort, just like sleeping at home.

Fish don't know about lures or people up there. They bite any kind of a lure, although the lake trout go for a red eye spoon either gold or silver in color.

MOST FISHERMEN use a copper line to get down where it is deep, but I use my regular casting line and tie a heavy sinker about 2 feet above the lure and I catch as many as the rest of the guys. Actually, with nothing more to do, I made a spinner out of the inside of a tin can, weighted it with lead, bent the corners so it would spin and attached a set of gang hooks on the end and went about catching trout for trout with the two other fellows. One thing you have to learn in this section is where the deep water lies, where the walleyes feed and what part of the lake to take smallmouths. Otherwise you may fish all day and not catch anything but northern pike, which the natives call "snakes".

We had all this information beforehand because my two fishing companions had been going up there for several years and knew the lake, or I should have said the chain of lakes.

I'll have to quit now. If I gave out any more information about this fisherman's paradise they would shoot me.

Laver Defeats U.S. Net Star At Wimbledon

WIMBLEDON, England (AP)—Rod Laver, the red-haired southpaw from Australia was within one step of the peak of the Wimbledon tennis world today after clouting a glorious, unseeded path to the finals of the men's singles championship.

Laver did it with the help of a wristy forehand that finally unsettled America's Barry MacKay in an epic, 87-game semifinal Wednesday.

The 20-year-old Aussie thus became the first unseeded player to reach the men's singles final since Kurt Nielsen of Denmark did it in 1955.

Laver's forehand could spell trouble for the United States in future Davis Cup matches.

The 5-foot-8 inch Aussie took 3¾ hours of thrills and spills to defeat the 6-4 MacKay, 11-13, 11-9, 10-8, 7-9, 6-3.

Olmedo reached the finals by blasting another Aussie, Roy Emerson, 6-4, 6-0, 6-4.

29 Set To Tee Off In Ladies' PGA Play

FRENCH LICK, Ind. (AP) — Twenty-nine women pros set out in pleasantly cool weather today for the opening round of the Ladies PGA golf championship.

Louise Suggs of Sea Island, Ga. won here last year and figured to be hard to beat in the 72-hole medal play event running through Sunday.

May Replace Thomas

Willie Jones Joins Reds

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — With the purchase of Willie "Puddin' Head" Jones, the National League's third - sacker - fielding champ for five years, it began to look today as if the Cincinnati Reds had about given up on Frank Thomas, late fence-buster of Pittsburgh.

Jones, who led the league in fielding in 1953, 1954, 1955, 1956 and 1958—and was on the all-star teams of 1950 and 1951—was due to don a Reds' uniform as the Reds meet the Phils in a twi-night double-header tonight, after a rain out of Wednesday night's game with Milwaukee, back in Cincinnati.

Just what's ahead for Thomas was uncertain. It may be a place in the outfield for the man who last year hit 25 home runs for Pittsburgh.

Thomas so far has hit only four round-trippers for Cincinnati—less than half as many as Roy McMillan had racked up at the time he was forced to the sideline by a hand-injury two weeks ago. McMillan, who hit one homer all of last year, had hammered out nine circuit blows to that time.

Jones played with the Phils last year, hitting 14 home runs and driving in 60 of his mates. He was the Phils' regular third-sacker this year until June 5 when he was sent to Cleveland for outfielder Jim Bolger and cash.

To make way for him, the Reds optioned rookie shortstop Bobby Henrich to Seattle of the Pacific Coast League.

Pitchers tonight will be Jim O'Toole (0-2) and Don Newcombe, Cincinnati's winningest hurler (8-4) against Jim Owens (4-6) and Ruben Gomez (1-5).

NBA Selects Johansson As Top Fighter

MILWAUKEE (AP)— Sweden's Ingemar Johansson, the heavyweight champion, was honored today by the National Boxing Assn. as the boxer-of-the-month of June.

The salute was announced less than a week after Johansson's upset victory over Floyd Patterson in the third round last Friday. Patterson was listed as the No. 1 contender in the NBA's July ratings.

With the crown won by a non-American born boxer for the first time since Primo Carnera owned it in 1933-34, three other non-U.S. fighters were listed among the top 10 contenders. They are all Englishmen: Henry Cooper, rated second; Brian London, ninth, and Joe Erskine, tenth.

NBA Secretary Fred Saddy, of Milwaukee, said that by order of the association's executive board, Ray Robinson, New York, was restored to the middleweight ratings, without a champion as far as the NBA is concerned.

Robinson was listed as third behind Carmen Basilio, Conastota, N.Y., and Gene Fullmer, West Jordan, Utah, who have agreed to meet for the NBA title. Basilio was listed as first, Fullmer second.

Argentinian Eyes British Golf Title

MUIRFIELD, Scotland (AP)—Antonio Cerda, a powerful Argentinian, has one big ambition, to become the first South American to win the British Open golf championship.

"And I think this is going to be my year," he said today as he started the second round of the 72-hole championship only one stroke behind the leaders.

"This is my eleventh try. I was in sixth place or better from 1951 to 1956."

Cerda shot a 33-36—69 Wednesday to finish one stroke behind leaders Fred Bullock and Arnold Stickley, two little-known English professionals, who led the field of 90 with 68s.

The four American players faced a hard task to get into the maximum of 50 players for the lst two rounds Friday. John Garrett, Houston, Tex., was best placed with a 76. Bob Sweeny, Palm Beach, Fla., and Willie Goggin, San Jose, Calif., had 78s; and Bob Watson, Ardsley-on-Hudson, N.Y. had 82.

Actually they are a nuisance in these waters. Only other fish we go after are walleyes called pickerel in Canada. Then comes the smallmouth bass and lake trout.

Primarily we eat lake trout and you have to fish 100 to 200 feet deep to catch them this time of the year.

One fish is sufficient to feed three big eaters per day and we roast them on an open fire. Absolutely no good fried, too oily.

THE REST OF the day we put in catching and releasing fish or just lie around in camp taking it easy. All fishing and trolling is done by canoe and a single horsepower motor.

There are moose in this vicinity and some bears that are not too afraid of people. As a result, we have an established camp on a little island about a half-mile off shore.

Our camp is a lean-to. We take along a couple of blankets and make our beds out of fern tops which grow in abundance up there.

The first thing I do on arrival is prepare my bed. This takes about two hours in gathering fern tops. I pile them up about 4 feet high and then they pack down to about 10 inches of comfort, just like sleeping at home.

Fish don't know about lures or people up there. They bite any kind of a lure, although the lake trout go for a red eye spoon either gold or silver in color.

MOST FISHERMEN use a copper line to get down where it is deep, but I use my regular casting line and tie a heavy sinker about 2 feet above the lure and I catch as many as the rest of the guys. Actually, with nothing more to do, I made a spinner out of the inside of a tin can, weighted it with lead, bent the corners so it would spin and attached a set of gang hooks on the end and went about catching trout for trout with the two other fellows. One thing you have to learn in this section is where the deep water lies, where the walleyes feed and what part of the lake to take smallmouths. Otherwise you may fish all day and not catch anything but northern pike, which the natives call "snakes".

We had all this information beforehand because my two fishing companions had been going up there for several years and knew the lake, or I should have said the chain of lakes.

I'll have to quit now. If I gave out any more information about this fisherman's paradise they would shoot me.

Laver Defeats U.S. Net Star At Wimbledon

WIMBLEDON, England (AP)—Rod Laver, the red-haired southpaw from Australia was within one step of the peak of the Wimbledon tennis world today after clouting a glorious, unseeded path to the finals of the men's singles championship.

Laver did it with the help of a wristy forehand that finally unsettled America's Barry MacKay in an epic, 87-game semifinal Wednesday.

The 20-year-old Aussie thus became the first unseeded player to reach the men's singles final since Kurt Nielsen of Denmark did it in 1955.

Laver's forehand could spell trouble for the United States in future Davis Cup matches.

The 5-foot-8 inch Aussie took 3¾ hours of thrills and spills to defeat the 6-4 MacKay, 11-13, 11-9, 10-8, 7-9, 6-3.

Olmedo reached the finals by blasting another Aussie, Roy Emerson, 6-4, 6-0, 6-4.

29 Set To Tee Off In Ladies' PGA Play

FRENCH LICK, Ind. (AP) — Twenty-nine women pros set out in pleasantly cool weather today for the opening round of the Ladies PGA golf championship.

Louise Suggs of Sea Island, Ga. won here last year and figured to be hard to beat in the 72-hole medal play event running through Sunday.

Packers Sign Two

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP)—The Green Bay Packers announced today that two more football players drafted for their National Football League professional team had signed contracts. They are tackle Gary Raid, of Willamette College, Salem, Ore., and guard Larry Hall of Missouri Valley College, Marshall, Mo.

May Replace Thomas

Willie Jones Joins Reds

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — With the purchase of Willie "Puddin' Head" Jones, the National League's third - sacker - fielding champ for five years, it began to look today as if the Cincinnati Reds had about given up on Frank Thomas, late fence-buster of Pittsburgh.

Jones, who led the league in fielding in 1953, 1954, 1955, 1956 and 1958—and was on the all-star teams of 1950 and 1951—was due to don a Reds' uniform as the Reds meet the Phils in a twi-night double-header tonight, after a rain out of Wednesday night's game with Milwaukee, back in Cincinnati.

Just what's ahead for Thomas was uncertain. It may be a place in the outfield for the man who last year hit 25 home runs for Pittsburgh.

Thomas so far has hit only four round-trippers for Cincinnati—less than half as many as Roy McMillan had racked up at the time he was forced to the sideline by a hand-injury two weeks ago. McMillan, who hit one homer all of last year, had hammered out nine circuit blows to that time.

Jones played with the Phils last year, hitting 14 home runs and driving in 60 of his mates. He was the Phils' regular third-sacker this year until June 5 when he was sent to Cleveland for outfielder Jim Bolger and cash.

To make way for him, the Reds optioned rookie shortstop Bobby Henrich to Seattle of the Pacific Coast League.

Pitchers tonight will be Jim O'Toole (0-2) and Don Newcombe, Cincinnati's winningest hurler (8-4) against Jim Owens (4-6) and Ruben Gomez (1-5).

NBA Selects Johansson As Top Fighter

MILWAUKEE (AP)— Sweden's Ingemar Johansson, the heavyweight champion, was honored today by the National Boxing Assn. as the boxer-of-the-month of June.

The salute was announced less than a week after Johansson's upset victory over Floyd Patterson in the third round last Friday. Patterson was listed as the No. 1 contender in the NBA's July ratings.

With the crown won by a non-American born boxer for the first time since Primo Carnera owned it in 1933-34, three other non-U.S. fighters were listed among the top 10 contenders. They are all Englishmen: Henry Cooper, rated second; Brian London, ninth, and Joe Erskine, tenth.

NBA Secretary Fred Saddy, of Milwaukee, said that by order of the association's executive board, Ray Robinson, New York, was restored to the middleweight ratings, without a champion as far as the NBA is concerned.

Robinson was listed as third behind Carmen Basilio, Conastota, N.Y., and Gene Fullmer, West Jordan, Utah, who have agreed to meet for the NBA title. Basilio was listed as first, Fullmer second.

Argentinian Eyes British Golf Title

MUIRFIELD, Scotland (AP)—Antonio Cerda, a powerful Argentinian, has one big ambition, to become the first South American to win the British Open golf championship.

"And I think this is going to be my year," he said today as he started the second round of the 72-hole championship only one stroke behind the leaders.

"This is my eleventh try. I was in sixth place or better from 1951 to 1956."

Cerda shot a 33-36—69 Wednesday to finish one stroke behind leaders Fred Bullock and Arnold Stickley, two little-known English professionals, who led the field of 90 with 68s.

The four American players faced a hard task to get into the maximum of 50 players for the lst two rounds Friday. John Garrett, Houston, Tex., was best placed with a 76. Bob Sweeny, Palm Beach, Fla., and Willie Goggin, San Jose, Calif., had 78s; and Bob Watson, Ardsley-on-Hudson, N.Y. had 82.

'Perry Mason' Makes Speeches

It often is said about Raymond Burr that he lives his roles. And now it's to be believed! Proof came the other day when Burr, the omniscient "Perry Mason" of TV, was the subject of deprecating remarks by a North Carolina judge, who declined an invitation to hear the actor speak at the bar association convention at Blowing Rock.

Marie Torre

The Mason program, said the judge, "has done more to reflect upon and discredit the administration of justice and the proper conduct of lawyers than any program I know of. Instead of inviting such a personage, the association should adopt a reservation of censure to the systems which carry the program."

IT WAS A BLOW that could have ruffled any well-intentioned actor. But Burr, who portrays the lawyer-investigator as the symbol of cool headedness, took the matter in Mason-like stride.

"Politics!" was the cryptic way in which he dismissed the judge's invective. "This sort of thing has happened before, probably a dozen times in two years, and each time I find myself in the middle of a political situation.

"It doesn't bother me. For every bad thing that's said about our show, there are 99 good things said about it — and by people who count."

He was referring, no doubt, to the groups that had invited him to impart wisdom through speech making. During the last three months he has given 25 talks, most of them before law groups and law students. He is no less serious about these than he is about his performances.

"I FEEL it's my duty to accept these engagements," said Burr, who manages these appearances while fulfilling a television schedule that would drive most actors into motion pictures.

"It's tough to allow the time for these talks, but I'd hate myself if I didn't.

"What do I talk about? Lots of things — mainly TV's responsibility to the public and the bar. Our show does nothing that doesn't uphold the dignity of the court, and this is recognized by the authorities.

"As for the lay public, they're getting the message. All over the country there is more knowledge of courtroom procedure and less fear of courts. All over the country juries are taking longer to decide verdicts, which is as it should be, even though it costs the taxpayers money. Let's not make snap judgments about people's lives."

Burr offered one more indication that he is "living" the Perry Mason role. He is studying law on the side.

"And one day," Burr added reflectively, "I'm going to take the bar examination — not to practice law, but to know all about the law."

We shudder to think what might have happened, incidentally, if television had done what the movies did for many years — cast Burr as the heavy.

THE LATEST prediction about pay-TV comes from movie mogul Samuel Goldwyn, who says the toll system will be "put over within the next two years." . . .

NBC's Chet Huntley leaves today for Africa to film the first of two one-hour specials on African nationalism. . . .

The "Colgate Western Theater" to be launched on NBC Friday is a cover-up for re-runs. The collection will include Western episodes from various series, the first one being James Stewart in "The Windmill." . . .

When Jimmy Durante shows up on NBC next season he will be heading his first television show in three years — and what kept him away so long?

2 Science Teachers Accepted At Institute

Two district science teachers have been accepted for a free in-service institute for junior and senior high school science teachers at Bethany College during the 1959-60 school year under the sponsorship of the National Science Foundation.

Michael J. Mato of Wellsville High School and Ernest Pletcher of East Junior High School will attend the classes, which will begin Sept. 12. Membership is limited to 15 in each of the two fields of chemistry and physics.

The institute will meet every Saturday between 10 a. m. and noon. Thirteen from the tri-state area have been enrolled and applications still are being accepted, according to Dr. Jon Daniel Draper, head of the Bethany chemistry department and director of the institute. To be eligible, the teacher must be a science instructor in either junior or senior high school, either private or public.

Seamen Defy Work Order

CLEVELAND (AP)—Unlicensed seamen continued their strike against 12 ore shipping companies today in defiance of a back-to-work order from the United Steelworkers Union.

The strike of 3,700 seamen on 137 Great Lakes vessels was called by USW Local 5000 after their contract expired at midnight Tuesday.

About 20 giant ore carriers were tied up in Great Lakes ports today and a union spokesman said more than 100 will be laid up by the weekend if the walkout lasts.

A two-week extension of their contract to July 14 was rejected by officials of Local 5000. Such an extension was agreed to last Saturday in the basic steel industry negotiations.

Officials of the local said the local was not a party to the contract extension.

In New York, a USW spokesman said the seamen are covered by the extension and have been ordered back to work.

The U. S. Steel Corp. said the seamen's strike forced the closing of its Mesabi iron mines Wednesday night, involving the laying off of 4,300 employes.

The company said that as lake carrier movements slowed, ore-laden railroad cars backed up at the docks and for that reason the mines could not continue operating.

Rockefeller Grants Keith 11th Hour Stay

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — Gov. Nelson Rockefeller granted an 11th hour stay of execution Wednesday night to Leroy Keith "in order to dispel any possible misunderstanding."

The governor said there were erroneous reports that Keith's execution had been moved up one day because of the July 4 holiday.

Keith, 50-year-old Negro, was to have been executed in the Sing Sing Prison electric chair Wednesday night for the slaying of a Taxicab driver in the Bronx Dec. 19, 1956.

The victim, David Suro, 49, of Jersey City, N. J., was the father of six children. Police said Keith wanted his cab to use in a holdup.

The governor said that the execution date was set by the Sing Sing warden early in June and, contrary to some reports, never was advanced.

"In capital cases," the governor said, "it is most important that there be no misunderstanding as to the circumstances of carrying out the sentence."

The governor did not say where the reports originated.

The stay was the second for Keith. On April 31, only 11 hours before he was to be executed, a U.S. Supreme Court justice granted a stay to permit time for an appeal. The appeal was unsuccessful.

Road Mishaps Claim 5 In Texas Family

BRENHAM, Tex. (AP)—In just a few months accidental death on the highways has claimed five members of the Raymond Parr family.

Wednesday, Jackie Parr, 17, died of injuries received June 21 in a motorcycle crash.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Parr, and two young brothers died in a fiery collision of an automobile and pickup truck near Lamarque, Tex., last October.

On Highways Over July 4

Safety Council Hopes Its Fatality Estimate Wrong

CHICAGO (AP)—The National Safety Council is one group of experts which hopes its predictions are 100 per cent wrong.

Among its tasks in the field of safety, the 47-year-old organization includes estimating the nation's traffic death toll on major holidays.

For the July 4 weekend the council estimates 350 persons will die in traffic accidents and 13,000 others will suffer disabling injuries.

"But our goal is no accidents at all," says an NSC spokesman.

"All we are doing is telling people there is extra traffic, extra danger and therefore, extra accidents, and we are asking them to be extra careful."

Using mass communication media—newspapers, radio, television—the council pounds at the populace urging them to be careful.

Has it been successful?

The council spokesman said definitely yes. "Who can say what the toll would be if this were not done?" he asked.

Still, the final tolls usually come close to NSC estimates.

Holiday estimates are based on a complicated formula applied to previous records for these holidays, current traffic volume trends, current toll trends, nature and length of the holiday and finally, the weather.

The council was formed in Milwaukee in 1912 at a safety session of a steel industry convention. Now its Chicago headquarters has a staff of 350 statisticians, writers, artists and traffic and industrial engineers. More than 300 other councils are affiliated in some way.

The council operates on a 5½-million-dollar budget, nine - tenths of it supplied from membership fees paid by industrial concerns and from the sale of its posters, films data sheets and technical information.

The council also publishes 13 national magazines with a circulation totaling more than 1¼ million.

The rest of its money comes from contributions.

Stabbed To Death

DETROIT, Mich. (AP) — A young woman was stabbed to death on a city street Wednesday night, second slaying of its kind within six weeks. Police identified the victim as Lorraine Sharon Smentowski, 20. She was found dying on a lawn with 16 stab wounds in her chest, back and arms.

Backers Fight Loans Defeat

WASHINGTON (AP)— Supporters of indirect financing for foreign development loans battled today to reverse a stunning 48-42 setback in the Senate.

The issue was whether the loans should be provided through borrowing from the Treasury, as the Senate Foreign Relations Committee recommended, or through direct appropriations, as President Eisenhower has asked. There was disagreement also over the size of the loan program.

Sen. Francis Case (R-SD) raised a point of order that an authorization for direct Treasury borrowing had the effect of appropriating money in a legislative bill. He contended that was improper in the foreign aid bill under consideration.

Case ran into stiff opposition from other senators who contended that if his point were upheld, it could be raised also against housing, rural electrification, farm subsidy and other programs also financed without direct appropriations.

But backers of Eisenhower — supported by Democratic opponents of foreign aid spending — defeated a motion to kill the point of order when Case appealed a parliamentary ruling against him.

The Senate votes today directly on the point Case raised. If sustained, it would scuttle the five-year, five-billion-dollar program of development loans the committee proposed to provide direct from the Treasury.

Legal Profession Seen 'Chronically Slow'

ASHEVILLE, N.C. (AP) — U.S. Atty. Gen. William P. Rogers says the great weakness of the legal profession is that it is chronically slow.

In an address Wednesday, Rogers said, "The public can't understand why it takes so long to get a case tried."

He chided lawyers for having done what he called a bad job on the picture they have given the public of the administration of justice.

Woman Dies When Her Car Runs Over Her

MULESHOE, Tex. (AP) — A west Texas woman died Wednesday when her car ran over her.

Mrs. M. D. Gaddy, about 55, had stopped at her rural mailbox. The car was left running and officers say the transmission apparently slipped into reverse.

WHAT DOCTORS SAY ABOUT:
LET'S HAVE A SAFE FOURTH
• Uremia • Burr Haircuts

From 1900 to 1930 more people were killed and injured celebrating our nation's independence than in the War of Independence itself. During the first thirty years of this century, fireworks killed 4,290 persons and severely injured 120,000. Revolutionary War victims numbered 4,044 killed and 6,000 wounded. Most states have control laws but illegal sale of fireworks is widespread. The biggest operators are professional bootleggers. Business is good. Illicit trade in firecrackers, Roman candles, skyrockets, cherry bombs and other dangerous fireworks has reached the highest level in years. We must all be alert to the many dangers still inherent in our manner of celebrating our national birthday. Let's all have a safe and sane Fourth of July.

Q. Could a severe case of diarrhea cause uremia and eventual death?—L.M.L

A. Continued severe diarrhea results in loss of body fluids, salts, and nutritional substances. Uremia (kidney failure) of some degree might also occur. A fatal outcome would be possible if the affected person was in poor condition, but the terminal illness would not necessarily be due to uremia alone unless it was quite marked and associated with kidney damage.

Q. Would repeated burr hair cuts help prevent baldness?

A. Short hair or the cutting of hair has no relationship to receding hair or the prevention of baldness.

'Perry Mason' Makes Speeches

It often is said about Raymond Burr that he lives his roles. And now it's to be believed! Proof came the other day when Burr, the omniscient "Perry Mason" of TV, was the subject of deprecating remarks by a North Carolina judge, who declined an invitation to hear the actor speak at the bar association convention at Blowing Rock.

Marie Torre

The Mason program, said the judge, "has done more to reflect upon and discredit the administration of justice and the proper conduct of lawyers than any program I know of. Instead of inviting such a personage, the association should adopt a reservation of censure to the systems which carry the program."

IT WAS A BLOW that could have ruffled any well-intentioned actor. But Burr, who portrays the lawyer-investigator as the symbol of cool headedness, took the matter in Mason-like stride.

"Politics!" was the cryptic way in which he dismissed the judge's invective. "This sort of thing has happened before, probably a dozen times in two years, and each time I find myself in the middle of a political situation.

"It doesn't bother me. For every bad thing that's said about our show, there are 99 good things said about it — and by people who count."

He was referring, no doubt, to the groups that had invited him to impart wisdom through speech making. During the last three months he has given 25 talks, most of them before law groups and law students. He is no less serious about these than he is about his performances.

"I FEEL it's my duty to accept these engagements," said Burr, who manages these appearances while fulfilling a television schedule that would drive most actors into motion pictures.

"It's tough to allow the time for these talks, but I'd hate myself if I didn't.

"What do I talk about? Lots of things — mainly TV's responsibility to the public and the bar. Our show does nothing that doesn't uphold the dignity of the court, and this is recognized by the authorities.

"As for the lay public, they're getting the message. All over the country there is more knowledge of courtroom procedure and less fear of courts. All over the country juries are taking longer to decide verdicts, which is as it should be, even though it costs the taxpayers money. Let's not make snap judgments about people's lives."

Burr offered one more indication that he is "living" the Perry Mason role. He is studying law on the side.

"And one day," Burr added reflectively, "I'm going to take the bar examination — not to practice law, but to know all about the law."

2 Science Teachers Accepted At Institute

Two district science teachers have been accepted for a free in-service institute for junior and senior high school science teachers at Bethany College during the 1959-60 school year under the sponsorship of the National Science Foundation.

Michael J. Mato of Wellsville High School and Ernest Pletcher of East Junior High School will attend the classes, which will begin Sept. 12. Membership is limited to 15 in each of the two fields of chemistry and physics.

The institute will meet every Saturday between 10 a. m. and noon. Thirteen from the tri-state area have been enrolled and applications still are being accepted, according to Dr. Jon Daniel Draper, head of the Bethany chemistry department and director of the institute. To be eligible, the teacher must be a science instructor in either junior or senior high school, either private or public.

Seamen Defy Work Order

CLEVELAND (AP)—Unlicensed seamen continued their strike against 12 ore shipping companies today in defiance of a back-to-work order from the United Steelworkers Union.

The strike of 3,700 seamen on 137 Great Lakes vessels was called by USW Local 5000 after their contract expired at midnight Tuesday.

About 20 giant ore carriers were tied up in Great Lakes ports today and a union spokesman said more than 100 will be laid up by the weekend if the walkout lasts.

A two-week extension of their contract to July 14 was rejected by officials of Local 5000. Such an extension was agreed to last Saturday in the basic steel industry negotiations.

Officials of the local said the local was not a party to the contract extension.

In New York, a USW spokesman said the seamen are covered by the extension and have been ordered back to work.

The U. S. Steel Corp. said the seamen's strike forced the closing of its Mesabi iron mines Wednesday night, involving the laying off of 4,300 employes.

The company said that as lake carrier movements slowed, ore-laden railroad cars backed up at the docks and for that reason the mines could not continue operating.

Rockefeller Grants Keith 11th Hour Stay

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — Gov. Nelson Rockefeller granted an 11th hour stay of execution Wednesday night to Leroy Keith "in order to dispel any possible misunderstanding."

The governor said there were erroneous reports that Keith's execution had been moved up one day because of the July 4 holiday.

Keith, 50-year-old Negro, was to have been executed in the Sing Sing Prison electric chair Wednesday night for the slaying of a Taxicab driver in the Bronx Dec. 19, 1956.

The victim, David Suro, 49, of Jersey City, N. J., was the father of six children. Police said Keith wanted his cab to use in a holdup.

The governor said that the execution date was set by the Sing Sing warden early in June and, contrary to some reports, never was advanced.

"In capital cases," the governor said, "it is most important that there be no misunderstanding as to the circumstances of carrying out the sentence."

The governor did not say where the reports originated.

The stay was the second for Keith. On April 31, only 11 hours before he was to be executed, a U.S. Supreme Court justice granted a stay to permit time for an appeal. The appeal was unsuccessful.

Road Mishaps Claim 5 In Texas Family

BRENHAM, Tex. (AP)—In just a few months accidental death on the highways has claimed five members of the Raymond Parr family.

Wednesday, Jackie Parr, 17, died of injuries received June 21 in a motorcycle crash.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Parr, and two young brothers died in a fiery collision of an automobile and pickup truck near Lamarque, Tex., last October.

Better Health Through Knowledge

LET'S HAVE A SAFE FOURTH

• Uremia • Burr Haircuts

From 1900 to 1930 more people were killed and injured celebrating our nation's independence than in the War of Independence itself. During the first thirty years of this century, fireworks killed 4,290 persons and severely injured 120,000. Revolutionary War victims numbered 4,044 killed and 6,000 wounded. Most states have control laws but illegal sale of fireworks is widespread. The biggest operators are professional bootleggers. Business is good. Illicit trade in firecrackers, Roman candles, skyrockets, cherry bombs and other dangerous fireworks has reached the highest level in years. We must all be alert to the many dangers still inherent in our manner of celebrating our national birthday. Let's all have a safe and sane Fourth of July.

A. Continued severe diarrhea results in loss of body fluids, salts, and nutritional substances. Uremia (kidney failure) of some degree might also occur. A fatal outcome would be possible if the affected person was in poor condition, but the terminal illness would not necessarily be due to uremia alone unless it was quite marked and associated with kidney damage.

Q. Would repeated burr hair cuts help prevent baldness?

A. Short hair or the cutting of hair has no relationship to receding hair or the prevention of baldness.

To All Readers: Polio threatens to explode again this year. Every member of your family (adults included) should be "fully" protected with three shots of vaccine. Remember, the vaccine is useless unless used!

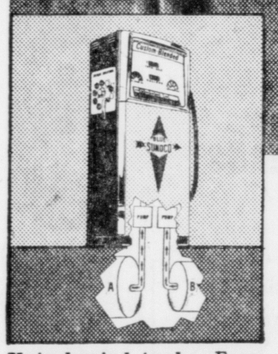
Now! Get peak power without octane waste!



Note buried tanks. From these, pump draws (A) premium quality Blue Sunoco "200", and (B) Sunoco Octane Concentrate (specially refined motor fuel). These are precisely blended by the pump to the exact blend number. Approved by various governmental authorities.

Now you can enjoy all the power your car can deliver and still be sure you are not wasting your money paying for higher octane than your car really needs.

You start with blend recommended. Next tankful, drop down to next lower blend at the next lower price, until you find the blend that performs best . . . yet costs the least!

CUSTOM-BLENDED BLUE SUNOCO

Dieters Find Luncheon Clubs An Aid

An overweight young man asks for help in reducing 40 pounds. He writes:

"I have been on and off diets all my life and always under the doctor's care. I am happily married and have three wonderful children. The one big argument my wife and I have constantly is about my obesity. In every argument I know she's right, but I just can't or don't try hard enough to help myself. Is there any such thing as a reducing club for men? Can you suggest anything that can help me to stay in the diet groove?"

Ida Jean Kain

How about forming a reducing luncheon club? Eating with other dieters at lunch time can be a real morale booster. In some such clubs, the dieters eat together each working day.

—:—

THE SPIRIT of camaraderie among dieters more than makes up for the absent dessert. As an added incentive, the dieters often have a small wager on the side—and the best loser wins.

In a large city where the members of one reducing club are scattered, they meet only once a week. To keep enthusiasm high and calories low, they make the kitty worth working for — each member puts in a dollar. On Monday noons the dieters weigh in. The best loser takes all. The boys have a lot of fun losing. The Monday weighing in strategy has a restraining effect on week-end calories.

A word to the wives of overweight men: Criticizing your overweight mate and cooperating to help him lose are quite different matters. Stop talking and start serving him inviting, low-calorie meals.

Give him a good start for the day by serving a dynamic action breakfast. The menu can include citrus fruit or juice; an egg or two, or an egg and lean meat; a slice of toast lightly buttered or served with a rounded teaspoon of jelly, plus hot coffee. That breakfast will keep him going strong until lunch hour.

At night have dinner ready on the dot. If he is a fast eater, start the meal with soup made with skim milk or tomato bouillon, and have celery and radishes in place of crackers. The main course can be lean meat, fish or chicken, flanked by two vegetables.

If a potato is included, skip the bread. Never leave the serving platter on the table. Serve the salad with a tablespoon of French dressing. Dessert should be on the light order. Perhaps just coffee will suffice.

If the children are having ice cream or some fattening favorite, you and the head of the house could have your coffee in the living room. Get into the spirit of things.

THE MAN OF the family needs to know that he is accepted as a person and deserves praise for his dieting efforts. On his part, he must take an adult attitude toward food and accept responsibility for staying with the diet.

Once he resolves to deal with problems directly instead of transferring his irritation to eating, he will make satisfying progress.

Send a long, stamped, self - addressed envelope for "Mr. and Mrs. Reducing Plan." Address your request to Ida Jean Kain, in care of this newspaper. Post card requests can not be answered.

Liberace's Brother Is Sued For Divorce

RIVERSIDE, Calif. (AP)—"We just live different lives," George Liberace's wife said after suing for divorce Wednesday.

She told reporters that George —violin-playing brother of pianist Liberace—"is away so much of the time. I tried to keep up with him, but it was impossible. My health suffered."

Mrs. Jayne Shields Liberace's complaint charged mental cruelty. Its only specific allegation: "He comes in late and frightens affiant."

County School Graduated 221 In Past Term

Columbiana County schools graduated 221 seniors the past term in their four high schools—Beaver Local, United Local, Southern Local and Fairfield - Waterford, according to Supt. James L. McBride.

A total of 401 eighth grade graduates will enter the high schools next fall, showing a gain of 130 pupils in the coming term.

The county school system operated 75 of its own buses during the term, one bus was contracted by one school district. They carried 5,044 pupils each day out of the total enrollment of 5,522 in the county system. The buses covered 523,363 miles during the term. Seven new school buses were purchased during the term.

The 16 cafeterias operated by the schools were given $54,862 worth of surplus foods and the only expense was the transportation. They consumed $20,450 worth of butter; $4,444 in turkeys, $1,242 in tomatoes, $1,232 in tomato paste, $2,727 in milk, $1,420 in peanut butter, $4,036 in pork and $6,337 of cheese, McBride said.

Attorney Bows To High Court, Gives Up License

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — J. Harvey Crow has bowed to the Ohio Supreme Court and surrendered his attorney's license.

Crow is the twice-disbarred attorney from Urbana who was found guilty of contempt by the court last Monday for continuing to practice law. He was told to turn in his license or go to jail for six months.

Crow's first disbarment was in 1935, by Stark County Common Pleas Court. He was reinstated 15 years later, but disbarred again in 1956 by Champaign County Common Pleas Court for unethical acts in divorce and property settlement cases.

The Ohio State Bar Assn. said Crow continued to practice in at least eight counties and asked for the contempt finding.

Beekeepers Will Hold 2nd Twilight Session

Columbiana County beekeepers will hold their second twilight meeting Wednesday at 7 p. m. at the Wayne Hamilton home near Glasgow on Route 45 south of West Point.

Albert R. Pugh, county extension agent in agriculture, said C. A. Reese, extension apiarist of Ohio State University, will be speaker. Reese will discuss the latest beekeeping methods.

The meeting was planned by the beekeepers in co-operation with the Agriculture Extension Service and all interested in bees are invited to attend.

Prizes will be given and refreshments will be served.

Bringing Up A Family

Untidy Handwriting Can Be Corrected

Although the very bright child, when writing, may have ideas coming so fast that his handwriting may be very bad, ugly, illegible handwriting is not a sign of brilliance. A mother writes of her son, nine: "The problem that really stumps us is his handwriting. He reads well, does very well in arithmetic and exceptionally well in science. Yet his handwriting is so bad he cannot transmit what he knows to paper."

By Garry Meyers

His mother reports that this boy, who has two sisters, ages five and seven, "doesn't wet his bed now but would do so every night if he were not taken up once."

MY REPLY in part:

Obviously he is a high - strung, nervous child, whose nervous tension may be increased by feelings of jealousy. He may feel he does not stand quite as well in the family as his sisters do.

Dad can help by spending more time with him, going places with him, sometimes taking some of his pals along, making things with him and having fun with him.

Dad also might help him recover wholly from bedwetting by providing a clock to call him up and by being on hand often enough for the lad to respond to the clock himself. Also, Dad can alert the family so that no one refers to the matter.

While limiting this boy's viewing of exciting programs on TV, you should encourage him to view the best programs and to read more books.

INSTEAD OF hounding him for his untidy handwriting, urge him to practice writing for a few minutes daily. Using a book that he has found enjoyable, ask him to write legible sentences from it. He might also get help by having a typewriter at home.

At quiet, companionable moments, lead him to see that improvement in handwriting will be very useful all his school life; that no matter how well he expresses himself in written work it may be graded low if it is hard for the teacher to read.

When he prepares written work for school, require him to re-do a paper if it is not as neat and legible as he could write it. Where possible, read him homework aloud and have him take it down slowly and carefully, word for word.

My bulletins, "Your Child and His Handwriting" and "The Nervous Child," may be had by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of this newspaper.

Electronic Device Will Be Used To Detect Speeding

Highway speed control featured electronic devices yesterday for the first time in this state. State Police Supt. Hazen Fair said two such devices have been assigned to each of the four State Police companies.

"Our use of electronic timing devices to aid in the enforcement of speed laws is not a campaign to see how many motorists we can arrest," Fair remarked, "but it is part of a public education program to impress upon the users of our highways the dangers of going too fast."

The Loyalty Class of the Industry Evangelical United Brethren Church will meet Monday night at 7:30.

The Community Class will meet at the home of Mrs. Clarence Wendell Tuesday night at 7:30.

Home Council's Picnic Will Be Held July 9

LISBON — Columbiana County's Home Council Alumnae Picnic will be held Thursday, July 9, beginning at 11 a. m., at Silver Park on Route 80, south of Alliance.

Miss Julia Shank, county home economics agent, said members and guests are to bring a covered dish and their own table service. A program will follow.

Steelworkers Defy Orders, Still Strike

United Steelworkers Union officers called meetings for Cleveland locals to pass on a message from union President David J. McDonald urging them to return to work.

Paul E. Schremp, director of the union's District 28, called the meetings of Locals 1098, 2265 and 1157 after meeting Wednesday with local leaders.

Leaders of the stoppage, which idled more than 8,000 workers, said they would not be bound by a two-week extension of the contract agreed to by negotiators. Without the extension, the contract would have expired Tuesday night.

"This strike has been boiling up for more than two years," said another. "Working conditions grow steadily worse. They keep pushing for production and refused to give the men time to eat."

Heart Ailment Fatal

ARLINGTON, Va. (AP)—James O. Clarke, 68, a former Food and Drug Administration's official, died Wednesday of a heart ailment. Clarke, who served with the agency from 1917 until his retirement in 1952, headed the federal agency's district with headquarters in Chicago from 1929 to 1948. He was born in Augusta, Ga.

Ohio Bishop Sees Pope

37 Guilford Trailers Found Without License

LISBON — County Auditor Kenneth Bell said owners of 37 house trailers at Guilford Lake have not paid $18 trailer tax for this year, according to a survey made by Deputy Auditor George Konnerth.

The lake survey is part of a countywide check to enforce the law on payment of a house trailer tax. He said there are other areas in the county where trailer owners have failed to comply. "We feel that it is only fair that house-trailer owners should pay the tax as well as home owners. After all, a great portion of the tax goes for school purposes," he said.

Beginning July 1, the license drops to $13.50 for the remainder of the year.

June Nuptials Decline

LISBON — Cupid continued to falter in June—the "Month of Brides"—with only 107 marriage licenses issued at the Courthouse, according to Probate Court officials, who said it marked the third year of a decline. In June 1958 there were 117 issued, and in 1957 there were 123. June is usually the record month for marriage licenses.

Driver Strike Settled

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — An eight-hour strike by some 250 milk truck drivers in three counties was settled Wednesday when the drivers came to terms on a new contract. The three-year contract raises by $1.80 a day the present base pay of $5.90 a day, with an immediate increase of $1 a day. The drivers affected work in Mahoning, Trumbull and Columbiana counties.

INSTEAD OF hounding him for his untidy handwriting, urge him to practice writing for a few minutes daily. Using a book that he has found enjoyable, ask him to write legible sentences from it. He might also get help by having a typewriter at home.

At quiet, companionable moments, lead him to see that improvement in handwriting will be very useful all his school life; that no matter how well he expresses himself in written work it may be graded low if it is hard for the teacher to read.

When he prepares written work for school, require him to re-do a paper if it is not as neat and legible as he could write it. Where possible, read him homework aloud and have him take it down slowly and carefully, word for word.

If you suggest changes in his composition, you should write this information for his teacher on the paper with your signature.

My bulletins, "Your Child and His Handwriting" and "The Nervous Child," may be had by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of this newspaper.

Electronic Device Will Be Used To Detect Speeding

Highway speed control featured electronic devices yesterday for the first time in this state. State Police Supt. Hazen Fair said two such devices have been assigned to each of the four State Police companies.

"Our use of electronic timing devices to aid in the enforcement of speed laws is not a campaign to see how many motorists we can arrest," Fair remarked, "but it is part of a public education program to impress upon the users of our highways the dangers of going too fast."

The electronic devices will be used during the anticipated heavy traffic of the holiday period starting Friday.

Industry Township

The Loyalty Class of the Industry Evangelical United Brethren Church will meet Monday night at 7:30.

The Community Class will meet at the home of Mrs. Clarence Wendell Tuesday night at 7:30.

Home Council's Picnic Will Be Held July 9

LISBON — Columbiana County's Home Council Alumnae Picnic will be held Thursday, July 9, beginning at 11 a. m., at Silver Park on Route 80, south of Alliance.

Miss Julia Shank, county home economics agent, said members and guests are to bring a covered-dish and their own table service. A program will follow.

Steelworkers Defy Orders, Still Strike

United Steelworkers Union officers called meetings for Cleveland locals to pass on a message from union President David J. McDonald urging them to return to work.

Paul E. Schremp, director of the union's District 28, called the meetings of Locals 1098, 2265 and 1157 after meeting Wednesday with local leaders.

With pickets manning all plant entrances, Republic closed down operations Wednesday, banking blast furnaces and tapping open hearths.

Leaders of the stoppage, which idled more than 8,000 workers, said they would not be bound by a two-week extension of the contract agreed to by negotiators. Without the extension, the contract would have expired Tuesday night.

"The men have a right to a voice on extending the contract," said one picket.

"This strike has been boiling up for more than two years," said another. "Working conditions grow steadily worse. They keep pushing for production and refused to give the men time to eat."

Heart Ailment Fatal

ARLINGTON, Va. (AP)—James O. Clarke, 68, a former Food and Drug Administration's official, died Wednesday of a heart ailment. Clarke, who served with the agency from 1917 until his retirement in 1952, headed the federal agency's district with headquarters in Chicago from 1929 to 1948. He was born in Augusta, Ga.

37 Guilford Trailers Found Without License

LISBON — County Auditor Kenneth Bell said owners of 37 house trailers at Guilford Lake have not paid $18 trailer tax for this year, according to a survey made by Deputy Auditor George Konnerth.

The lake survey is part of a countywide check to enforce the law on payment of a house trailer tax. He said there are other areas in the county where trailer owners have failed to comply. "We feel that it is only fair that house-trailer owners should pay the tax as well as home owners. After all, a great portion of the tax goes for school purposes," he said.

Beginning July 1, the license drops to $13.50 for the remainder of the year.

June Nuptials Decline

LISBON — Cupid continued to falter in June—the "Month of Brides"—with only 107 marriage licenses issued at the Courthouse, according to Probate Court officials, who said it marked the third year of a decline. In June 1958 there were 117 issued, and in 1957 there were 123. June is usually the record month for marriage licenses.

Driver Strike Settled

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — An eight-hour strike by some 250 milk truck drivers in three counties was settled Wednesday when the drivers came to terms on a new contract. The three-year contract raises by $1.80 a day the present base pay of $5.90 a day, with an immediate increase of $1 a day. The drivers affected work in Mahoning, Trumbull and Columbiana counties.

Wellsburg Couple Win Round To Gain Custody Of Daughter

CHARLESTON (AP) — A Wellsburg couple won the first round Wednesday in their efforts before the Supreme Court to obtain custody of their 2-month-old daughter.

The court, with only three of the five judges present, directed Mr. and Mrs. Ray Smith to appear July 29 and show why they should not release custody of the baby.

The Cunninghams were divorced last November after six and a half years of marriage, but remarried the following month in Wellsburg. The daughter, Darla Ann, was born May 1 of this year in a Wheeling hospital.

About three months earlier, Mrs. Cunningham had signed a release of custody of the unborn child at the request of Dr. H. L. Hegner, the attending physician. The petition said Hegner assured Mrs. Cunningham that what she was signing was not a final release.

She took the baby home with her when she was released from the hospital May 5. On the same day, she turned the child over to Hegner, who in turn turned her over to the Smiths.

The petition said Mrs. Cunningham repudiated in writing her release of Darla Ann and that the father never signed a release in the first place. Nevertheless, the petition added, the Cunninghams have been unsuccessful in all their efforts to get the Smiths to turn the child over to them.

In the habeas corpus proceeding, the Supreme Court was asked to require the Smiths to produce the child before the court and to release her from what was alleged to be "unlawful restraint."

Couple Confined To Wheelchairs Have Baby Girl

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP) — A couple confined to wheelchairs by an incurable disease have become the parents of a baby girl.

Doctors said the couple will have to decide whether to try to keep their daughter with them or to place her in a foster home.

Alexander Quadrozzi, 34, has had to use a wheelchair for the past two years; his wife Janice, 21, for eight years.

They both have muscular dystrophy, a progressive weaking of the muscles.

Doctors said the chances that the baby, born last Monday, will have the disease are greatly increased by the fact that both her parents have it.

Both mother and daughter were reported doing fine.

Brazilian Planes And Boats Search For Mystery Sub

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP)—Brazilian planes and torpedo boats searched today for a mystery submarine which a Brazilian naval task force reported sighting in the South Atlantic 55 miles off the coast.

The navy command ordered an attack if the sub was located and refused to identify itself. However, contact had been lost since noon Wednesday.

A diplomatic source said it was unlikely that a friendly submarine would be in the area. He said there are no U.S. submarines in the South Atlantic at this time.

Farm Station Plans 'Animal Health Day'

LISBON — Animal Health Day will be observed at the Ohio Agriculture Experiment Station Wednesday, according to Floyd Lower county extension agent.

Research work with beef cattle, hogs, sheep and turkeys will be observed and an extensive program of tours, short talks and exhibits has been planned.

Programs for the event are available at the county extension service offices or by writing direct to the Ohio Experiment Station at Wooster.

Strawberry Growers To Discuss Marketing

LISBON — Local strawberry growers who participated in the marketing program through the Salem Fruit Growers Co-operative Association at Greenford this season, will meet at the packing plant tonight at 8:30.

They will evaluate the season's work and make preliminary plans for next year, according to Floyd Lower, county extension agent in agriculture.

Drink With A Kick

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Frank Barto, concessionnaire at an amusement park, was working late and got thirsty. He dropped a dime into the soft drink machine. Nothing happened so he banged it with his fist. A shotgun blast was the response, the pellets inflicting superficial wounds on Barto's head, shoulder and back. John W. Stewart, the park owner, said he heard the noise and thought burglars were looting the machine.

Brazilian Planes And Boats Search For Mystery Sub

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP)—Brazilian planes and torpedo boats searched today for a mystery submarine which a Brazilian naval task force reported sighting in the South Atlantic 55 miles off the coast.

The navy command ordered an attack if the sub was located and refused to identify itself. However, contact had been lost since noon Wednesday.

A diplomatic source said it was unlikely that a friendly submarine would be in the area. He said there are no U.S. submarines in the South Atlantic at this time.

The mystery sub was reported running submerged at four knots and on a westerly course, headed toward the coast.

Farm Station Plans 'Animal Health Day'

LISBON — Animal Health Day will be observed at the Ohio Agriculture Experiment Station Wednesday, according to Floyd Lower county extension agent.

Research work with beef cattle, hogs, sheep and turkeys will be observed and an extensive program of tours, short talks and exhibits has been planned.

Programs for the event are available at the county extension service offices or by writing direct to the Ohio Experiment Station at Wooster.

Strawberry Growers To Discuss Marketing

LISBON — Local strawberry growers who participated in the marketing program through the Salem Fruit Growers Co-operative Association at Greenford this season, will meet at the packing plant tonight at 8:30.

They will evaluate the season's work and make preliminary plans for next year, according to Floyd Lower, county extension agent in agriculture.

2 Area Men Receive Army Commissions

William Kaufman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Burt Kaufman of Calcutta, and William D. Householder of New Cumberland are slated to serve in the Army following commissioning as second lieutenants.

Kaufman, now employed with the Westinghouse Corp. at Pittsburgh, and Householder were graduated in June from West Virginia University at Morgantown. Kaufman is slated to report to Ft. Knox, Ky., next February, and Householder is to report to Ft. Benning, Ga., next June.

Drink With A Kick

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Frank Barto, concessionnaire at an amusement park, was working late and got thirsty. He dropped a dime into the soft drink machine. Nothing happened so he banged it with his fist. A shotgun blast was the response, the pellets inflicting superficial wounds on Barto's head, shoulder and back. John W. Stewart, the park owner, said he heard the noise and thought burglars were looting the machine.

Swede's Victory Could Revolutionize Training

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Ingemar Johansson's sensational knockout of Floyd Patterson for the world heavyweight championship may revolutionize the training methods of American boxers.

Johansson lived in a luxurious ranch house just off the grounds of the plush Grossinger resort on the Catskill Mountains. He had most members of his immediate family and his fiancee, gorgeous, 22-year-old Birgit Lundgren with him.

He golfed, he swam and he danced.

True, he worked out about 15 rounds daily, including seven or eight rounds of boxing.

But as far as American, as well as most foreign observers were concerned, he might just as well skipped rope or punched the bag.

For in the ring he held back his vaunted right, the right that was mockingly called the "mystery" right. Most experts didn't believe he had it. If he did, why didn't he use it?

"I don't want to hurt my sparring partners," Ingemar patiently told one interviewer after another. "What good are they to me on the floor?"

In addition, Ingemar looked so terrible in the sparring you had to wonder if his record was a hoax. His sparring partners outpointed him daily.

"It was Ingemar's underlying over-all top condition that served as a backbone for his fight with Patterson," said Dr. Gosta Karlsson, Johansson's private physician.

"I think that Ingemar was better trained than Patterson. In America I think they train according to old fashioned methods. Working yourself up to a fine peak just isn't the way to do it.

"What really counts is the basic condition of the boxer. Ingemar has it for he trains 12 months of the year. I don't mean the boxing part of it. But he keeps a rigid schedule of roadwork, runs at least one hour daily, summer or winter."

Johansson himself says roadwork and relaxing were important keys to his success.

"It's a matter of relaxing," he said. "People laughed when I said I stopped working five or six days before a fight. But I always do that. My muscles feel loose. I feel the power in my arms. Every day it gets stronger. I know I will have the power when I need it. It has not failed me yet."

How are you going to argue against success?

NEXT: Johansson's personality and his future.

Strong Field Tees Off In Flint Open

Led by defending champion Bill Casper Jr. of Chula Vista, Calif., the huge field tackled the longest course on the 1959 tour, the par-72 Warwick Hills Golf and Country Club. The course measures 7,280 yards.

Casper will be trying to shake off the letdown that came after his victory last month in the U.S. Open. He failed to survive the cut in last week's Chicago Open.

Swede's Victory Could Revolutionize Training

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Ingemar Johansson's sensational knockout of Floyd Patterson for the world heavyweight championship may revolutionize the training methods of American boxers.

From now on managers are going to have a tough time convincing their fighters that the spartan, monastic life is necessary to prepare for a fight.

Johansson lived in a luxurious ranch house just off the grounds of the plush Grossinger resort on the Catskill Mountains. He had most members of his immediate family and his fiancee, gorgeous, 22-year-old Birgit Lundgren with him.

He golfed, he swam and he danced.

True, he worked out about 15 rounds daily, including seven or eight rounds of boxing.

But as far as American, as well as most foreign observers were concerned, he might just as well skipped rope or punched the bag.

For in the ring he held back his vaunted right, the right that was mockingly called the "mystery" right. Most experts didn't believe he had it. If he did, why didn't he use it?

"I don't want to hurt my sparring partners," Ingemar patiently told one interviewer after another. "What good are they to me on the floor?"

In addition, Ingemar looked so terrible in the sparring you had to wonder if his record was a hoax. His sparring partners outpointed him daily.

"It was Ingemar's underlying over-all top condition that served as a backbone for his fight with Patterson," said Dr. Gosta Karlsson, Johansson's private physician.

"I think that Ingemar was better trained than Patterson. In America I think they train according to old fashioned methods. Working yourself up to a fine peak just isn't the way to do it.

"What really counts is the basic condition of the boxer. Ingemar has it for he trains 12 months of the year. I don't mean the boxing part of it. But he keeps a rigid schedule of roadwork, runs at least one hour daily, summer or winter."

Johansson himself says roadwork and relaxing were important keys to his success.

"It's a matter of relaxing," he said. "People laughed when I said I stopped working five or six days before a fight. But I always do that. My muscles feel loose. I feel the power in my arms. Every day it gets stronger. I know I will have the power when I need it. It has not failed me yet."

How are you going to argue against success?

NEXT: Johansson's personality and his future.

Strong Field Tees Off In Flint Open

Led by defending champion Bill Casper Jr. of Chula Vista, Calif., the huge field tackled the longest course on the 1959 tour, the par-72 Warwick Hills Golf and Country Club. The course measures 7,280 yards.

Casper will be trying to shake off the letdown that came after his victory last month in the U.S. Open. He failed to survive the cut in last week's Chicago Open.

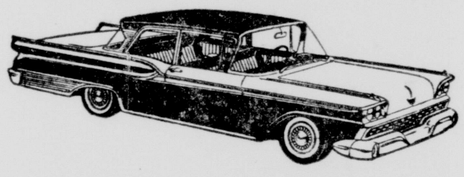
the 59 FORDS



You'll Be Satisfied With These 7 Steps

1. ● Accurately diagnose the repairs needed on your car.
2. ● Secure your authorization to do the work before starting.
3. ● Notify you in advance of any additional work we think should be done.
4. ● Perform all the work on your car as efficiently and as economically as possible and replace only those parts which in our judgment need replacing.
5. ● Road test your car after the work is done.
6. ● Have your car ready on time.
7. ● Provide you with an itemized bill showing exactly what work was done and exactly what it cost.

ALL ROADS LEAD TO HOME

On the edge of downtown we have a 3 bedroom, 2 story, remodeled home at a workingman's price of $7500. Speaking of working, the owners have done lots of it in this home. The interior is new from the top to the bottom, and we are sure it will please you.

Lower OHIO AVE. is one of the nicest streets in East Liverpool. We have a completely remodeled, 3 bedroom home for $12,600, that must be sold. There is new Cedar Shingle on the outside, and a complete new inside, making this a very pleasant family home.

A $2182 downpayment will buy this 2 bedroom home on SHERWOOD AVE. Total price $9000, and the balance payable at 4½% interest. There is a large extra lot 60x100, next door, that is included at this price.

THIRD AVE. LACROFT is a good low priced housing location. We have a good low priced home of 4 rooms and bath with 2 bedrooms for $5000.00

STANTON AVE.—GLENMOOR. Take a look a 3 bedroom, 1 story, home on a beautiful 80x220 foot lot in Glenmoor that needs nothing. A completely finished, basement rumpus room, a full dining-room, kitchen, living-room, and a new furnace. All in A-1 condition. With all this there is an apartment over the 3 car garage that will bring in $75 per month toward making your payments. Phone for information.

SOUTH SURRY RD. FISHER PARK is a location that you'll remember as being a home that paid for itself. Beside the $110 income from the 2 small apartments, the home provides a 3 bedroom, 6 room, 1 story home, with a 2 car garage, and a large 150x100 foot lot. Don't picture this as a big old home, it's only 10 years old, and a Cape Cod home with breezeway and garage with apartment.

Good home at 834 Avondale St. with 6 rooms and 2 baths, gas conversion furnace, slate roof, and double garage. Suitable for 1 or 2 families. $7,500.00

5 one-acre, slightly rolling lots on McCOY AVE. $1,000 each.

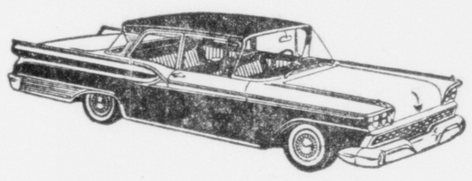
the 59 FORDS



You'll Be Satisfied With These 7 Steps

1. Accurately diagnose the repairs needed on your car.
2. Secure your authorization to do the work before starting.
3. Notify you in advance of any additional work we think should be done.
4. Perform all the work on your car as efficiently and as economically as possible and replace only those parts which in our judgment need replacing.
5. Road test your car after the work is done.
6. Have your car ready on time.
7. Provide you with an itemized bill showing exactly what work was done and exactly what it cost.

ALL ROADS LEAD TO HOME

On the edge of downtown we have a 3 bedroom, 2 story, remodeled home at a workingman's price of $7500. Speaking of working, the owners have done lots of it in this home. The interior is new from the top to the bottom, and we are sure it will please you.

Lower OHIO AVE. is one of the nicest streets in East Liverpool. We have a completely remodeled, 3 bedroom home for $12,600, that must be sold. There is new Cedar Shingle on the outside, and a complete new inside, making this a very pleasant family home.

A $2182. downpayment will buy this 2 bedroom home on SHERWOOD AVE. Total price $9000, and the balance payable at 4½% interest. There is a large extra lot 60x100, next door, that is included at this price.

THIRD AVE. LACROFT is a good low priced housing location. We have a good low priced home of 4 rooms and bath with 2 bedrooms for $5000.00

STANTON AVE.—GLENMOOR. Take a look a 3 bedroom, 1 story, home on a beautiful 80x220 foot lot in Glenmoor that needs nothing. A completely finished, basement rumpus room, a full dining-room, kitchen, living-room, and a new furnace. All in A-1 condition. With all this there is an apartment over the 3 car garage that will bring in $75 per month toward making your payments. Phone for information.

SOUTH SURRY RD. FISHER PARK is a location that you'll remember as being a home that paid for itself. Beside the $110 income from the 2 small apartments, the home provides a 3 bedroom, 6 room, 1 story home, with a 2 car garage, and a large 150x100 foot lot. Don't picture this as a big old home, it's only 10 years old, and a Cape Cod home with breezeway and garage with apartment.

Good home at 834 Avondale St. with 6 rooms and 2 baths, gas conversion furnace, slate roof, and double garage. Suitable for 1 or 2 families. $7,500.00

5 one-acre, slightly rolling lots on McCOY AVE. $1,000 each.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Laners: To announce—or not to announce—that is the question. Whether 'tis nobler to announce your engagement to the man you love and wish to marry or wait until his mother has used up all her ailment complaints?

I waited four years for my fiance to give me a ring. I got the ring four months ago but he asked me when he put it on my finger, to please keep it in the box till his mother was "feeling better." I complied with his request but it's making me madder by the minute.

His mother never liked me because I am not a sorority girl. Her sick spells have kept him away from me many an evening. And now he's asking me to hold off announcing our engagement because the "shock" might be bad for her.

Shall I go ahead and announce it anyway?—DIAMOND JILL.

Dear Jill: Why don't you put the blame where it belongs—right on Casper Milktoast's shoulders, instead of directing all that venom toward his scheming mother?

Sure, Mom is pulling everything in the book to keep Sonny Boy on her knee but only a jellyfish would ask her fiancee to keep her ring in the box for four months because he can't bear to tell Mom he plans to take a wife.

I suggest a complete reappraisal. If Casper is afraid to announce an engagement, how on earth do you propose to get him to the altar? If you must clap an ether mask over his face, what good is it?

Strong, Silent Type

Dear Ann: I am a European girl who married an American. Maybe you can help me figure out what is wrong with my husband? Or is it me?

Lately he has stopped talking to me for a few days at a time. Perhaps I say or do something that upsets him. I don't know what it could be. When he gets silent like this I ask him what is the matter. He says, "If you aren't smart enough to figure it out, then I have nothing to say to you."

These moods are making a nervous wreck out of me. I need your help. If this American behavior or what?—B.B.

Dear B.B.: This isn't American behavior—it's childish behavior and it can be found in any country where human beings live.

His spells of silence probably have nothing to do with you, so stop falling into the trap. When things go wrong elsewhere people often take it out on those around them.

If your husband wants to act like a clam with a broken hinge treat him as you would a 4-year-old who tries to attract attention by sulking in silence.

Overworked Bride

Dear Ann: I'm 18. My husband is 21. We've been married three months. I work eight hours a day six days a week and take care of our apartment, do all the laundry and cooking. Three nights a week he insists I bowl in a mixed league and on Sunday I teach two classes as well as sing in the choir because he wants me to.

He only works five days a week but refuses to shop for groceries or do any housework. He naps while I get supper and sleeps an hour longer in the morning since he drives to work and I take the bus.

I'm dead tired all the time. What can I do?—BEAT BABE.

Dear Beat: Your husband is getting away with murder and you're a sap to put up with it. Tell him either you quit your job or he pitches in and helps with the housework and shopping.

You need rest more than exercise. Why not go along to the bowling alley as a spectator? Better get some changes made or you'll be tired for the rest of your life.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

4 Who Sawed Out Of Jail Recaptured

CLEVELAND (AP)—Four prisoners sawed their way out of the Cuyahoga County jail early today, but were recaptured a few minutes later.

One was Lonas Ray Caughhorn, 33, who was awaiting return to Knoxville, Tenn., to face charges as an escaped federal prisoner.

The others were identified as Ralph Roberts, held for armed robbery; James Bond, burglary and larceny, and Robert Knapil, armed robbery.

Knapil was captured as he worked his way nearly 50 feet down the outside of the building to the ground by means of a rope fashioned from bed sheets and a garden hose.

The others were captured in the office of Sheriff Joseph M. Sweeney. Officers said the men appeared to be searching for weapons.

Police said the prisoners, who had the run of a fifth-floor cell block, sawed their way out of the block and then made their way to the fourth floor, where the sheriff's office is located.

Caughorn was one of the first recaptured. A deputy collared him after noticing someone moving about in the sheriff's office. Police later found Roberts and Bond in the office.

Wellsville Will Count Kindergarten Children

A census count of all children eligible to enter kindergarten in September will be held Tuesday at Wellsville MacDonald School, according to Supt. S. E. Daw.

The school will be open from 9 to 11:30 a. m. and from 1 to 3 p. m. for the registration. The Fairview district will be included.

To be eligible, a child must have been immunized against diphtheria, whooping cough and tetanus and be vaccinated against smallpox and polio.

The child also must have attained the fifth birthday on or before Oct. 31. A birth certificate must be presented, Daw said.

Miss Maryland Gives Up Title Of 4½ Days

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP) — A statuesque blonde who stands 5 feet 9 gave up her Miss Maryland title after a reign of only 4½ days Wednesday because she didn't want to try for more starry heights.

"Since the excitement has died down, I don't desire a very glamorous career," said 25-year-old Marie Litz.

Ohio And Number Of Its Cities Due Safety Citations

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The state of Ohio as well as a number of its cities are getting an award for "leadership in pedestrian safety" from the American Automobile Assn.

J. Grant Keys, highway safety director, has accepted an honorable mention award in nationwide state competition from Charles Vibberts, director of safety and education in the Ohio State Automobile Assn.

The grand national award and first place rating for cities under 50,000 population goes to East Cleveland as the top winner in its category. Elyria, Shaker Heights and Springfield receive honorable mention in this competition. Cincinnati and Cleveland receive first and second awards, respectively, for cities with 500,000 to 1,000,000 population. In its population category, Toledo receives third place rating. Honorable mention in the 10,000 to 25,000 population bracket goes to Maple Heights.

Special citations go to Greenville, Franklin and Canton for casualty records, to Lakewood, Maumee and Rocky River for pedestrian program activities, to Euclid for no pedestrian deaths, and to Wilmington for improvement in program activities.

Named College Coach

RICHMOND, Ind. (AP) — Bob Clayton Woods, head football and track coach at Washington Twp. high school in Centerville, Ohio, was named assistant football coach at Earlham College here Wednesday. He will also teach physical education and assist in track.

Queen Elizabeth To Tour 1812 War Battleground

STRATFORD, Ont. (AP) — Queen Elizabeth II looks today at history, a renowned Shakespearean festival and possibly the aftermath of a comic opera Indian independence movement.

The royal tour, now in its third week, is taking the Queen and Prince Philip through a region of southwest Ontario where the echos of the War of 1812 between the United States and Britain still resound.

In anticipation of the royal visit, flags were flying at a farm house known as "Battlefield House," on Stoney Creek near Hamilton.

The battle of Stoney Creek, not the most glorious passage of American military history, saw some 800 British regulars attack under cover of night and rout four times that many Americans. Historians say the skirmish vitally affected the course of the war.

An Indian uprising took place last spring near Brantford, another stopping point for the royal couple. A group of hereditary chiefs from the six Iroquois nations challenged the authority of the elected governing body on their reservation. They took possesssion of the town hall for several days until the mounted police restored the elected council.

After short visits to a number of small towns en route, the royal couple was to ride through Shakespeare Street in Stratford and attend Canada's celebrated Shakespearean festival.

Since its start six years ago, the festival has become one of Canada's foremost theatrical events.

How Much Should a Prescription Cost?

This is a fair question, and one we are always glad to discuss, obviously, prescriptions vary in cost. The price is determined primarily by two factors: the cost of ingredients and the time involved in compounding.
Usually, when a prescription "seems a little high priced" the reason may be found in the cost of an important ingredient. But such products, because of remarkable curative qualities, may prove a real economy. The medicine costs a little more—the illness costs a great deal less. And, of course, when illness strikes you seek a quick and certain recovery.
